Doctrinal Preaching For Today:

Biblical Preaching for Today's World Lloyd Perry, 1990-03-08 Biblical preaching has not outgrown its usefulness. The methods may vary but the message remains the same. God's challenge and call to the preacher still come through loud and clear. Preach the Word. Lloyd M. Perry's Biblical Preaching for Today's World has been helping pastors and speakers preach the Word since 1973. Although the principles Perry originally established are timeless, the needs and concerns of audiences are always changing. To help pastors preach more effectively to today's congregations, Perry has updated his original manuscript. He offers pastors help in understanding and adjusting to the effects television has had on an audience's listening skills. Historical references throughout each chapter will also help preachers learn from yesterday's teachers and styles. Biblical Preaching for Today's World continues to offer sound, time-tested principles for preaching regardless of the preacher's style. Filled with helpful suggestions, annotated outlines, and solid documentation, it is invaluable reading for all who aspire to preach the Word. The Company of the Preachers, Doctrine That Dances Robert Smith, 2008 With enthusiasm and intelligence, professor Robert Smith steps up the interest in doctrinal preaching and teaching with Doctrine That Dances.

Doctrinal Preaching for Today Andrew Watterson Blackwood, 1956 Malfunctioning Secularized Ministries in Today's Churches George D. Cutler, 2010-06-30 Malfunctioning Secularized Ministries in Today's Churches The information herein decries today's modern churches ministering to the trendiness of prioritizing physicality over spirituality. Factually stated, substantial fractions of today's church ministries unashamedly cater to whatever appeals the most to the masses. This entails resonating with what is secular and/or material rather than spiritual and/or consecrated. Here the challenge offered for evaluation is what are more significant temporary earthly possessions or eternally Heavenly inheritances. Scriptural assessments document the instructions and directives specifically conveyed for church ministries functioning and operating as contrasted with the popular accepted practices so prevalently displayed in the more prominently recognized religious institutions. Herein a scriptural appeal is made for simply following the dictates of GOD'S WORD. About the Author: George D. Cutler was born in Tampa, Florida, in 1944. He received a BS Degree in Architectural Engineering from Tennessee State University, Nashville, Tennessee, in 1967. He has tenured more than 42 years of ministry in Detroit, Michigan, including 12 years where he currently serves as senior pastor of the Grace Gospel Church in Ferndale, Michigan. Pastor Cutler briefly matriculated at the Biblion Seminary, Silverton, Oregon, including a number of years of correspondences with this institution.

The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching, 2010-11-01 The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery. This resource is both scholarly and practical. It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline. It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice. Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition. When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice
