Arms For The Nation Springfield Longarms:

Springfield Armory Alex MacKenzie, 2015 Pres George Washington authorized Springfield Armory to begin manufacturing small arms for the US military in 1794 Over nearly two centuries until its closure in 1968 the government armory at Springfield Massachusetts became legendary not only for the arms provided to soldiers during conflicts such as the War of 1812 the Civil War and World War II but also for the way in which those arms were crafted The drive to produce firearms of high quality and quantity for the nation's military created a need to improve manufacturing methods and machinery Armory advancements such as the interchangeability of parts helped lay the groundwork of the American Industrial Revolution Because of these efforts Springfield Armory is recognized not only as a first rate government arms manufacturer but also as a hub of industry attracting thousands of skilled men and women from around the world The Repeating Rifle Samuel Willard Crompton, 2004 Representing new levels of technical achievement the invention of the repeating rifle no longer required soldiers to be excellent marksmen The carnage of the first major war to utilize this new technology World War I demonstrates its effectiveness Arms for the Nation Scott A.
