The authors show that when children's attempts at communicating are accepted and celebrated they will learn to communicate with each other comfortably and spontaneously whether on the playground or working on a science experiment. Beginning with designing a classroom that welcomes students and creates appropriate conditions for learning, Emelie Parker and Tess Pardini go on to detail a workshop format for reading, writing, and content area studies. The workshop structure allows teachers to differentiate instruction to include all students and affords students ample opportunities to collaborate with others as they learn to speak, read, write, and comprehend while also engaging in active learning of the curriculum. The authors provide numerous examples of ways that teachers can become proficient in knowing each child and orchestrating instruction to meet individual needs. In addition, this helpful guide offers a variety of approaches to assessment and demonstrates the importance of engaging families as partners in learning English and content.

August Gone, Massacra Nella Testa Sparky Parks, 2006-07 There is no time but the one we are in. Maybe she is there and maybe she is somewhere else. A man can only lose his mind running through the ages and it leaves him in the middle of himself with nothing but time to recall the past. Somewhere between Europe and Africa and a lost sense of reality a man walks in the world and remembers the time from whence he came finding himself all alone and missing the ones he loves. Stan Funnel searches for the purpose of it all by running through the seasons spilling all the noodles while he waits for a world that will not come to him. Travel with the mind of a schizophrenic who finds himself without a core and no home to come back to. Learn how to start all over again in August Gone.
