Bethea, 1998-11-24 Readers often have regarded with curiosity the creative life of the poet In this passionate and authoritative new study David Bethea illustrates the relation between the art and life of nineteenth century poet Alexander Pushkin the central figure in Russian thought and culture Bethea shows how Pushkin on the eve of his two hundredth birthday still speaks to our time He indicates how we as modern readers might realize that is not only grasp cognitively but feel experience the promethean metaphors central to the poet's intensely sculpted life The Pushkin who emerges from Bethea's portrait is one who long unknown to English language readers closely resembles the original both psychologically and artistically Bethea begins by addressing the influential thinkers Freud Bloom Jakobson and Lotman to show that their premises do not by themselves adequately account for Pushkin's psychology of creation or his version of the life of the poet He then proposes his own versatile model of reading and goes on to sketches the tangled connections between Pushkin and his great compatriot the eighteenth century poet Gavrila Derzhavin Pushkin simultaneously advanced toward and retreated from the shadow of his predecessor as he created notions of poet in history and inspiration new for his time and absolutely determinative for the tradition thereafter Eugene Onegin Alexander Pushkin, 2022-08-19 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1937 Alexander Pushkin Aleksandr Sergeevich Pushkin, Paul Debreczeny, Walter W. Social Functions of Literature Paul Debreczeny, 1997 This study of the effect of literature on readers both as individuals and as members of social groups focuses on Russia s national poet Alexander Pushkin as a model for investigating the aesthetic and social functions of literature The individual reader s response to the literary text is demonstrated in Part One through a broad range of memoirs diaries and correspondences in which Russian readers recorded their reactions to Pushkin Among the reactions are testimonies that Pushkin s works helped readers form their personalities provided cathartic relief in times of stress and aided them in releasing their suppressed emotions In his analysis the author draws on various psychological approaches from studies of perception through developmental psychology to psychoanalysis Part Two exposes the extent to which individuals aesthetic responses are conditioned by their social environment Against the backdrop of Russian social history in the early nineteenth century the author describes the dissemination of new aesthetic norms notably the relations of the Russian literary elite to lowbrow and middlebrow groups In this context he analyzes a number of Pushkin imitations with Pushkin s responses to them and links Nikolai Gogol s development as a writer to the social groups surrounding Pushkin Among the other topics discussed are the popularization of Pushkin on the stage and his inclusion in school textbooks and anthologies The aura surrounding the personality of an author is the subject of Part Three in which the author shows how Pushkin's death in a duel with a foreigner contributed to his emergence as a symbol of the Russian nation and how deep seated anxiety about national identity gave rise to the Pushkin myth and to the canonization of the poet as martyr. The author also describes how the combined effect of the widespread reading of Pushkin's work and his legend as martyr allowed him to remain Russia's main mythic figure despite the Soviet Union's attempts to supplant him with Lenin. Throughout the book theoretical arguments are buttressed by close readings of Pushkin's works especially The Prisoner of the Caucasus, Eugene Onegin, Poltava, Egyptian Nights and several lyric poems.
