Doctrine Of Creation:

The Christian Doctrine of Creation and Redemption Emil Brunner, 2014-10-10 Emil Brunner 1889 1966 was the most widely read theologian in the English speaking world throughout the mid twentieth century Brunner was Professor of Systematic and Practical Theology at the University of Zurich from 1924 55 His key works The Mediator The Divine Imperative and Man in Revolt were standard texts for Protestant seminaries for decades

Creation Edward W. H. Vick, 2012-07-06 Christian discussions of creation or origins typically start with one of the standard positions on this contentious doctrine and then presents the arguments in favor of that position In this book Edward W H Vick looks at creation as a matter of systematic theology What does it mean for a doctrine to be called Christian How does one derive and express a doctrine of creation that is truly Christian in content He starts by distinguishing biblical theology the topic of companion volume Creation in Scripture by Herold Weiss from the systematic theology approach used in this book This book is divided into three parts Each has its own style and function The first presents an introductory statement about how we approach a doctrinal explanation of the theme of Creation Then we give a theological account of the meaning of the assertion that God is Creator The second presents statements by representative respected theologians as they expound the theme and argue for a separation of theology from science It presents some quite basic positions The third is in the form of a conversation an effective way of introducing differing points of view pro and con Finally the book includes a series of questions for each chapter making it useful as a basis for group study and discussion This book will provide a solid theological foundation for further study of origins in the context of Christian faith

Barth's Doctrine of Creation Andrew K. Gabriel, 2013-12-06 Theologians working on the doctrine of creation are compelled to wrestle with Karl Barth's explication of this doctrine And yet studies on Barth have not paid a significant amount of attention to this aspect of his theology To help fill this gap Gabriel introduces and clarifies Barth's doctrine of creation by outlining its contours and evaluating three prominent critiques of Barth critiques that focus on questions regarding the place of nature the Trinity Jesus and history in his doctrine Gabriel finds value in these critiques while also identifying ways in which Barth's theology sometimes adequately addresses them Through this Gabriel mines insights from Barth that can contribute to a theology of nature or ecological theology and a Trinitarian theology of creation

Problem and Promise in Colin E. Gunton's Doctrine of Creation William B. Whitney, 2013-07-04 While much dialogue has focused on aspects of Colin Gunton's Trinitarian theology there has been a need for a full scale study of Gunton's doctrine of creation that locates the significance of his understanding of creation within the wider spectrum of his theology Problem and Promise demonstrates how Gunton's doctrine of creation cannot be read in abstraction from his Trinitarian theology and argues that creation remains a central feature in Gunton's writing that holds lasting importance for understanding ethical and moral aspects of Gunton's theology William B Whitney establishes how this Trinitarian account of creation goes beyond offering a theological description of the created realm and
