Art and Culture Clement Greenberg, 1961 Collected essays which appeared originally in Partisan Review The Nation Commentary and other publications Cyberculture and New Media , 2009-01-01 In the extension of digital media from optional means to central site of activity the domains of language art learning play film and politics have been subject to radical reconfigurations as mediating structures This book examines how this changed relationship has in each case shaped a new form of discourse between self and culture and illustrates explicitly the character of mediated agency beyond the formal separateness from lived experience that was once conveniently termed the virtual and which has come to influence common assumptions about creative expression itself High Art Lite Julian Stallabrass, 1999 High Art Lite takes a critical look at British art of the 1990s It provides an analysis of the British art scene exploring the reasons for its popularity and examines in detail the work of the leading figures Getty Research Journal, No. 13 Gail Feigenbaum, 2021-03-09 The Getty Research Journal features the work of art historians museum curators and conservators around the world as part of Getty's mission to promote the presentation conservation and interpretation of the world's artistic legacy Articles present original scholarship related to Getty collections initiatives and broad research interests This issue features essays on a Parthian stag rhyton and new epigraphic and technical discoveries gendered devotion and owner portraits in illuminated manuscripts from northern France around 1300 a technical analysis of heraldic devices in a missal from Renaissance Bologna a new social and collective practice of drawing among French architect pensionnaires of the 1820s and 1830s at Pompeii artist Malvina Hoffman's representations of race during her travels to Southeastern Europe as part of her work with the American Yugo Slav Relief Raimundo de Madrazo y Garreta's painting Reverie The Letter and the small world sensation as a methodology for global art history arguments that disprove the attribution of the J Paul Getty Museum's sculpture Head with Horns to artist Paul Gauguin Head with Horns and Gauguin's creative appropriation of objects and the unpublished first draft of critic Clement Greenberg's essay Towards a Newer Laocoon High Art David Carrier, 2010-11-01 The great poet Charles Baudelaire 1821-1867 was also an extremely influential art critic High Art relates the philosophical issues posed by Baudelaire's art writing to the theory and practice of modernist and postmodernist painting Baudelaire wrote in an age of transition David Carrier argues an era divided by the Revolution of 1848 the historical break that played for him a role now taken within modernism by the political revolts of 1968 Moving from the grand tradition of Delacroix to the images of modern life made by Constantin Guys this movement from high to low from the unified world of correspondences to the fragmented images of contemporary city life motivates Baudelaire's equivalent to the post 1968 turn away from formalist art criticism Viewed from the perspective of the 1990s Carrier argues the issues raised by Baudelaire's criticism and creative writing provide a way of understanding the situation of art writing in our own time Inspiration: Bacchus and the Cultural History of a Creation Myth John F. Moffitt, 2005-05-01 The purpose of this book is to reveal the antique pedigree of a now commonplace term Inspiration an essential creation myth now propelling notions of self expression in modern art making Knowledge of the ancient sources of such supposedly modernist fixations will make a significant contribution to historical cultural thinking particularly by showing in detail the facts of an unrecognized evolutionary continuity In order to personify Inspiration this study initially focuses upon Michelangelo's Bacchus of 1496 so revealing now forgotten meanings once typically to be attached in a generic way to any Bacchus Then it demonstrates how these Dionysiac concepts arose in ancient Greece Later developments particularly from the Middle Ages through the Renaissance are traced here for the first time Due to further modifications by Friedrich Nietzsche Dionysiac expressionism eventually became a staple of modern art theory and practice

American Studies Jack Salzman, 1986-08-29 This is an annotated bibliography of 20th century books through 1983 and is a reworking of American Studies An Annotated Bibliography of Works on the Civilization of the United States published in 1982 Seeking to provide foreign nationals with a comprehensive and authoritative list of sources of information concerning America it focuses on books that have an important cultural framework and does not include those which are primarily theoretical or methodological It is organized in 11 sections anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science technology medicine and sociology Each section contains a preface introducing the reader to basic bibliographic resources in that discipline and paragraph length non evaluative annotations Includes author title and subject indexes ISBN 0 521 32555 2 set 150 00 Rethinking Arshile Gorky , A reexamination of the art of Arshile Gorky 1904 1948 and an exploration of his role in the development of modern abstraction in America Printing and Painting the News in Victorian London Andrea Korda, 2017-07-05 Printing and Painting the News in Victorian London offers a fresh perspective on Social Realism by contextualizing it within the burgeoning new media environment of Victorian London Paintings labelled as Social Realist by Luke Fildes Frank Holl and Hubert Herkomer are frequently considered to typify the sentimental Victorian genre painting that quickly became outdated with the development of modernism Yet this book argues that the paintings must be considered as the result of the new experiences of modernity the urban poverty that the paintings represent and most importantly the advent of the mass produced illustrated news Fildes Holl and Herkomer worked for The Graphic a publication launched in 1869 as a rival to the dominant Illustrated London News The artists illustrations which featured the growing problem of urban poverty became the basis for large scale paintings that provoked controversy among their contemporaries and later became known as Social Realism This first in depth study of The Graphic and Social Realism uses the approach of media archaeology to unearth the modernity of these works showing that they engaged with the changing notions of objectivity and immediacy that nineteenth century new media cultivated In doing so this book proposes an alternative trajectory for the development of modernism that allows for a richer understanding of nineteenth century visual culture God in the Gallery (Cultural Exegesis) Daniel A. Siedell, 2008-10-01 Is contemporary art a friend or foe of Christianity Art historian critic and curator Daniel Siedell addresses this question and presents a framework for interpreting art from a Christian worldview in God in the Gallery A Christian

Embrace of Modern Art As such it is an excellent companion to Francis Schaeffer's classic Art and the Bible Divided into three parts Theology History and Practice God in the Gallery demonstrates that art is in conversation with and not opposed to the Christian faith In addition this book is beautifully enhanced with images from such artists as Andy Warhol Jackson Pollock Enrique Mart nez Celaya and others Readers of this book will include professors students artists and anyone interested in Christianity and culture A Roger Fry Reader Roger Fry, 1996-07-15 This book brings together a comprehensive selection of Roger Fry's essays from modern French art to formalist aesthetic theory The book examines the foundations of modern art criticism the nature of art and the aesthetic experience Mediumism René Vincente

Arcilla, 2011-01-02 Mediumism considers what the modernist movement in the arts could mean for us today It examines how artists and critics particularly in the visual arts responded to the growth of industries of distraction since the nineteenth century by creating new kinds of artworks that stress their mediums Ren V Arcilla draws out the metaphysical and ethical implications of the work of critics Clement Greenberg T J Clark and Michael Fried from a perspective rooted in existentialism He finds in the resulting moral orientation a way to understand the distinctive purpose of liberal education and its political resistance to consumerism Eschewing terminology that would be familiar to only one set of specialists the book aims to be accessible to a general audience as well as to readers interested in modernist art cultural politics existentialist philosophy and the philosophical principles of liberal education Modern Sculpture Douglas Dreishpoon, 2022-10-25 This tapestry of primary sources is an essential primer on sculpture and its makers Modern Sculpture presents a selection of manifestos documents statements articles and interviews from more than ninety sculptors including a diverse selection of contemporary sculptors With this book editor Douglas Dreishpoon defers to artists whose varied points of view illuminate sculpture's transformation from object to action concept to phenomenon over the course of more than a century Chapters arranged in chronological sequences highlight dominant stylistic philosophical and thematic threads uniting kindred groups The result is an artist centric history of sculpture as a medium of consequence and character
