demographic upheavals that altered the social landscape of the Southwest from the thirteenth through the seventeenth centuries forced peoples from diverse backgrounds to literally remake their worlds transformations in community identity and power that are only beginning to be understood through innovations in decorated ceramics In addition to aesthetic changes that included new color schemes new painting techniques alterations in design and a greater emphasis on iconographic imagery some of the wares reflect a new production efficiency resulting from more specialized household and community based industries Also they were traded over longer distances and were used more often in public ceremonies than earlier ceramic types Through the study of glaze painted pottery archaeologists are beginning to understand that pots had social lives in this changing world and that careful reconstruction of the social lives of pots can help us understand the social lives of Puebloan peoples In this book fifteen contributors apply a wide range of technological and stylistic analysis techniques to pottery of the Rio Grande and Western Pueblo areas to show what it reveals about inter and intra community dynamics work groups migration trade and ideology in the precontact and early postcontact Puebloan world The contributors report on research conducted throughout the glaze producing areas of the Southwest and cover the full historical range of glaze ware production Utilizing a variety of techniques continued typological analyses optical petrography instrumental neutron activation analysis X ray microprobe analysis and inductively coupled plasma mass spectroscopy they develop broader frameworks for examining the changing role of these ceramics in social dynamics By tracing the circulation and exchange of specialized knowledge raw materials and the pots themselves via social networks of varying size they show how glaze ware technology production exchange and reflected a variety of dynamic historical and social processes Through this material evidence the contributors reveal that technological and aesthetic innovations were deliberately manipulated and disseminated to actively construct communities of practice that cut across language and settlement groups The Social Life of Pots offers a wealth of new data from this crucial period of prehistory and is an important baseline for future work in this area Contributors Patricia Capone Linda S Cordell Suzanne L Eckert Thomas R Fenn Judith A Habicht Mauche Cynthia L Herhahn Maren Hopkins Deborah L Huntley Toni S Laumbach Kathryn Leonard Barbara J Mills Kit Nelson Gregson Schachner Miriam T Stark Scott Van Keuren

Anderson,Dmitry V. Arzyutov,Sergei S. Alymov,2019-02-25 The idea of etnos came into being over a hundred years ago as a way of understanding the collective identities of people with a common language and shared traditions In the twentieth century the concept came to be associated with Soviet state building and it fell sharply out of favour Yet outside the academy etnos style arguments not only persist but are a vibrant part of regional anthropological traditions Life Histories of Etnos Theory in Russia and Beyond makes a powerful argument for reconsidering the importance of etnos in our understanding of ethnicity and national identity across Eurasia The collection brings to life a rich archive of previously unpublished letters fieldnotes and photographic collections of the theory's early proponents Using contemporary fieldwork and case studies the volume shows how the ideas of these ethnographers continue to impact and shape identities in various regional theatres from Ukraine to the Russian North to the Manchurian steppes of what is now China Through writing a life history of these collectivist concepts the contributors to this volume unveil a world where the assumptions of liberal individualism do not hold In doing so they demonstrate how notions of belonging are not fleeting but persistent multi generational and bio social This collection is essential reading for anyone interested in Russian and Chinese area studies It will also appeal to historians and students of anthropology and ethnography more generally Neglected Architectural Decoration from the Late Antique City

Solinda Kamani,2023-10-20 This book examines neglected architectural decoration from the late antique city of the East

Mediterranean It addresses the omission in scholarship of discussion about the embellishment of non monumental secular buildings public porticoes small public baths shops workshops and non elite houses The finishing of these structures has been overlooked at the expense of more lofty buildings and remains one of the least known aspects of the late antique city The author surveys the archaeological evidence for decoration in the region with the maritime sites of Ostia and Ephesus selected as case studies Drawing upon archaeological written and visual sources it attempts to reconstruct how such buildings appeared to late antique viewers and investigates why they were decorated as they were Venture Into Cultures Olga R. Kuharets,2001-05 Contains a resource book of multicultural materials and includes program ideas Web sites and recommended children s books that provide students with information on the traditions stories pictures and music from around the world
