Alevi Identity:

Alevi Identity Tord Olsson, Elisabeth Ozdalga, Catharina Raudvere, 2005-09-30 Alawites cultural religious and social perspectives      Alevism as an Ethno-Religious Identity Celia Jenkins, Suavi Aydin, Umit Cetin, 2019-10-23 Until recently the importance of religion in the modern world has often been underestimated in Western societies whereas its significance is absolutely crucial in the Middle East Religion is critical to a sense of belonging for communities and nations and can be a force for unity or division This is the case for the Alevis an ethnic and religious community that constitutes approximately 20% of the Turkish population its second largest religious group In the current crisis in the Middle East the heightened religious tensions between Sunnis Shias and Alawites raise questions about who the Alevis are and where they stand in this conflict With an ambiguous relationship to Islam historically Alevis have been treated as a suspect community in Turkey and recently whilst distinct from Alawites have sympathised with the Assad regime s secular orientation The chapters in this book analyse different aspects of Alevi identity in relation to religion politics culture education and national identity drawing on specialist research in the field The approach is interdisciplinary and contributes to wider debates concerning ethnicity religion migration and trans national identity within and across ethno religious boundaries The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the National Identities journal      Turkish Migration, Identity and Integration Ibrahim Sirkeci, Betül Dilara Şeker, Ali Çağlar, 2015-09-28 Introduction by a lar Sirkeci eker Mobilities of Turkish migrants in Europe by P tzsche Incentive to migrate and to return to home country by Kahn and Billfeld Turkish refugees and their use of health and social services in London by Yaylag l Yaz c and Leeson Child poverty in Sweden among immigrants by Gustafsson and sterberg Alevis transnational practices and identity in the UK by Akdemir Turkish teachers views on European identity in Belgium by Yaylac Language maintenance and negotiating integration by Baskin From retreating to resisting by Hametner Social communication among Turks in Belgium by Yaylac Tiryaki Kukla Smoking cessation and tobacco prevention among migrants in Switzerland by Gross Arnold and Schaub Rewriting Turkish German cinema from the bottom up by Alkin Grounded theory and transnational audience reception by zalpman Turkish Muslims in a German city by Hackett An Investigation on the Turkish Religious Foundation of the UK by o tu and o tu      Alevis in Europe Tözün Issa, 2016-07-22 The Alevis are a significant minority in Turkey and now also in the countries of Western Europe Over the past century many of them have migrated from rural enclaves on the Anatolian plateau to the great cities of Istanbul and Ankara and from there to the countries of the European Union This book asks who are they How do they construct their identities now and in the past in Turkey and in Europe A range of scholars writing from sociological historical socio psychological and political perspectives present analysis and research that shows the Alevi communities grouping and regrouping defining and redefining sometimes as an ethnic minority sometimes as religious groups sometimes around a political philosophy contingently responding to circumstances of the Turkish Republic s political position and to the immigration policies of Western Europe Contributors consider Alevi roots and cultural practices in their villages of origin the changes in identity following the migration to the gecekondü shanty towns surrounding the cities of Turkey the changes consequent on their second diaspora to Germany the UK Sweden and other European countries and the implications of European citizenship for their identity This collection offers a new and significant contribution to the study of migration and minorities in the wider European context      Negotiating Identities, Language and Migration in Global London

Cangbai Wang,Terry Lamb,2024-01-16 This book explores the transnational practices of migrant groups in global London illustrating the complex relations between migrants and the city in the context of globalisation The chapters offer a starting point to examine migrants and the city from a comparative perspective by bringing together case studies of diverse migrant communities They use languaging as the central concept in the development of an interdisciplinary framework that creates an opportunity to talk across disciplines to engage with key issues crisscrossing migration cities and language The book promotes language based or language sensitive research drawing on the plurilingual repertoires and the language and translanguaging practices of migrant communities as the tool for data collection and ethnographic fieldwork This approach generates fresh insights into the complex issues of diasporic identities belonging and place making which have broad implications for migration studies in post Brexit Britain and beyond      Re-Negotiating Alevi Identity Talha

Köse,2023-05-16 This book investigates the transformation and the politicization of Alevi identity within the social and political context of post 1980 Türkiye This study specifically focuses on the role of collective emotions and values in forming and transforming Alevi identity Collective traumas and the glories of the Alevi community are explored with reference to personal life stories and widely shared collective narratives This study answers the following questions How are the moral cultural and political boundaries of Alevi identity being re negotiated vis vis other social groups within the changing social and political context How do the narratives on collective emotions such as victimhood fear humiliation marginalization and discrimination practically influence the Alevi identity negotiation process How can we address the deep rooted negative collective emotions and important barriers to intercommunal reconciliation processes What lessons can other identity groups in Türkiye and elsewhere learn from Alevi identity politics      Alevi identity : cultural, religious and social perspectives ; papers read at a conference held at the Swedish Research Institute in Istanbul, November 25 -27, 1996 Tord Olsson,1998

Migration and Identity through Creative Writing Alka Kumar,Anna Triandafyllidou,2023-10-03 This open access book brings together storytelling and self narrative creative writing and narrative enquiry to explore a variety of topics in migration from an experiential lens The volume is hybrid and multi genre as it contains both scholarly chapters grounded in academic perspectives as well as personal essays and creative non fiction In addition to critical reflections on key migration topics and concepts like identity and diversity integration and agency transnationalism and return the scholarly chapters also propose a particular methodology for workshopping migration narratives and writing about personal lived experiences through iterations of scientific reflection narrative enquiry and creative imagination The book explores the potential of a new conceptual paradigm and methodological process to learn more and also differently about the migration experience Finally this volume asks a bigger question too how do we define the boundaries of research is it possible to entirely separate the spatial temporal and methodological parameters in which projects are developed and pursued and how can the specifics of these multiple contexts contribute to shaping the knowledge being produced

Turkish National Identity and Its Outsiders Ozlem Goner, 2017-06-14 This book examines the ways in which states and nations are constructed and legitimated through defining and managing outsiders Focusing on Turkey and the municipality of Dersim a region that has historically combined different outsider identities including Armenian Kurdish and Alevi identities the author explores the remembering transformation and mobilisation of everyday relations of power and the manner in which relationships with the state shape both outsider identities and the conception of the nation itself Together with a discussion of the recent decade in which the history identity and nature of Dersim have been central to various social and political organisations the author concentrates on three defining periods of state outsider relationships the massacre and the following displacements in Dersim known as 1938 the growth of capitalism in Turkey and the leftist movements in Dersim between World War II and the coup d'état of 1980 and the rise of the PKK and the state of exception in Dersim in the 1990s to show how outsiders came to be defined as exceptions to the law and how they were managed in different periods Drawing on archival methods field research in depth and multiple semi-structured interviews and focus groups with three consecutive generations this book offers a historical understanding of relationships of power and struggle as they are actualised and challenged at particular localities and shaped through the making of outsidership As such it will be of interest to scholars of sociology anthropology and political science as well as historians

Identity and Cultural Diversity Maykel Verkuyten, 2013-08-22 Identity and Cultural Diversity examines immigration and its effect on diversity from a social psychological perspective Immigration increases cultural diversity and raises difficult questions of belonging adaptation and the unity of societies questions of identity may be felt by people struggling with the basic problem of who they are and where they fit in and although cultural diversity can enrich communities and societies it also sometimes leads to a new tribalism which threatens democracy and social cohesion

The author Maykel Verkuyten considers how people give meaning to the fact that they belong to ethnic racial religious and national groups and the implications this can have for social cohesion The opening chapters consider the nature of social identity and group identification and include discussions of identity development in adolescence acculturation and multiple and dual identities Verkuyten then considers one of the most pernicious social problems how conflict emerges from perceiving others as different He examines when and why group distinctions grow into conflicts and considers the role of cultural diversity beliefs such as multiculturalism and assimilation The book concludes by exploring productive ways of managing cultural diversity Written in an engaging style Identity and Cultural Diversity will be essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of social and cultural psychology and other social sciences and it also makes key themes in social psychology accessible to a wider audience outside academia

Societal Peace and Ideal Citizenship for Turkey Pinar Enneli,Rasim Özgür Dönmez,2011-08-16 Globalisation and neo liberalism have been impacting the nation state and leading the full citizenship concept into crisis not only in Turkey but also in the world While one reason for this crisis is the decline of the welfare state another reason stems from the fluidity of borders that distorts the classical patterns of the nation state such as meta identity The existing Turkish citizenship inherited a strong state idea with passive citizenship tradition from the Ottoman Empire However this understanding is no longer sustainable for Turkish society The definition of citizenship through state led nationalism secularism and a free market economy creates societal crises in politics and society The aim of this book is to find out the answer of what should be the ideal citizenship regime for Turkey Various scholars dealing with Turkish socio politics analyze different aspects and problems of Turkish citizenship regime that should be tackled for finding a recipe for ideal citizenship in Turkey

Political Psychology of Turkish Political Behavior Cengiz Erisen, 2016-04-14 The primary motivation for this book is to focus on something crucial that is missing in Turkish political science well founded theories on the Turkish voter and empiricism in scholarly research Given the absence of such theories one could ask what then the best model is for explaining a Turkish citizen's vote choice and political behaviour and what schools of thought Turkish political science has Unfortunately it is not possible to offer a satisfactory response to either question at this point and among the clear deficiencies in the current literature the primary one is the lack of a robust model explaining how Turkish citizens form their political attitudes engage in political participation or cast their votes With these important questions in mind this book aims to generate an interest in the theoretical and methodological tools that one can employ to conduct research contributing to the needs of the literature particularly in political behaviour and political psychology This book expands our understanding about the processes and the mechanisms of Turkish political behaviour and contributes to the foundations of theory building in the literature This book was published as a special issue of Turkish Studies
