Wood,2019-09-04 The Bible makes remarkable claims about people and events in world history Creation Adam and Eve Israel s escape from Egypt the rise and fall of Israel s kingdom the birth of the Messiah Jesus Christ s life death and resurrection the growth of the church all points of interest by scholars for the historical veracity of the Scriptures Yet the Bible does not appear to present the acts of God in history for the purpose of vindicating historical accuracy of the text The Bible is a story that reveals the living God through inspired writings that communicate the meaning of historical events In light of the Bible as the revelation of God and the high stakes of historical veracity for the claims of the Bible how should Christians approach the interpretation of the Scriptures in a faithful way Carl F H Henry offers guidance as a foremost theologian regarding God revelation and the Scriptures In Did it Really Happen Jonathan Wood engages the thought of Carl Henry in dialogue with the major alternatives to revelation history and the biblical text The value of Carl Henry s approach is shown to provide a path forward for affirming the historicity of the Bible while interpreting the text well

The Bridge Michael W. McGowan, 2015-05-04 Philosophers of religion and theologians have long wrestled with the concept of revelation Does God reveal truth to human subjects primarily through sacred texts or audible voices Through inner experiences or pronouncements of religious leaders What is the relationship between the truths given in revelation and those discoverable by reason Revelation is a challenge not only to scholars but also for churchgoers How can the same God command one person to do one thing and another to do something quite different In The Bridge Michael McGowan explores how a number of great twentieth and twenty first century thinkers understand the concept of revelation Using insights from their work and some recent advances in literary theory and communication studies he constructs a model of revelation in which symbol and narrative figure heavily Ancient ideas are given new life in this contemporary explication of the nature of revelation God as the Revealer and revelation s implications

God is a Communicative Being William M. Schweitzer, 2012-03-29 Over the past half century there has been a proliferation of scholarship on the great American theologian Jonathan Edwards However the vast majority of this output confines itself to the details of his work With some welcome exceptions the forest has often been missed for the trees In this ground breaking study William Schweitzer presents a new reading of Edwards He starts with the question what is distinctive in Edwards theology The answer comes in Edwards insight into Trinitarian life God is eternally communicative of his knowledge love and joy among the Three Persons of the Trinity and this divine communicativeness was for Edwards the explanation for why God created the universe More specifically however Edwards believed that God s communication carries with it the Trinitarian hallmark of harmony This hallmark is not always easy to discern even for the regenerate Edwards lifelong project as demonstrated by the common purpose of all three unfinished Great Works was to interpret the harmony found in and among the several media of revelation

Has God Said? John Douglas Morrison, 2006-03-01 Has God said? Has God actually spoken? declared himself and his purposes to us? Historically the Christian faith has affirmed God's redemptive revelatory speaking as historical, contentful, redemptive, centrally in Jesus Christ and under Christ and by the Spirit in the text of Holy Scripture. But in the past three centuries developments in Western culture have created a crisis in relation to historical divine authority. The modern reintroduction of destructive dualisms, cosmological and epistemological via Descartes, Newton, Spinoza and Kant have injured not only the physical sciences (e.g. positivism) but Christian theology as well. The resulting eclipse of God has permeated Western culture. In terms of the Christian understanding of revelation it has meant the separation of God from historical action, the rejection of God's actual self-declaration and especially in textual form, Holy Scripture. After critical analysis of these dualistic developments, this book presents the problematic effects in both Protestant (Schleiermacher, Bultmann, Tillich) and Roman Catholic (Rahner, Dulles) theology. The thought and influence of Karl Barth on the nature of Scripture is examined and distinguished from most Barthian approaches. The effects of dualistic Barthian thought on contemporary evangelical views of Scripture (Pinnock, Fackre, Bloesch) are also critically analyzed and responses made (Helm, Wolterstorff, Packer). The final chapter is a Christocentric, multileveled reformulation of the classical Scripture Principle via Einstein, Torrance and Calvin that reaffirms the church's historical identity thesis that Holy Scripture is the written Word of God, a crucial aspect of God's larger redemptive revelatory purpose in Christ.

Covenant and Eschatology Michael Scott Horton, 2002-01-01 In this innovative work in theological method and hermeneutics, Michael S. Horton uses the motif of the covenant as a way of binding together God's word and God's act. Seeking an integration of theological method with the content of Christian theology, Horton emphasizes God's covenant as God's way of working for redemption in the world. Horton maintains a substantial dialogue with important philosophical figures and Christian theologians, ultimately providing scholars and serious students a significant model for approaching and understanding Christian theology.

Federalism and the Westminster Tradition Mark W. Karlberg, 2006-10-15 More than any other theological tradition, Reformed federalism has recognized the importance of the biblical teaching on the covenants in its system of doctrine. This tradition came to mature confessional status in the writing of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms. The place of the Westminster tradition within the stream of Christian history and theology is remarkable; indeed, Westminster not only gained recognition as the epitome of Calvinist teaching at the close of the Protestant Reformation, the middle of the seventeenth century, it also earned the reputation for precision and comprehensiveness in doctrinal formulation. It became the measure by which biblical interpreters defended their systems of doctrine, either in agreement or disagreement with the theology of the Westminster divines. These writings are the climax of three decades of research and study and they appear as the third in the series of collections published by Wipf and Stock, beginning with Covenant Theology in Reformed Perspective followed by Gospel

Grace The Modern day Controversy The critical teaching in dispute in each of these studies is the classic Protestant antithesis between the Law and the Gospel what serves as the basis for the Reformed doctrine of the twofold covenants the Covenant of Works and the Covenant of Grace Protestant Reformed Orthodoxy now stands at the crossroads the plight of Westminster Seminary East and West is merely illustrative of the depth and the intensity of the contemporary theological dispute one impacting the future of Protestant evangelicalism as a whole The battle is between historic Reformed Protestantism and modern day revisionism of a radical sort The rapid rise of postmodernism or nonfoundationalism is indicative of the rapidly changing mood and posture in evangelical biblical scholarship at the opening of this third millennium of Christian interpretation Without question the modern church continues to loose her biblical moorings Forsaking the basic theological convictions of the Protestant Reformation it has attempted to subject the Word of God to vigorous academic i e scientific investigation the return of rationalism In doing so it has abandoned the Scripture principle which recognizes the uniquely authoritative and inerrant character of the Word of God Lost in the shuffle is the uncompromising proclamation of the one true Gospel the Gospel of justification by grace through faith alone Lost also is the doctrine of the perspicuity of Scripture Nothing less than a new Reformation in our day will halt travel down the road leading to destruction From the Preface Carl F. H. Henry on the Holy Spirit Jesse M. Payne, 2021-07-07 Recover evangelicalism s foundations by returning to its architect None doubt the influence of Carl F H Henry the theological architect of contemporary evangelicalism Through his prolific writing and editorial role in Christianity Today Henry is known for addressing contemporary theology individual and social ethics and cultural criticism But he has been critiqued for an underdeveloped pneumatology In Carl F H Henry on The Holy Spirit Jesse M Payne argues that Henry cannot truly be understood apart from his mature pneumatology The Spirit plays a vital role in three major areas of Henry s theology revelation ecclesiology and ethics These seemingly disparate topics are tied together by his view of a Spirit inspired Bible ordering a Spirit enlivened body composed of Spirit filled believers Readers will gain a more holistic view of Henry the role of the Spirit in his life and thought and early neo evangelical theology Living and Active Telford Work, 2001-10 For all of the Bible s popularity both in the church and in Western culture confusion reigns about what the Bible is its relationship to God its relationship to its human authors and readers and its proper use Living and Active answers these fundamental questions by looking anew at Scripture from the perspective of Christian doctrine Rather than treating the Bible as a sourcebook for theology Telford Work uses systematic theology to build a compelling new doctrine of Scripture the doctrine of God establishes the Bible s triune character and purpose the doctrine of salvation explains the mission of Scripture in ancient Israel in the career of Jesus and in the life of his followers the doctrine of the church relates the Bible s qualities to those of its reading communities describes the relation of Scripture and tradition and appreciates the Bible s role in worship and in personal salvation Drawing in this way on the full resources of Christian dogmatics allows us to see the Bible at work accomplishing God s purposes in the world Throughout the book Work incorporates insights from the Eastern Orthodox Roman Catholic Lutheran Calvinist Anabaptist and evangelical traditions in order to produce a truly ecumenical doctrine of Scripture He also interacts with patristic theology and practice historical critical methods of interpretation and postmodern thought refusing to draw lines between biblical studies ethics history philosophy and theology As a result Living and Active is the most comprehensive balanced and relevant statement of Scripture now available It clearly portrays the Bible as integral to the economy of salvation and the life of the church it offers solutions to the current crisis of biblical authority and practice and it prescribes fruitful ways to preach teach and live Scripture in today s world Passover, Pentecost and Parousia ,2019-05-21 Dr R Hollis Gause has been Professor of Theological and New Testament Studies at Lee University and the Church of God Theological Seminary in Cleveland Tennessee for many years and his huge contribution to Pentecostal scholarship is held in high regard internationally His influential life and ministry as well as his teaching and scholarship are here celebrated in his 85th year by many of his colleagues and former students Contributors are Contributions K E Alexander L R Martin R D Moore J M Beaty J A Adewuya J C Thomas K J Archer S E Han T L Johns D G Roebuck J P Bowers C Bridges Johns C R Cason M O McMahan D W Slocumb R E Waldrup Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 2 Robert Boyd,2017-06-20

Evangelical theology strives to be evangelical conservative and contemporary In a world in which everyone is Christian evangelical theology provides a balanced position between fundamentalism and liberalism While theological debates within the family will occur to be evangelical is a breath of fresh air for many However we do not live in such a world We do find ourselves living in a secular global society It is secular because no religious organization dictates how we live our lives It is global for at least two reasons First our technology brings us immediately in contact with those faraway places Second and of more importance we can simply step outside our front doors and encounter our neighborhoods that reflect a global pluralism This raises the question how shall we then live The intent of An Evangelical Theology of Religions is to suggest a direction for evangelicals to think about the secular global society in which they live in a way that is not only conservative but also evangelical and contemporary The final essay strives to address the evangelical aspect of our tradition that places an emphasis on the Great Commission and the law of love Dictionary for Theological Interpretation of the Bible Kevin J.
