Hahn,2011-08-01 It is 1939 The Nazi invasion of Poland has started World War II Three ordinary decent young Germans join the elite Nazi force the SS Johann Helmuth a Bavarian farmer s son does so primarily to please his authoritarian anti semitic father but also out of a vague sense of patriotism and a need to belong to a larger group Herbert Winkler s father

runs a small automobile repair shop in a village in the mountains of the former Austria The son is a confirmed Nazi willing to sacrifice his life for the Thousand Year Reich and its glorious Fuhrer The third Werner Kohler comes from a sophisticated and very wealthy Berlin family He is neither an ideologue nor particularly patriotic but bored looking for excitement The three become friends during the rigorous and demanding SS training that transformed ordinary citizens into members of what became arguably the most potent fighting force in all history After the German invasion of Russia they are sent to the Eastern front Johann and Werner in a Waffen SS division Herbert in a penal unit In Russia they experience the monstrosity of modern warfare and the bestiality of the Nazi terror that is unleashed against the local population and particularly against the Jews The three are not only witnesses to horror but participants Johann unwillingly Werner with detachment and Herbert enthusiastically Johann and Werner remember Herbert as a man who during training rescued a puppy at considerable danger to his life but now countenances rape of women and killing of children They cannot understand their former friend s transformation During the drive on Berlin by the Soviet juggernaut Werner and Herbert are killed but Johann although wounded survives and returns to Germany After the end of the European war he is arrested by the Allied Military Government tried and imprisoned for war crimes but released when two Jewish women testify that he helped them escape from a Polish Ghetto He returns to his native Bavaria marries Werner s sister and enters medical school His feelings of guilt about his own war time action depress him severely and this depression is accentuated when he observes his fellow citizens crass materialism and their unwillingness or inability to deal with their recent past What shocks him most is the ready acceptance and integration into society of some of the worst criminals the world has ever produced His depression deepens to the point where he cannot continue his studies his marriage disintegrates and he permanently leaves his homeland

Facing the Fire, Taking the Stage Joseph J. Long, 2025-06-03 In the mid 2000s the Russian government began to merge Siberia's smallest Indigenous territories into larger administrative regions Among Buryat Mongols living to the west of Lake Baikal the state promoted a policy of National Cultural Autonomy which sought to separate culture from territory amid this consolidation of land and people Although public performances of Buryat culture were mobilized to show support for the policy Joseph Long's compelling ethnography provides alternative ways to understand the meanings attached to these displays At the same time the book documents how resurgent local rituals demonstrated enduring ties to the land Drawing on classic theories of ritual and performance Facing the Fire Taking the Stage explores how Buryat shamanism and state sanctioned performing arts have allowed Buryats to negotiate and express different kinds of belonging to people and land Based on several years of anthropological fieldwork in Western Buryat communities this book provides new insights into the ways that these forms have influenced one another over time While Buryat experience has been fundamentally shaped by Soviet communism and its aftermath Facing the Fire Taking the Stage shows how this history parallels the experience of Indigenous peoples worldwide
