Proceedings form a forum which provided a collegial forum for a small and select group of foreign policy and regional experts to formulate and recommend new directions for American foreign policy for each of the major regions of the world

With a new American administration in office this is an opportune time to assess American foreign policy and to set future directions

- 1 What challenges and opportunities will the United States and its allies and friends face in the future
- 2 What changes should be made to all elements of U S foreign policy including the diplomatic economic military and informational elements
- 3 What elements should continue
- 4 What are the varying perspectives of nations within the region concerning U S foreign policy
- 5 What changes in U S foreign policy would they desire
- 6 Overall what new directions for U S foreign policy will better support the interests and objectives of the United States its allies and its friends

A total of thirty three foreign policy and regional experts participated in the workshop

Seventeen panelists presented papers on seven panels

A Global Perspective Western Hemisphere Asia and the Pacific South Asia The Greater Middle East Europe and Russia and Africa

Policymakers members of government and governmental committees and agencies and students and members of the general public interested in American foreign policy will be interested in this publication
