Doctrinal Preaching For Today Case Studi:

Proclaiming the Whole Counsel of God Steve D. Eutsler, 2025-04-24 For years the best sages have warned Those who fail to plan plan to fail Experience has proven this advice to be true in the spiritual realm as well as in the secular Without careful planning even Pentecostal ministers of the gospel often repeat certain texts or topics while they neglect other critical truths This frequent phenomenon inspired the integrated approach in this project Dr Eutsler has written a book on preaching that Pentecostal Charismatic pastors and ministers have needed for a long time Based on years of practical experience and sound scholarship it combines an emphasis on the guidance of the Holy Spirit along with long range planning After exploring the unique dynamics of Pentecostal preaching he discusses step by step how to increase their implementation on a more consistent basis This volume will benefit both beginning and veteran students of preaching It could easily be used personally or in a classroom setting Those preachers who read and implement its wise counsel will improve the quality creativity and variety of their preaching George O Wood General Superintendent of the Assemblies of God Should We Use Someone Else's Sermon? Scott M. Gibson, 2009-05-26 With easy access to sermons on the Internet plus pressure to deliver the next sermon with little time to prepare no wonder some pastors have resorted to plagiarizing other people s sermons passing them off as their own This growing epidemic has received coverage in the Wall Street Journal on National Public Radio and elsewhere Some pastors have been caught in the act and dismissed from their churches Is this fair Is this stealing How can you recognize it How can it be prevented This book not only helps explain the problem but it also explores the ethical implications and gives advice on how to avoid it or deal with it if the problem surfaces in your church It includes study questions at the end of chapters and a concluding case study Secrets of the Prince of Expositors Michael Hawk Mills, 2025-04-25 Crowds thronged to hear Alexander Maclaren Some tried to bribe the doormen for a seat and extra chairs often had to be placed on stage next to the pulpit What drew so many to travel to Manchester England to hear a preacher Maclaren knew how to apply the text to real life His dedication to expository preaching was unique in his day and even surpassed that of his friend Charles Haddon Spurgeon His ministry remains as a needed model for today because countless congregants still see the Bible as stories with little or no relevance to their daily duties Every Sunday people go to a Bible study listen to a sermon or read Scripture and they leave without transforming any part of their lives Despite consistently studying the Bible some people show little difference between the way they act now and the way they acted years ago This problem partially comes down to a lack of good biblical application coming from preachers and teachers of Scripture Maclaren s sermons as well as his essay An Old Preacher on Preaching teach expositors today how to make the Bible s truths come alive and be applicable Preaching is Believing Ronald J. Allen, 2002-01-01 In Preaching Is Believing Allen calls for preachers to help congregations cultivate a systematic approach to Christian faith and life by bringing systematic theology directly into the pulpit Recent Homiletical Thought William Toohey, William D. Thompson, 1967 Recent

Homiletical Thought A. Duane Litfin, Haddon W. Robinson, 1983 Concordia Theological Monthly, 1957 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1978 The Evangelical Repository, 1889 The Preacher's Fire: Igniting Souls with God's Word (2 Timothy 4:2) Pastor Yves Gerard, The Preacher's Fire Igniting Souls with God's Word 2 Timothy 4:2 Preach the word be instant in season out of season reprove rebuke exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine 2 Timothy 4:2 What happens when a preacher catches fire from heaven Not a literal flame but a spiritual blaze that consumes apathy melts resistance and lights up the hearts of the weary The Preacher's Fire is a clarion call to every minister teacher and believer who dares to speak for God in a world growing cold It's not just about delivering a sermon it's about delivering souls This message explores what it means to carry the unquenchable flame of truth to speak with holy urgency and to awaken hearts that have grown dull with routine religion Like a prophet crying in the wilderness the preacher must burn before he can ignite others Imagine a discouraged pastor stands before a dwindling congregation He feels like giving up But one night while praying over 2 Timothy 4:2 he receives a fresh anointing That Sunday he preaches as though fire is shut up in his bones His words pierce through bitterness heal old wounds and draw sinners to repentance That day revival begins not in the crowd but in the preacher himself This sermon invites you to rekindle your calling renew your voice and restore your spiritual fire You will be challenged convicted and commissioned to preach the Word in season out of season when it's easy and when it costs you everything If you've ever felt your flame flickering low this message is your matchstick Preaching Christology in the Roman Near East Philip Michael Forness, 2018 This study develops a methodology for approaching homilies that draws on a broader understanding of audience as both the physical audience and the readership of sermons It then offers a case study on the Syriac preacher Jacob of Serghuh whose metrical homilies form one of the largest sermon collections in any language from late antiquity

Sermons, doctrinal and didactic; bearing on the religious topics of the day Thomas Williamson PEILE, 1866

The Oxford Handbook of the Early Modern Sermon Peter McCullough, Hugh Adlington, Emma Rhatigan, 2011-08-04 The Oxford Handbook of the Early Modern Sermon is the first book to survey this rich new field for both students and specialists It is divided into sections devoted to sermon composition delivery and reception sermons in Scotland Ireland and Wales English Sermons 1500-1660 and English Sermons 1660-1720 Richard Hooker and Reformed Orthodoxy W. Bradford Littlejohn, Scott N. Kindred-Barnes, 2017-03-13 For more than forty years now there has been a steady stream of interest in Richard Hooker This renaissance in Hooker Studies began with the publication of the Folger Library Edition of the Works of Richard Hooker With this renaissance has come a growing recognition that it is anachronistic to classify Hooker simply as an Anglican thinker but as yet no generally agreed upon alternative label or context for his thought has replaced this older conception in particular the question of Hooker's Reformed identity remains hotly contested Given the relatively limited engagement of Hooker scholarship with other branches of Reformation and early modern scholarship to date there is a growing recognition that Hooker must be evaluated not only against the context of English puritanism and conformism but also in light of his broad international Reformed context. At the same time it has become clear that if this is so scholars of continental Reformed orthodoxy must take stock of Hooker's work as one of the landmark theological achievements of the era. This volume aims to facilitate this long needed conversation bringing together a wide range of scholars to consider Richard Hooker's theology within the full context of late 16th and early 17th century Reformed orthodoxy both in England and on the Continent. The essays seek to bring Hooker into conversation not merely with contemporaries familiar to Hooker scholarship such as William Perkins but also with such contemporaries as Jerome Zanchi and Franciscus Junius predecessors such as Heinrich Bullinger and successors such as John Davenant, John Owen and Hugo Grotius. In considering how these successors of Hooker identified themselves in relation to his theology these essays will also shed light on how Hooker was perceived within 17th century Reformed circles. The theological topics touched on in the course of these essays include such central issues as the doctrine of Scripture, predestination, Christology, soteriology, the sacraments and law. It is hoped that these essays will continue to stimulate further research on these important questions among a wide community of scholars.

Delivering the Word William John Lyons, Isabella Sandwell, 2014-09-11. Biblical texts have been used consistently in sermons throughout Christian history. Preachers have transformed the texts into an aural experience using them to evangelize, educate, edify, exhort or even terrify their audiences. Sermons have enabled Scripture to be communicated to people from a wide range of social backgrounds. Delivering the Word examines the power of preaching and its reception across two millennia of homilies from St Paul, Origen, Chrysostom, Augustine and Hildegard of Bingen to Jonathan Edwards, Samuel Taylor Coleridge, Aimee Semple McPherson and Chris Brain. In its exploration of the impact of the sermon on the interpretation of Scripture, Delivering the Word will be of interest to students of biblical and religious studies.

Bibliographic Index, 1956 Wesley and Methodist Studies Geordan Hammond, William Gibson, 2012-03. Wesley and Methodist Studies (WMS) publishes peer reviewed essays that examine the life and work of John and Charles Wesley, their contemporaries, proponents or opponents in the eighteenth century Evangelical Revival, their historical and theological antecedents, their successors in the Wesleyan tradition and studies of the Wesleyan and Evangelical traditions today. Its primary historical scope is the eighteenth century to the present, however WMS will publish essays that explore the historical and theological antecedents of the Wesleys, including work on Samuel and Susanna Wesley, Methodism and the Evangelical Revival. WMS has a dual and broad focus on both history and theology. Its aim is to present significant scholarly contributions that shed light on historical and theological understandings of Methodism broadly conceived. Essays within the thematic scope of WMS from the disciplinary perspectives of literature, philosophy, education and cognate disciplines are welcome. WMS is a collaborative project of the Manchester Wesley Research Centre and The Oxford Centre for Methodism and Church History, Oxford Brookes University. Augustine's Theology of Preaching Peter T. Sanlon, 2014-07-01. Scholarship has painted many pictures of Augustine the philosophical theologian the refuter of heresy or contributor to doctrines like Original Sin but the picture of Augustine as preacher says Sanlon has been seriously neglected When academics marginalize the Sermones ad Populum the real Augustine is not presented accurately In this study Sanlon does more however than rehabilitate a neglected view of Augustine How do the theological convictions that Augustine brought to his preaching challenge sustain or shape our work today By presenting Augustine's thought on preaching to contemporary readers Sanlon contributes a major new piece to the ongoing reconsideration of preaching in the modern day a consideration that is relevant to all branches of the twenty first century church

What's Right with Preaching Today? Mike Graves, André Resner, 2021-03-09 In 1928 when Riverside Church NYC pastor Harry Emerson Fosdick asked the question in Harpers Magazine What's the Matter with Preaching Today he did not know that one response to that question had just entered the world in Humboldt Tennessee Fred B Craddock revolutionized preaching theory and practice by flipping pulpit logic from deductive to inductive often called the preaching as storytelling revolution and in so doing brought renewed interest and impact to the practice of preaching effectively rescuing it from an often tedious and moralizing fate With Fred preaching was anything but boring Rather it was an exciting and enlightening ride that led to the renewal of faith To honor Craddock's legacy Mike Graves and Andre Resner invited ten leading voices in homiletics to identify something that is right about preaching today In addition they issued a call to a wide variety of people to contribute stories about Fred's impact on their lives and ministries Twenty seven remembrances of Fred are included here throughout the book If you appreciate effective and engaging preaching as either a preacher or listener the essays and remembrances here will speak to you and provide encouragement about preaching's present and future With contributions from Ronald J Allen Barbara K Lundblad Alyce McKenzie Debra J Mumford Luke Powery Andre Resner Richard Ward Dawn Ottoni Wilhelm Paul Scott Wilson
