Alex Colville The Observer Observed:

Alex Colville Mark Cheetham, 1994 In this illustrated biography of painter Alex Colville Mark A Cheetham charts the prodigious life and career of one of Canada's best known artists Both artist and public figure Colville engages many worlds at once painting and politics creativity and business He has been given some of the highest honours for his art He has also been charged with misogyny opportunism and crowd pleasing Where is the truth among all these contradictions Read this biography and discover Alex Colville for yourself

The Mystery of the Real Jeffrey Meyers, 2016-06-14 The work of Alex Colville O C 1920 2013 one of the great modern realist painters combines the Flemish detail of Andrew Wyeth the eerie foreboding of George Tooker and the anguished confrontations of Lucian Freud Behind the North Americans stands their common master Edward Hopper Colville's works are in many museums in Canada and Germany He has affinities with Max Beckmann and appeals to the German secondary virtues cleanliness punctuality love of order In a long life he resolutely opposed the fashionable currents of abstract and expressionistic art In contrast to Jackson Pollock's wild action painting Colville created paintings of contemplation and reflection As Jeffrey Meyers writes I spent several days with Colville on each of three visits from California to Wolfville I received seventy letters from him between August 1998 and April 2010 and kept thirty six of my letters to him He sent me photographs and slides of his work and in his eighties discussed the progress and meaning of the paintings he completed during the last decade of his life His handwritten letters precisely explaining his thoughts and feelings provide a rare and enlightening opportunity to compare my insights and interpretations with his own intentions and ideas He also discussed his family health sexuality politics reading travels literary interests our mutual friend Iris Murdoch response to my writing his work exhibitions sales of his pictures and of course the meaning of his art His letters reveal the challenges he faced during aging and illness and his determination to keep painting as health difficulties mounted He stopped writing to me when he became seriously ill two years before his death In this context the late paintings presented in colour in this book take on a new poignancy

Politics and Cultures of Liberation , 2018-05-29 Politics and Cultures of Liberation Media Memory and Projections of Democracy focuses on mapping analyzing and evaluating memories rituals and artistic responses to the theme of liberation How is the national framed within a dynamic system of intercultural contact zones highlighting often competing agendas of remembrance How does the production re mediation and framing of narratives within different social territorial and political environments determine the cultural memory of liberation The articles compiled in this volume seek to provide new interdisciplinary and intercultural perspectives on the politics and cultures of liberation by examining commemorative practices artistic responses and audio visual media that lend themselves for transnational exploration They offer a wide range of diverse intercultural perspectives on media memory liberation self Americanization and conceptualizations of democracy from the war years through the Cold War era to the 21st century

U present 22 contributions that attempt to explore the connections between art and money in a world increasingly dominated by the practices and ideologies of market culture Consisting of both essays and reproductions of art works the contributions come from Canadian artists academics curators and critics Among the topics addressed in the essays are the relationship between nationalism and the value of art a challenge to the universality of aesthetics the erosion of artistic and educational freedoms and cultural policy and funding in Canada Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Mythologizing Norval Morrisseau Carmen L. Robertson,2016-05-03 Mythologizing Norval Morrisseau examines the complex identities assigned to Anishinaabe artist Norval Morrisseau Was he an uneducated artist plagued by alcoholism and homelessness Was Morrisseau a shaman artist who tapped a deep spiritual force Or was he simply one of Canada s most significant artists Carmen L Robertson charts both the colonial attitudes and the stereotypes directed at Morrisseau and other Indigenous artists in Canada s national press Robertson also examines Morrisseau s own shaping of his image An internationally known and award winning artist from a remote area of northwestern Ontario Morrisseau founded an art movement known as Woodland Art developed largely from Indigenous and personal creative elements Still until his retrospective exhibition at the National Gallery of Canada in 2006 many Canadians knew almost nothing about Morrisseau s work Using discourse analysis methods Robertson looks at news stories magazine articles and film footage ranging from Morrisseau s first solo exhibition at Toronto s Pollock Gallery in 1962 until his death in 2007 to examine the cultural assumptions that have framed Morrisseau

International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens,Hans Bertens,Douwe Fokkema,1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader s knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism

Editing the Image Mark Cheetham,Elizabeth Legge,Catherine M. Soussloff,2008-11-29 The editing process is a vital part of virtually every form of media Primarily associated with texts and written language editing is equally essential if less examined in regard to visual media Editing the Image looks at the editing of visual media as both a series of technical exercises and as an allegory It touches on concerns that are crucial to the history of art and visual culture as well as those media and institutions that produce and disseminate the visual arts in our society Featuring contributors from a wide range of disciplines Editing the Image considers editing in the context of academic journals art historical texts illustrated books museum displays and exhibitions It is an inclusive analysis of visual forms commonly associated with the process of editing photography film and video as well as some that are not intrinsically linked to editing painting sculpture and architecture In addition to wide ranging academic considerations this collection includes discussions of moving picture media and studio art by practitioners giving the study a practical focus For anyone who has considered the implications of the editorial process this work will be of significant interest NewsScan ,1995 The 1930s Jean Clair,Pierre Théberge,2008 On the heels of the Roaring Twenties the 1930s which spanned from the economic crisis of 1929 to the outbreak of the Second World War was a dark decade Beyond similar governmental mechanisms these regimes shared an ideology the will to create what they called the New Man This decade began with a more or less innocent dream of the theme of the original egg germination the harmonious growth of a fabric both biological and social but ended with the nightmarish discovery of the corpses in the concentration camps by the armies of liberation in 1945 BOOK JACKET

Canadian Book Review Annual ,1994 Quill & Quire ,1994 Political Theory and Architecture Duncan Bell,Bernardo Zacka,2021-07 What can political theory teach us about architecture and what can it learn from paying closer attention to architecture The essays assembled in this volume begin from a common postulate that architecture is not merely a backdrop to political life but a political force in its own right Each in their own way they aim to give countenance to that claim and to show how our thinking about politics can be enriched by reflecting on the built environment The collection advances four lines of inquiry probing the connection between architecture and political regimes examining how architecture can be constitutive of the ethical and political realm uncovering how architecture is enmeshed in logics of governmentality and in the political economy of the city and asking to what extent we can think of architecture tributary as it is to the flows of capital as a partially autonomous social force Taken together the essays demonstrate the salience of a range of political theoretical approaches for the analysis of architecture and show that architecture deserves a place as an object of study in political theory alongside institutions laws norms practices imaginaries and discourses Canadian Who's Who 2008 Elizabeth Lumley,2008-01-05 Now in its ninety eighth year of publication this standard Canadian reference source contains the most comprehensive and authoritative biographical information on notable living Canadians Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada The volume is updated annually to ensure accuracy and 600 new entries are added each year to keep current with developing trends and issues in Canadian society Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life politics media academia business sports and the arts from every area of human activity Each entry details birth date and place education
