Trekking across America Lyell D. Jr. Henry, 2024-10-30 For several decades following the end of the Civil War the most popular sport in the United States was walking Professional pedestrians often covered 500 miles or more for up to six grueling days and nights in pursuit of large money prizes Walking was also a favorite amateur sport newspapers often noted a pedestrian mania or walking fever that only began to give way in the mid 1880s to fast rising crazes for baseball bicycling and roller skating As competitive walking faded a new kind of spectacle walking which had also begun in the late 1860s came to full flower Between 1890 and 1930 hundreds of men women even children and entire families were on the nation's roads and railroad tracks trekking between widely separated points sometimes moving in unusual ways such as on roller skates or by walking barefooted backward on stilts or while rolling a hoop To finance their attention seeking journeys many sold souvenir postcards The public usually found these performers entertaining but public officials and newspaper editors often denounced them as nuisances or frauds Tapping vintage postcards and old newspaper articles this is the first book to bring back to view this once familiar feature of American life

When Fears are Grounded DREAMS TAKE WINGS Dr. Lenny Markose, 2023-02-27 When circumstances and negative influences forced her to give up her lifelong ambition with her indomitable spirit perseverance and faith in God like a Phoenix she overcame these hurdles to achieve success Many a time we tend to give up in the face of failures and disappointments Lenny has shown how one can overcome such hindrances in everyday life Life is never a planned journey We should grasp the moments as they come in our path As you journey through the various twists and turns of her life you will be surprised how destiny has formatted a truly extraordinary life in a simple village girl Her sojourn through her childhood in Malaysia her early family life in East Africa and the ultimate settling down to a wonderful professional and family life is a remarkable saga of contemporary life Setbacks and tragedies are there in everyone's lives How you face them and make the best use of the experiences in life brings out the true worth of the individual The book is all about a life that can be built around an edifice of Christian faith and ideals with absolute motivation and perseverance Dr M M Markose
