Art And Soul Reflections On An Artistic Psychology:

Art and Soul Bruce L. Moon, 2004 Bruce L. Moon is an artist and art therapist with extensive clinical teaching and administrative experience. He is a registered and board certified art therapist who holds a doctorate in creative arts with specialization in art therapy. Bruce is the director of the Graduate Art Therapy program at Mount Mary College in Milwaukee.

Introduction to Art Therapy Bruce L. Moon, 2008 The goal of art therapy is to get beneath the surface of things and once there to use a gentle nudge to brush away the emotional debris of life and make room for more living. The revisions in this new edition of Introduction to Art Therapy further amplify the impact of the original book touching the major themes and issues of the profession. Art therapy is effective with individuals, families and groups and it works well with the intellectually gifted and the learning impaired. It can also be used with the chronically mentally ill, the terminally ill, the vision impaired and the deaf.

WORKING WITH IMAGES: THE ART OF ART THERAPISTS Bruce L. Moon, 2002-01-01 Working With Images: The Art of Art Therapists is an effort to give voice to the artist aspect of our identity as art therapists. This book is about how the artists work, how they learned to do it, why they do it. This book will give you glimpses of the memories and perhaps the scars of the artists. Be honored. The artists in this book know that it is good to make art and they make good art. Through their work they demonstrate their faith in the product and the process. For some of them, art making is their anchor in the turbulent world of helping professions. For some, images come in response to their clients. For all of them, making art deepens and enriches their lives. Working With Images: The Art of Art Therapists is a presentation of artworks and contextual essays by professional art therapists. This book is foreworded by Don Siedien and includes an introduction that addresses the structure, rationale and intent of this book. The introduction is followed by the artist therapists' contributions. Each art therapist's selected artworks are presented on one full page in the text. Immediately following the art piece is a brief biographical sketch, a photo of the art therapist and his or her artist's statement. From the very beginning of the art therapist profession in the United States, there has been steady discussion of the relative importance of the artist aspect of art therapies, professional identity. In the thirty years that the American Art Therapy Association has been in existence, there have been few other topics that have generated as much interest and debate at the annual national conference. Over the past several years, there has been growing interest in re-igniting our artistic passions and welcoming them back into our professional identity. This movement has been evidenced by a number of conference papers and workshops and professional journal articles focused on examining the integration of the artist and the therapist aspects of our work. Working With Images: The Art of Art Therapists presents art therapists as committed and serious fine artists. This book will be a significant contribution to the literature and identity of the art therapy profession.
