lands as their Slovak counterparts were for their country ISBN 978383827100 coming out in fall 2015 The two volumes are separate entities in their own right but together provide the reader with a comprehensive picture of womens lives in the Czech lands and Slovakia stressing the distinct political circumstances Czech and Slovak women have faced in recent history

Democracy in Western and Post-communist Countries Tadeusz Buksiński,2009 The authors of this book scholars from Austria Czech Republic Hungary Ukraina Kirghizia and Poland seek to answer the question in what way the Westeuropean and postcommunist countries respond to the challenges posed to them by democratization in Central and Eastern Europe and European constitutional politics and policymaking New democracies necessarily pose a challenge to non democratic states because they liberated themselves from the totalitarian regime They pose a challenge for the old liberal democracies too because they try to compromise individual interests and freedoms with traditional prepolitical and political group identities But just the model of democracy can be followed in many non Western countries which aspire to establish a democratic order This book raises the questions that are particularly significant to the present day political practice in its European and global dimensions It is intended as a companion volume for all those who combine their academic research with wider interests in the promoting of democracy in the period of globalization and under the new pressures of European constitutional politics
