Interpreting Cézanne Sidney Geist, 1988 In this remarkable book the sculptor and writer Sidney Geist presents a revolutionary interpretation of the art of Cézanne Geist argues that Cézanne's paintings are fertile with reflections of the artist's private world and passionate concerns Looking at more than two hundred works all reproduced in the book he identifies the symbolism that gives form to a hidden significance in the paintings concealed allusions to Cézanne himself and to his relations with his wife and mother his father his son and his friend Zola as well as a circle of colleagues including Pissarro Frederic Bazille and Ambroise Vollard It is a complex pattern of symbols expressed in both secondary visual images and in verbal connections including rebuses and puns In reading these paintings for symbolic meaning Geist opens the way to a fuller understanding of Cézanne as well as to new ways of looking at pictures Interpretation of this kind in its turn explains formal aspects of the paintings with a richness not possible in abstract analysis

Jean-Baptiste-Armand Guillaumin Armand Guillaumin, 1971* Van Gogh Gregory White Smith, Steven Naifeh, 2011-10-17 Vincent van Gogh created some of the best loved and most expensive works of art ever made from the early The Potato Eaters to his late masterpieces Sunflowers and The Starry Night He had worked as an art dealer a missionary and as a teacher in England and only in his late twenties did he begin a life that would be fundamental in shaping modern art But when he died in Auvers sur Oise in 1890 at the age of thirty seven he was largely unknown Written with the cooperation of the Van Gogh Museum Pulitzer winning authors Steven Naifeh and Gregory White Smith recreate his extraordinary life and the inside of his troubled mind like never before and they put forward an explosive new theory challenging the widespread belief that Van Gogh took his own life Drawing for the first time on all of his and his family's extensive letters which offer exquisite glimpses into his thoughts and feelings this is the definitive portrait of one of the world

commissions exhibition places and spaces awards and every other means of enhancing their legitimacy By no means were the avant garde salons those that most succeeded Instead as this cultural political history demonstrates the French Artists and National Fine Art Salons were the most successful with the genderist French Artists Salon being the most powerful and official Despite the renown today of Neo Impressionism Art Nouveau Fauvism Cubism and Orphism the most powerful artists in this modern art centre were not Sonia Delaunay mile Gall Paul Signac Henri Matisse or even Picasso but such Academicians as L on Bonnat William Bouguereau Fernand Cormon Edouard Detaille Gabriel Ferrier Jean Paul Laurens Luc Oliver Merson and Aim Morot who exhibited at the official Salon supported by the machinery of the State In its exposure of the rivalry conflict and struggle between the Salons and their artists this is an unprecedented history of dissension It also exposes how just below the welcoming internationalist veneer of this modern art centre intense persecutionist paranoia lay festering Whenever France s civilizing mission seemed culturally commercially or colonially threatened it erupted in waves of nationalist xenophobia turning artistic rivalry into bitter enmity In exposing how rivals became transmuted into conspirators ultimately this book reveals a paradox resonant in histories that celebrate the international triumph of French modern art that this magnetic centre which began by welcoming international modernists ended by attacking them for undermining its cultural supremacy contaminating its civilizing mission and politically persecuting the very modernist culture for which it has received historical renown
