Alexanders Campaign In Southern Punjab:

Alexander's Campaign in Southern Punjab Pierre Herman Leonard Eggermont, 1993 Peeters 1993 The Alexander Romance: History and Literature Richard Stoneman, Krzysztof Nawotka, Agnieszka Wojciechowska, 2018-07-31 The Alexander Romance is a difficult text to define and to assess justly From its earliest days it was an open text which was adapted into a variety of cultures with meanings that themselves vary and yet seem to carry a strong undercurrent of homogeneity Alexander is the hero who cannot become a god and who encapsulates the desires and strivings of the host cultures The papers assembled in this volume which were originally presented at a conference at the University of Wrocław Poland in October 2015 all face the challenge of defining the Alexander Romance Some focus on quite specific topics while others address more overarching themes They form a cohesive set of approaches to the delicate positioning of the text between history and literature From its earliest elements in Hellenistic Egypt to its latest reworkings in the Byzantine and Islamic Middle East the Alexander Romance shows itself to be a work that steadily engages with such questions as kingship the limits of human and Greek nature and the purpose of history The Romance began as a history but only by becoming literature could it achieve such a deep penetration of east and west The Hellenistic Settlements in the East from Armenia and Mesopotamia to Bactria and India Getzel M. Cohen, 2013-06-02 This is the third volume of Getzel Cohen's important work on the Hellenistic settlements in the ancient world Through the conquests of Alexander the Great his successors and others Greek and Macedonian culture spread deep into Asia with colonists settling as far away as Bactria and India In this book Cohen provides historical narratives detailed references citations and commentaries on all the Graeco Macedonian settlements founded or refounded in the East Organized geographically Cohen pulls together discoveries and debates from dozens of widely scattered archaeological and epigraphic projects making a distinct contribution to ongoing questions and opening new avenues of inquiry Authority, Privacy and Public Order in Islam Union européenne des arabisants et islamisants. On the Skirts of Canaan in the Iron Age Edward Lipiński, 2006 The history of Canaan in the Iron Age is generally written from the perspective of the kingdoms of Israel and Judah The scope of this book is to inverse this relation and to focus on the skirts of Canaan while regarding the United Monarchy and the Divided Monarchy as external and sometimes marginal players of the regional history After having examined the transition from the Late Bronze Age to the Iron Age in the mid 12th century B C the book deals thus with the Philistines and the role of Egypt in Canaan during Iron Age II especially in the face of the Assyrian expansion It treats further of the Phoenicians and the Aramaeans There follow five chapters on Bashan Gilead Ammon Moab and Edom with the Negeb Several indices facilitate the consultation of the work on particular topics

Redefining Christian Identity Jan J. Ginkel, Hendrika Lena Murre-van den Berg, Theo Maarten van Lint, 2005 Cultural interaction in the Middle East since the Rise of Islam such was the title of a combined research project of the Universities of Leiden and Groningen aimed at describing the various ways in which the Christian communities of the Middle East expressed their distinct cultural identity in Muslim societies As part of the project the symposium Redefining Christian Identity Christian cultural strategies since the rise of Islam took place at Groningen University on April 7 10 1999 This book contains the proceedings of this conference From the articles it becomes clear that a number of distinct cultural strategies can be identified some of which were used very frequently others only in certain groups or at particular periods of time The three main strategies that are represented in the papers of this volume are i reinterpretation of the pre Islamic Christian heritage ii inculturation of elements from the new Islamic context iii isolation from the Islamic context Viewed in time it is clear that the reinterpretation of older Christian heritage was particularly important in the first two centuries after the rise of Islam the seventh and eighth centuries that inculturation was the dominant theme of the Abbasid period in the ninth to twelfth centuries whereas from the Mongol period onwards from the thirteenth to the eighteenth centuries isolation more and more often occurs although inculturation of elements from the predominantly Muslim environment never came to a complete standstill

Alexander's Campaigns in Sind and Baluchistan and the Siege of the Brahmin Town of Harmatelia Pierre Herman Leonard Eggermont, 1975 In quest of the identification and geographical location of the Brahmin town of Harmatelia known for Alexander's siege which became a favourite literary theme throughout the Hellenistic age the author has studied this minor problem within the much wider context of the historico geographic conditions of Sind and Baluchistan about 500 B C A D 25 Starting from a well balanced assessment of the data supplied by western classic authors as well as by Indian and other oriental sources he has compared the views held by General Cunningham's contemporaries with the fresh evidence we have at our disposal nowadays such as the data collected by Aurel Stein during his archaeological reconnaissances in Baluchistan the numerous notes which W W Tarn has inserted in his papers and books on Alexander the Great and the recent geomorphological studies by the German geologist H Wilhelmy on the Indus river basin in general and the Indus delta in particular An interesting feature of this book is the new method the author has developed His interpretation is based on what he calls the Law of the strings of geographical names viz the principle according to which the early geographers listed the toponyms of towns tribes and mountains

Malay Kingship in Kedah Maziar Mozaffari Falarti, 2013-01-01 The Kedah Sultanate is the oldest unbroken independent kingship lines in the Malay world with 1 000 years of history and arguably one of the oldest in the Islamic world In this study the author examines key geopolitical and spiritual attributes of Malay kingship that have traditionally cemented the ruler the peoples and the environment

Egypt and Syria in the Fatimid, Ayyubid and Mamluk Eras Urbain Vermeulen,D. De Smet,1995

The Coffin of Heqata Harco Willems,1996 The coffin published in this book represents a type that had some popularity in southern Upper Egypt in the early Middle Kingdom but which despite its extraordinary decoration had not attracted attention so far The most striking feature of the decoration is that the object friezes the pictorial rendering of ritual implements usually found on coffin interiors of the period also include complete ritual scenes some of which are attested only here Apart from this the decoration includes an extensive selection of the religious texts known as the Coffin Texts The author first studies the archaeological context and dating of the coffin and attempts a reconstruction of the construction procedures from his technical description of the monument The detailed account of the decoration in the rest of the book interprets the ritual iconography and offers fresh translations and interpretations of the Coffin Texts A methodological innovation is that he regards the scenes and texts not as individual decoration elements but as components of an integral composition The background of this composition is argued to be a view of life in the hereafter in which the deceased is involved in an unending cycle of ritual action which reflects the funerary rituals that were actually performed on earth. On the one hand these netherworldly rituals aim at bringing the deceased to new life by mummification; on the other the newly regenerated deceased partakes in embalming rituals for gods representing his dead father Osiris or Atum. These gods in their turn effectuate the deceased's regeneration. The entire process results in a cycle of resuscitation in which the afterlife of the deceased and of the father gods are interdependent. The sociological bias of this interpretation with its emphasis on kinship relations differs significantly from earlier attempts to explain Egyptian funerary religion. The Encyclopaedia Britannica, 1896     The Encyclopaedia Britannica Thomas Spencer Baynes, 1880

The Encyclopædia Britannica, 1893     Alexander the Great Hugh Bowden, 2014. In 336 BC Alexander the Great became king of Macedon. During his twelve year reign he conquered the Achaemenid Persian Empire, the largest to have yet existed, and in the process had a profound effect on the world he moved through. In this examination of his life and career Hugh Bowden explores his cultural and historical legacy.
