Art Cuba The New Generation:

Misplaced Objects Silvia Spitta, 2009-07-01 When things move things change Starting from this deceptively simple premise Silvia Spitta opens a fascinating window onto the profound displacements and transformations that have occurred over the six centuries since material objects and human subjects began circulating between Europe and the Americas This extended reflection on the dynamics of misplacement starts with the European practice of collecting objects from the Americas into Wunderkammern literally cabinets of wonders Stripped of all identifying contexts these exuberant collections including the famous Real Gabinete de Historia Natural de Madrid upset European certainties forcing a reorganization of knowledge that gave rise to scientific inquiry and to the epistemological shift we call modernity In contrast cults such as that of the Virgin of Guadalupe arose out of the reverse migration from Europe to the Americas The ultimate marker of mestizo identity in Mexico the Virgin of Guadalupe is now fast crossing the U S Mexico border and miracles are increasingly being reported Misplaced Objects then concludes with the more intimate and familial collections and recollections of Cuban and Mexican American artists and writers that are contributing to the Latinization of the United States Beautifully illustrated and radically interdisciplinary Misplaced Objects clearly demonstrates that it is not the awed viewer but rather the misplaced object itself that unsettles our certainties allowing new meanings to emerge

New Art of Cuba Luis Camnitzer, 2003 Starting with the groundbreaking 1981 exhibit called Volumen I New Art of Cuba provided the first comprehensive look at the works of the first generation of Cuban artists completely shaped by the 1959 revolution This revised edition includes a new epilogue that discusses developments in Cuban art since the book's publication in 1994 including the exodus of artists in the early 1990s the effects of the new dollar economy on the status of artists and the shift away from socialist themes to more personal concerns in the artists works Twenty four new color plates augment the more than 200 b w illustrations of the original volume

Cuban Artists Across the Diaspora Andrea O'Reilly Herrera, 2011-07-11 As an island a geographical space with mutable and porous borders Cuba has never been a fixed cultural political or geographical entity Migration and exile have always informed the Cuban experience and loss and displacement have figured as central preoccupations among Cuban artists and intellectuals A major expression of this experience is the unconventional multi generational itinerant and ongoing art exhibit CAF The Journeys of Cuban Artists In Cuban Artists Across the Diaspora Andrea O'Reilly Herrera focuses on the CAF project to explore Cuba's long and turbulent history of movement and rupture from the perspective of its visual arts and to meditate upon the manner in which one reconstitutes and reinvents the self in the context of diaspora Approaching the Cafeteros art from a cultural studies perspective O'Reilly

Herrera examines how the history of Cuba informs their work and establishes their connections to past generations of Cuban artists In interviews with more than thirty artists including Jos Bedia Mar a Brito Leandro Soto Glexis Novoa Baruj Salinas and Ana Albertina Delgado O Reilly Herrera also raises critical questions regarding the many and sometimes paradoxical ways diasporic subjects self affiliate or situate themselves in the narratives of scattering and displacement She demonstrates how the Cafeteros artmaking involves a process of re rooting absorption translation and synthesis that simultaneously conserves a series of identifiable Cuban cultural elements while re inscribing and transforming them in new contexts An important contribution to both diasporic and transnational studies and discussions of contemporary Cuban art Cuban Artists Across the Diaspora ultimately testifies to the fact that a long tradition of Cuban art is indeed flourishing outside the island

Art and Revolution in Latin America, 1910-1990 David Craven, 2006-01-01 In this uniquely wide ranging book David Craven investigates the extraordinary impact of three Latin American revolutions on the visual arts and on cultural policy The three great upheavals in Mexico 1910-40 in Cuba 1959-89 and in Nicaragua 1979-90 were defining moments in twentieth century life in the Americas Craven discusses the structural logic of each movement's artistic project by whom how and for whom artworks were produced and assesses their legacies In each case he demonstrates how the consequences of the revolution reverberated in the arts and cultures far beyond national borders The book not only examines specific artworks originating from each revolution's attempt to deal with the challenge of socializing the arts but also the engagement of the working classes in Mexico Cuba and Nicaragua with a tradition of the fine arts made newly accessible through social transformation Craven considers how each revolution dealt with the pressing problem of creating a dialogical art one that reconfigures the existing artistic resource rather than one that just reproduces a populist art to keep things as they were In addition the author charts the impact on the revolutionary processes of theories of art and education articulated by such thinkers as John Dewey and Paulo Freire The book provides a fascinating new view of the Latin American revolutionaries from artists to political leaders who defined art as a fundamental force for the transformation of society and who bequeathed new ways of thinking about the relations among art ideology and class within a revolutionary process
