History, Practice and Pedagogy Susan Barahal, Elizabeth Pugliano, 2024-11-21 This edited volume explores the historical practical and pedagogical possibilities for expressing and cultivating empathy through works of art While aspects of what we today recognize as empathy has nestled in the artistic experiences and philosophies of all ages the subjective and elusive nature of empathic responses has often resulted in the relegation of empathy to the margins of art historical inquiry Moving into the second quarter of the twenty first century amidst global health crises civic unrest political turmoil and persistent social inequities and injustices this capacity to feel with and as someone or something outside of ourselves is more critical than ever Probing the very notion of empathy contributions address themes ranging from environmental and social justice to identity and inclusion to transdisciplinary pedagogies and practices each with a critical eye to how works of art not only appeal to empathic sensibilities but might play an active role in developing capacities for empathy in viewers

Collecting and Provenance Andrea M. Gáldy,Ronit Sorek,Netta Assaf,Gal Ventura,2021-06-21 This collection of essays highlights the enduring significance of provenance and its implications for historians and art historians as well as students and researchers engaged in museum studies It also offers an opportunity to demonstrate its relevance to other fields of expertise such as conservation visual culture studies aesthetics authentication and connoisseurship versus technology as a means of establishing attributions and detecting forgeries Provenance is still of vital importance to jurisdiction whether it concerns property law or ownership It also remains topical because of the ongoing debates over looted art in the 1930s and 1940s and the illicit trade in antiquities conducted from Iraq and Syria by terrorist groups
