

A close-up, high-angle photograph of a beagle dog. The dog has a white face with a brown patch over its right eye and a white blaze running down its nose. Its ears are large and floppy, with brown and white markings. The dog is looking directly at the camera with a calm expression. The background is a light-colored, textured surface, possibly a wooden floor or a wall.

indicate the emergence of new popular perspectives on canids Questioning where canids belong how they should be treated and what rights they should have Dog s Best Friend reconsiders the concept of justice and whether it can be extended beyond the limit of the human species Braille Books Library of Congress.
