Atlantic beaches from Cascais to Estoril      Searching for Presence Robert W. Greene, 2022-04-11 Yves Bonnefoy's writings have won him praise not only from readers and critics of French poetry but also thanks to translations into many other languages from readers and critics of poetry far beyond the francophone world. Indeed, Bonnefoy may be the most admired poet to have emerged in France since World War II. Yet his art criticism, dazzling in its scope, possibly as original as his poetry, is yet to receive the attention it deserves. Searching for Presence: Yves Bonnefoy's Writings on Art undertakes to fill that lacuna. Elusive, skirting the ineffable, the notion of presence has haunted Bonnefoy for decades. Central to the notion for the poet is the fleeting experience of mutuality between self and other, of lightning transaction in a transient world of a shared mortal destiny; hence a plenitude within finitude. In an age when so many of his contemporaries seem to view any form of art as wallpaper spanning a void, Bonnefoy's faith in presence is all the more welcome. Focusing on his art criticism, the aspect of the poet's oeuvre in which the notion of presence is the most salient, this study tries to do justice to that fidelity.      The Europa International Foundation Directory 2022 Europa Publications, 2022-07-21 Now in its 31st edition, the Europa International Foundation Directory 2022 provides an unparalleled guide to the foundations, trusts, charitable and grantmaking NGOs, and other similar not-for-profit organizations of the world. It provides a comprehensive picture of third-sector activity on a global scale. Users will find names and contact details for some 2,690 institutions worldwide. This new edition has been revised and expanded to include the most comprehensive and up-to-date information on this growing sector. Indexes allow the reader to find organizations by area of activity, including conservation and the environment, science and technology, education, and social welfare, and geographical region of operations, e.g., South America, Central America, and the Caribbean, Australasia, Western Europe, and North America. Contents include: A comprehensive directory section organized by country or territory; Details of coordinating bodies and of foundations, trusts, and non-profit organizations; A full index of organizations and indexes by main activity and by geographical area of activity.      Abstract Crossings María Amalia García, 2019-07-16 Toward the middle of the 1950s, abstract art became a dominant trend in the Latin American cultural scene. Many artists incorporated elements of abstraction into their rigorous artistic vocabularies, while at the same time the representation of geometric lines and structures filtered into everyday life, appearing in textiles, posters, murals, and landscapes. The translation of a field-changing Spanish language book, Abstract Crossings, analyzes the relationship between, on the one hand, the emergence of abstract proposals in avant-garde groups and, on the other, the institutionalization and newfound hegemony of abstract poetics as part of Latin America's imaginary of modernization. A profusion of mid-century artistic institutional exchanges between Argentina and Brazil makes a study of the trajectories of abstraction in these two countries particularly valuable. Examining the work of artists such as Max Bill, Lygia Clark, Waldemar Cordeiro, and Tom's Maldonado, author María Amalia García rewrites the artistic history of the period and proposes a novel reading of the cultural dialogue between Argentina and Brazil. This is the first book in the new Studies on Latin American Art series, supported by a gift from the Institute for Studies on Latin American Art      Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition      Lucien Hervé Olivier Beer, 2004 Lucien Hervé 1910 one of the great architectural photographers of the twentieth century collaborated with Le Corbusier from 1949 until the renowned architect died in 1965 Hervé approached his subjects seeking not only to document the buildings he was commissioned to photograph but also especially to convey a sense of space texture and structure Through light and shadow Hervé defined the dialogue between substance and form By delineating a strong contrast between light and shadow as well as placing emphasis on building details the photographer was able to communicate the depth of a room the surface of a wall or the strength of a building's framework For too long Hervé the master of architectural photography has eclipsed Hervé the photographer whose career began as early as 1938 and whose subject matter varied widely Featuring more than one hundred of his photographs in every genre this book celebrates Hervé's work as an artist creating images that serve not simply as records but stand as works of a singular imagination      Surrealist Women Penelope Rosemont, 2010-07-05 Beginning in Paris in the 1920s women poets essayists painters and artists in other media have actively collaborated in defining and refining surrealism's basic project achieving a higher open and dynamic consciousness from which no aspect of the real or the imaginary is rejected Indeed few artistic or social movements can boast as many women forebears founders and participants perhaps only feminism itself Yet outside the movement women's contributions to surrealism have been largely ignored or simply unknown This anthology the first of its kind in any language displays the range and significance of women's contributions to surrealism Letting surrealist women speak for themselves Penelope Rosemont has assembled nearly three hundred texts by ninety six women from twenty eight countries She opens the book with a succinct summary of surrealism's basic aims and principles followed by a discussion of the place of gender in the movement's origins She then organizes the book into historical periods ranging from the 1920s to the present with introductions that describe trends in the movement during each period Rosemont also prefaces each surrealist's work with a brief biographical statement      Arpad Szenes , 1972      Notes on Participatory Art Gustaf Almenberg, 2010-12-02 We are living in the Age of Participation Social media are exploding customer cooperation is sought in product development and customer content is even built into media But where is the art reflecting our times Where are the artists making this kind of art Who were their predecessors In this book the author traces the roots of Participatory Art from Duchamp Mondrian and Moholy Nagy via less well known artists like Lygia Clark and Charlotte Posenenske as well as via better known artists like Joseph Beuys and yvind Fahlstrm to contemporary artists showing an interest in participation like Olafur Eliasson and Antony Gormley Participation is the most important thing that has happened in art Gormley said in 2009 What then is Participatory Art After around 40 years of practice the author tries to distill the essential principles in 10 suggestions for a Manifesto Most central is its focus on the unfolding creative moment itself and on the creativity of the spectator      René Char dans le miroir des eaux Ève Duperray, Didier Alexandre, 2008      Bibliographie D'histoire de L'art , 1996
