Alessandra In Between:

Alessandra in Between Kaplan Educational Center Staff,1998-01-01 Alessandra in Between Robert Kaplow,1992-01-01 Seventeen year old Alessandra struggles with major changes in her life including a sick grandfather getting ready for college and finding a real boyfriend Indefinites Between Latin and Romance Chiara Gianollo,2018 This book investigates the syntactic and semantic development of a selection of indefinite pronouns and determiners between Latin and the Romance languages It uses data from Classical and Late Latin texts and from electronic corpora of early Romance to propose a new account of the similarities in the grammar of indefinites across Romance Crosstalk Between Membrane Lipid Metabolism and Bacterial Cell Envelope Homeostasis Heidi Vitrac,Nienke Buddelmeijer,Brian J. Werth,Libin Xu,Adriana E. Rosato,2022-04-27 Between Encyclopedia and Chorography Anna Boroffka,2022-10-03 During the early modern period regional specified compendia which combine information on local moral and natural history towns and fortifications with historiography antiquarianism images series or maps gain a new agency in the production of knowledge Via literary and aesthetic practices the compilations construct a display of regional specified knowledge In some cases this display of regional knowledge is presented as a display of a local cultural identity and is linked to early modern practices of comparing and classifying civilizations At the core of the publication are compendia on the Americas which research has described as chorographies encyclopedias or more recently cultural encyclopaedias Studies on Asian and European encyclopedias universal histories and chorographies help to contextualize the American examples in the broader field of an early modern and transcultural knowledge production which inherits and modifies the ancient and medieval tradition Between the Lines Lena Steinhawser,2025-08-10 She thought she was starting a new chapter He was the plot twist she never saw coming Lia has spent her whole life chasing words dreaming of the day she would become a celebrated author Landing a coveted tutoring position in the prestigious Language and Meaning course at the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro feels like her story is finally taking shape Thomas has always believed in the power of literature After publishing his first book of poetry teaching became his next dream Stepping in as a substitute professor for one of the university s most important courses is the opportunity he s been waiting for Neither expected that a single unforgettable night would turn their worlds upside down The man Lia couldn t get out of her head turns out to be her new professor The woman Thomas can t stop thinking about is now his tutor In a campus full of whispered rumors strict academic rules and simmering temptation they ll have to navigate a semester where every glance feels like a confession and every lecture risks revealing too much Broken Time, Fragmented Space Anna Maria Torriglia,2002-01-01 Examines how the artists and intellectuals of post war Italy dealt with the shameful heritage of their fascist upbringing and education by trying to craft a new cultural identity for themselves and the country A Corresponding Renaissance Lisa Kaborycha,2016 Women s vibrant presence in the Italian Renaissance has long been overlooked with attention focused mainly on the artistic and intellectual achievements of their male counterparts During this period however Italian women excelled especially as writers and nowhere were they more expressive than in their letters In A Corresponding Renaissance Letters Written by Italian Women 1375 1650 Lisa Kaborycha considers the lives and cultural contributions revealed by these women in their own words through their correspondence By turns highly personal didactic or devotional these letters expose the daily realities of women's lives and their feelings ideas and reactions to the complex world in which they lived Through their letters women emerge not merely as bystanders but as true cultural protagonists in the Italian Renaissance A Corresponding Renaissance is divided into eight thematic chapters featuring fifty five letters that are newly translated into English many for the first time ever Each of the letters is annotated and includes a brief biographical introduction and bibliographic references The women come from all walks of life saints poets courtesans and countesses and from every geographic area of Italy chronologically they span the entire Renaissance with the majority representing the sixteenth century Approximately one third of the selections are well known letters such as those of Catherine of Siena Veronica Franco and Isabella d Este the rest are lesser known previously untranslated or otherwise inaccessible

Post-war Architecture between Italy and the UK Lorenzo Ciccarelli, Clare Melhuish, 2021-10-14 Italy and the UK experienced a radical re organisation of urban space following the devastation of many towns and cities in the Second World War The need to rebuild led to an intellectual and cultural exchange between a wave of talented architects urbanists and architectural historians in the two countries Post war Architecture Between Italy and the UK studies this exchange exploring how the connections and mutual influences contributed to the formation of a distinctive stance towards Internationalism notwithstanding the countries contrasting geographic and climatic conditions levels of economic and industrial development and social structures Topics discussed in the volume include the influence of Italian historic town centres on British modernist and Brutalist architectural approaches to the design of housing and university campuses as public spaces post war planning concepts such as the precinct the tensions between British critics and Italian architects that paved the way for British postmodernism and the role of architectural education as a melting pot of mutual influence It draws on a wealth of archival and original materials to present insights into the personal relationships publications exhibitions and events that provided the crucible for the dissemination of ideas and typologies across cultural borders Offering new insights into the transcultural aspects of European architectural history in the post war years and its legacy this volume is vital reading for architectural and urban historians planners and students as well as social historians of the European post war period
