Translated by Ronald Matthews Germaine Tillion, Ronald de Couves MATTHEWS, 1958 The Agony of Algeria Martin Stone, 1997 An analysis of the background to the current crisis in Algeria placing in perspective the threats to the state posed by Islamic fundamentalism and economic mismanagement It looks at the role of the National Liberation Front FLN international relations the economy and more Algeria Michael J. Willis, 2022-10-11 When mass protests erupted in Algeria in 2019 on a scale unseen anywhere in the region since the Arab Spring the outside world was taken by surprise Algeria had been largely unaffected by the turmoil that engulfed its neighbours in 2011 and it was widely assumed that the population was too traumatised and cowed by the country's bloody civil war to take to the streets demanding change Michael J Willis offers an explanation of this unexpected development known as the HirakMovement examining the political and social changes that have occurred in Algeria since the dark decade of the 1990s He examines how the bitter civil conflict was brought to an end and how a fresh political order was established following the 1999 election of a dynamic new leader Abdelaziz Bouteflika Initially underwritten by revenue from Algeria's substantial hydrocarbons resources this new order came to be undermined by falling oil prices an ailing president and a population determined to have its voice heard by an increasingly corrupt out of touch and opaque national leadership Exactly twenty years passed before Bouteflika's presidency was brought to an end by the Hirak protests this book is an authoritative account of them The Algerian Destiny of Albert Camus Aïcha Kassoul, Mohamed Lakhdar Maougal, 2006 Description This monograph translated from French is the first attempt to reconcile Camus s deep seated identity as an Algerian and his ideas of a multiconfessional multicultural non colonial Algeria This work was originally entitled in French CAMUS ET LE DESTIN ALGERIEN 2001 and will be published for French readers in the near future Citizenship and Antisemitism in French Colonial Algeria, 1870-1962 Sophie B. Roberts, 2017-12-28 Examines the relationship between antisemitism and the practices of citizenship in a colonial context focusing on experiences of Algerian Jews Remnants of Empire in Algeria and Vietnam Pamela A.

Pears, 2004-01-01 Remnants of Empire in Algeria and Vietnam proposes a new approach to Francophone Studies through an examination of four specific Algerian and Vietnamese novels written in French by women The connections between their works and shared colonial history lead us to a deeper understanding of postcolonial literature The Algerian Novel and Colonial Discourse Abdelkader Aoudjit, 2010 During the last fifty years Mouloud Feraoun Mohammed Dib Mouloud Mammeri and Kateb Yacine achieved significant international recognition yet remain little known in the United States Filling a pressing need The Algerian Novel and Colonial Discourse provides a critical introduction and a new approach to the works of these Algerian novelists Beginning with an overview of their novels this book goes on to discuss critical approaches to them challenging the widely held notion that they are merely ethnographic upholding the status quo The Algerian Novel and Colonial Discourse provides a new reading and most significantly argues that they are best read as witnesses to the kind of conflict Jean Fran ois Lyotard calls a diff rend a conflict in which one suffers an injustice and is at the same time deprived of the means to argue The Algerian Novel and Colonial Discourse then examines the issue of humanism that the novels allegedly both appeal to and reject and demonstrates that the Algerian authors condemnation of colonialism is both a coherent political position and consistent with their critique of liberal humanism It concludes with a discussion on the ongoing relevance of the Algerian novels The Algerian Novel and Colonial Discourse includes a glossary and a short history of modern Algeria to provide readers with the political and cultural contexts they need to understand its literature This combination of innovative theoretical approach and political context makes this book of utmost importance for students of Francophone literature and for literary critics interested in colonialism postcolonialism and Lyotard s philosophy and France, 1800-2000 Patricia M. E. Lorcin, 2006-10-19 The relationship between Algeria and France that formed during the 132 years of colonial rule did not end in 1962 when Algeria gained its independence This long period of occupation left an indelible mark on the social fabric of both societies one that continues to influence their cultures identities and politics Wide ranging in scope yet complementary in focus the essays deftly convey the extent to which the French colonial experience in Algeria resonates on both sides of the Mediterranean Young and established scholars shed light on the linguistic cultural and social mechanisms of violence remembrance forgetting fantasy nostalgia prejudice mythmaking and fractured identity Addressing the nature of Franco Algerian relations through such topics as migration displacement settler colonialism racism and sexuality these essays provide an important contribution to postcolonial studies cultural studies and North African history With renewed public debate surrounding the two countries shared past and their interwoven communities today this volume will be indispensable for anyone with an interest in the relations between Algeria and France and the literature on memory and nostalgia A History of Algeria James McDougall, 2017-04-24 An essential introduction to the history of Algeria spanning a period of five hundred years Managing Instability in Algeria Isabelle Werenfels, 2007-05-07 Using evidence from extensive fieldwork Isabelle Werenfels explores the relationship between elite dynamics and strategies and the lack of profound political change in Algeria after 1995 when the country's military rulers returned to electoral processes

The Algerian War, The Algerian Revolution Natalya Vince,2020-11-07 This book provides a new analysis of the contested history of one of the most violent wars of decolonisation of the twentieth century the Algerian War the Algerian Revolution between 1954 and 1962 It brings together an engaging account of its origins course and legacies with an incisive examination of how interpretations of the conflict have shifted and why it continues to provoke intense debate Locating the war in a century long timeframe stretching from 1914 to the present it multiplies the perspectives from which events can be seen The pronouncements of politicians are explored alongside the testimony of rural women who provided logistical support for guerrillas in the National Liberation Front The broader context of decolonisation and the Cold War is considered alongside the experiences of colonised men serving in the French army Unpacking the historiography of the end of a colonial empire the rise of anti colonial nationalism and their post colonial aftermaths it provides an accessible insight into how history is written

Oil Wealth and the Poverty of Politics Miriam R. Lowi,2009-11-12 This book explains why Algeria s post colonial domestic political economy unravelled and how the regime eventually managed to regain power and hegemony

Fight Or Flight Martin Thomas, 2014-03 The story of the dramatic collapse of the British and French colonial empires in the aftermath of the Second World War now told for the first time as part of one global process Maghrebs in Motion Suzanne Gauch, 2016 Exploring films made in Tunisia Morocco and Algeria from 1985 to 2009 Suzanne Gauch illustrates how late post independence and early twenty first century North African cinema prefigured many of the transformations in perception and relation that stunned both participants and onlookers during the remarkable uprisings of the 2011 Arab Spring Through multifaceted examinations of key films by nine filmmakers Farida Benlyazid Mohamed Chouikh Nacer Khemir Nabil Ayouch Ly s Salem Nadia El Fani Tariq Tequia Faouzi Bensa di and Nejib Belkadhi Gauch delineates the shifting relation of politics to film in the era of neoliberal globalization Each work she argues taps the power inherent in cinema to destabilize patterns of perception and judgment while taking film's role as popular entertainment in new directions Highlighting how each film taps into the mobility at the core of cinema to break through the boundaries that have long circumscribed filmmaking from North Africa Gauch shows how this cinema continues to forge and reflect unexpected trajectories for itself and its audiences The Battlefield Hugh Roberts, 2017-03-14 The violence that has ravaged Algeria has often defied explanation Regularly invoked in debates about political Islam transitions to democracy globalization and the right of humanitarian interference Algeria s tragedy has been reduced to a clash of stereotypes Islamists vs a secular state terrorists vs innocent civilians or generals vs a defenseless society. The prevalence of such simplistic representations has disabled public opinion inside as well as outside the country and contributed to the intractability of the conflict This collection of essays offers a radical corrective to Western misconceptions Rejecting the usual tautological approaches of inherent predetermined conflict Hugh Roberts explores the outlook and evolution of the various internal forces as they emerged the

Islamists the Berberists the factions within the army and the regime in general and he looks at external interests and actors. He explains their strategies and the maneuvers in which they haveengaged. The resulting analyses illuminate the startling dynamics of the conflict and the real issues at stake and identify the implications not only for Algeria but also for this crucial region Informed by a deep knowledge of Algeria and Algerian history these accessible essays guide the reader through the extraordinary politics of the drama in all its complexity. Poststructuralism and Postcoloniality Jane Hiddleston,2010-01-01 This book explores the relation between poststructuralist thought and postcoloniality and identifies in that interaction the expression of a particular anxiety concerning the form of theoretical writing Many so called poststructuralist thinkers such as Derrida Cixous Lyotard Barthes Kristeva and Spivak have turned their attention at some point in their career towards questions either of postcolonialism or of cultural domination and difference For all these thinkers however a reflection on such questions has generated a sense of unease concerning the assumed neutrality of theoretical discourse and the inevitable subjective or autobiographical investments of the writing self. The book argues that this anxiety betrays an unprecedented lucidity concerning the particular challenges of writing about ourselves and others at a time of postcolonial upheaval
