Do Not Go Gentle Neil Astley, 2003 This volume of poetry provides a collection of funeral poems appropriate for reading Meaningful Funerals Ewan Kelly, 2008-10-18 Addresses how funerals may be created at a funeral or memorial service which are not only relevant for the bereaved but which also have theological integrity Funeral and Memorial Service Readings, Poems and Tributes Rachel R. Baum, 2007-11-28 Words can fail even the most articulate when called upon to speak at a loved one's funeral or memorial occasion. The bereaved desires to say something meaningful yet services are often held so quickly that there is little time to find something appropriate at the library or bookstore This book is a collection of poetry and prose appropriate for reading at a funeral or memorial service To assist the reader in finding a suitable passage the book is divided into eleven chapters. There are tributes for mothers fathers children spouses and soulmates friends siblings and other close relatives soldiers and victims of war or violence pets and general readings appropriate for men women or any loved one These selections will also prove helpful for clergy counselors and hospice hospital and funeral professionals Appendices list resources and support organizations and each selection is indexed by author title and first line A special additional index references pieces by famous uses such as in a film novel or celebrity s funeral so readers can locate a passage they remember from its context Poems and Readings for Funerals Julia Watson, 2004-04 As more and more secular funerals are taking place there is a need for appropriate texts The Poet Laureate spoke recently of the importance of epitaphs for people poems or songs which commemorate their lives Actress Julia Watson married to the poet David Harsent was confronted with the issue when her father died and the result is this inspiring collection of 70 poems and prose extracts suitable for reading at funerals and celebrations of a life The selections range from Shakespeare to Chief Tecumseh of the Shawnee Nation from Christina Rossetti to St Francis of Assissi and included are some very short pieces which could be printed on an order of service The Emergency Poet Deborah Alma, 2025-09-25 We all have moments in which life can feel overwhelming This book presents a selection of poems that is designed to lift your mood Dving to Live Carter Marian, 2015-04-21 This is a key resource for reflective practitioners who want to explore subjects such as death dying bereavement and funerals from a theological perspective The book engages readers to reflect theologically on issues of loss grief healing the search for meaning and joy Such theological reflection is vital for the development of good and grounded Write Yourself Gillie Bolton, 2011-08-15 Write Yourself is the ideal introduction to how to facilitate pastoral practice groups and individuals in finding inspiration for their creative personal writing voices This book explains how and why writing is such an illuminative and cathartic process and provides many practical exercises that encourage the exploration of emotions memories and experiences Dying, Bereavement, and the Healing Arts Gillie Bolton, 2008 Offers valuable insights and inspiration for any practioner working in a palliative care setting Australian contributor Marking Short Lives Ewan R. Kelly, Ewan Kelly, 2007 This book explores theologically the practice of hospital chaplains seeking to meet the spiritual needs of parents bereaved by baby death in utero The lived experience of bereaved parents gathered through a series of in depth interviews informs such an exploration Parents describe the trauma of late miscarriage and stillbirth as still being shrouded by silence myth and misunderstanding in contemporary society Up to date theoretical understandings of grief are also re examined in light of parents stories of living with baby death This book offers suggestions as to how the actual spiritual needs of parents may be met and their grief sensitively facilitated through the sharing of rituals co constructed by parents and chaplain which seek to have theological integrity yet be relevant in our postmodern age In our prevalent culture of caring where increasingly ongoing professional and personal development are regarded as normative recommendations are made which may aid reflection on current or shape future practice for chaplains pastors students and various healthcare professionals The Night She Fell Eileen Merriman, 2024-03-05 When I last saw Ashleigh she was lying in a pool of blood Her eyes were open staring sightlessly into the sky I d like to think she saw the stars before she died that in her last moments she flew soaring on serotonin dreamy with dopamine I d like to think she didn t suffer A beautiful young law student dies on the concrete below her third storey window in chilly Dunedin It's clear enough how she died What isn t is why or who s involved Plenty of people had a reason to hate Ashleigh with her straight As and perfect looks She s fallen out with her flatmates and her boyfriend Xander is having second thoughts about their future together And then there are the weird messages The Night She Fell is a gripping psychological thriller from one of New Zealand s most multi talented contemporary novelists Pacy clever and enthralling The Night She Fell is a deliciously evil exploration of narcissism A thriller that will keep you awake long into the night Rose Carlyle bestselling author of The Girl in the Mirror Robert Atwell, 2014-09-12 Until relatively recently a Church of England funeral was the default option of the majority of the British population This is no longer the case Exploring what makes a good funeral Robert Atwell suggests many practical ways in which the church can become better at conducting funerals and engaging with those who seek pastoral support
