Advertising, 1892 What Is Paid Advertising, How To Implement Paid Advertising Activities, The Benefits Of Companies Implementing Paid Advertising Activities On Social Media Platforms, And The Problems With Companies Not Implementing Paid Advertising Activities On Social Media Platforms Dr. Harrison Sachs, 2025-09-12

This essay sheds light on what is paid advertising demystifies how to implement paid advertising activities delineates the benefits of companies implementing paid advertising activities on social media platforms and expounds upon the problems with companies not implementing paid advertising activities on social media platforms Paid advertising is an approach to marketing that is the antithesis of an organic approach to marketing Succinctly stated paid advertising is a strategic marketing approach that entails harnessing paid advertising activities In stark contrast to the implementation of organic marketing activities the implementation of paid advertising activities does not involve producing promotional content for content marketing purposes Even though the implementation of organic marketing activities does not deplete marketing dollars it can be highly time draining to implement potent organic marketing activities Furthermore it can also be highly mental bandwidth depleting to implement potent paid organic marketing activities Unlike paid advertising activities that are at a high probability to summarily gain an exorbitant amount of advertisement impressions organic marketing activities are not guaranteed to generate any views Moreover organic marketing activities are also at a significantly lower probability to build substantial traction than paid advertising activities in contexts in which the organic marketing activities are implemented on inbound marketing channels that have low subscriber bases Paid advertising activities are often implemented on marketing channels that have sizeable subscriber bases Moreover paid advertising activities are not always easily circumventable since advertisement blocker extensions for a website browser do not always block all of the advertisements that populate on a website browser It is possible for websites to be inundated with advertisements As of September of 2025 most inbound marketing channels lack massive subscriber bases Most people forgo subscribing to the vast majority of the inbound marketing channels that they view content on since they are not incentivized to do so Even though most people are not incentivized to subscribe to the vast majority inbound marketing channels that they view content on certain people will however subscribe to the inbound marketing channels that they profusely view content on for the prospect of being notified about the newest content that is posted on the inbound marketing channels that they are subscribed to Inbound marketing channels are at a higher probability to have their videos build substantial traction and attain viral video status in contexts in which millions of people are notified about the newest content that is posted on the inbound marketing channels that they are subscribed to It can be eminently cumbersome for the owners of inbound marketing channels to obtain massive subscriber bases on their inbound marketing channels Profusely producing promotional content to post on inbound marketing channels for content marketing purposes can be a highly time depleting pursuit Furthermore profusely producing promotional content to post on inbound marketing channels for content marketing purposes can also be a highly mental bandwidth depleting pursuit Moreover most people who view content via inbound marketing channels forgo subscribing to the vast majority inbound marketing channels that they profusely view content on It can be arduous for the owners of inbound marketing channels to obtain massive subscriber bases on their inbound marketing channels in contexts in which they cannot afford to host contests and sweepstakes that have sizeable fiat currency prize pools to incentivize people to subscribe to their inbound marketing channels It can also be expensive for the owners of inbound marketing channels to frequently host contests and sweepstakes that have sizeable fiat currency prize pools to incentivize people to subscribe to their inbound marketing channels There are a myriad of disparate types of inbound marketing channels Some of the disparate types of inbound marketing channel encompass social media channels live streaming channels podcast channels blog channels and branded websites Inbound marketing channels are often easily accessible to people and are often replete with content
