Algerian War And The French Army 1954 62 Experiences Images Testimonies:

Algerian War and the French Army, 1954-62 Martin S. Alexander, Martin Evans, J.F.V. Keiger, 2002-08-21 The Algerian War 1954 62 was one of the most prolonged and violent examples of decolonization At times horribly savage it was an undeclared war in the sense that no formal declaration of hostilities was ever made Bringing to an end one hundred and thirty two years of French rule the Algerian struggle caused the fall of six French prime ministers the collapse of the Fourth Republic and expulsion of one million French settlers This volume bringing together leading experts in the field focuses on one of the key actors in the drama the French army They show that the Algerian War was just as much about conflicts of ideas beliefs and loyalties as it was about simple military operations In this way the collection goes beyond polemic and recrimination to explore the many and varied nuances of what was one of the historically most important of the grand style colonial wars

France and the Algerian War, 1954-62 Martin S. Alexander, John F. V. Keiger, 2002 The French army's war in Algeria has always aroused passions This study offers an honest appraisal of the atrocities carried out on both sides to reveal that what happened in Algeria was indeed a war and not just a minor conflict

France and the Algerian War, 1954-1962 Martin S. Alexander, J.F.V. Keiger, 2013-10-14 The French Army's war in Algeria has always aroused passions This book does not whitewash the atrocities committed by both sides rather it focuses on the conflict itself a perspective assisted by the French republic's official admission in 1999 that what happened in Algeria was indeed a war

Crisis and Renewal in France, 1918-1962 Kenneth Mouré, Martin S. Alexander, 2002 Since 1914 the French state has faced a succession of daunting crises This book showcases significant new scholarship reflecting greater access to French archival sources and focuses on the role of crises in fostering modernisation

Israel and Settler Society Lorenzo Veracini, 2006-01-20 The struggle between Israel and the Palestinians is not unique whatever the media may suggest Lorenzo Veracini argues that the conflict is best understood in terms of colonialism as like many other societies Israel is a settler society Looking at the evolution of other colonial regimes apartheid South Africa French Algeria and Australia Veracini presents a thoughtful interpretation of the dynamics of colonialism He challenges two important myths firstly that the Israeli Palestinian dispute is unique and defies comparative approaches and secondly that the struggle is mainly based in nationality and religion and therefore different to typical colonial conflicts Comparing and contrasting official apartheid regimes with the more recent history of Israel and Palestine he offers a critical perspective on colonialism as well as important new insights into patterns of imperialism today

Operational Culture for the Warfighter Barak A. Salmoni, Paula Holmes-Eber, 2008 This textbook is designed to help Marines link concepts of culture to the realities of planning and executing military operations around the world p 2

The Kaleidoscope of Gendered Memory in Ahlam Mosteghanemi's Novels Nuha Baaqeel, 2019-07-12 Through its unique kaleidoscopic lens this book analyzes the work of Algeria's first postcolonial woman writer to publish a novel in Arabic Ahlam Mosteghanemi Her novels Memory in the Flesh and Chaos of the Senses return to the trauma of the

Algerian War of Independence to address the lingering anxieties of national belonging and memory in postcolonial Algeria at a time when the nation is caught between two forces entrenched bureaucratic political elites and populist Islamists who imagine a return to a pre modern utopian past This book argues that Mosteghanemi s polyphonic narratives reveal that national narratives are always multiple unity is not one all encompassing narrative but instead an ever evolving Bakhtinian dialogism accommodating multiple perspectives memories and stories The study interprets Mosteghanemi s metaphor of the bridge as a powerful device for exploring tensions between reality and imagination exile and belonging and traditional concepts of gender in ways that reimagine nationhood and gesture towards a new collective future Algeria Martin Evans, John Phillips, 2008-01-14 After liberating itself from French colonial rule in one of the twentieth century s most brutal wars of independence Algeria became a standard bearer for the non aligned movement By the 1990s however its revolutionary political model had collapsed degenerating into a savage conflict between the military and Islamist guerillas that killed some 200 000 citizens In this lucid and gripping account Martin Evans and John Phillips explore Algeria s recent and very bloody history demonstrating how the high hopes of independence turned into anger as young Algerians grew increasingly alienated Unemployed frustrated by the corrupt military regime and excluded by the West the post independence generation needed new heroes and some found them in Osama bin Laden and the rising Islamist movement Evans and Phillips trace the complex roots of this alienation arguing that Algeria s predicament political instability pressing economic and social problems bad governance a disenfranchised youth is emblematic of an arc of insecurity stretching from Morocco to Indonesia Looking back at the pre colonial and colonial periods they place Algeria s complex present into historical context demonstrating how successive governments have manipulated the past for their own ends The result is a fractured society with a complicated and bitter relationship with the Western powers and an increasing tendency to export terrorism to France America and beyond

Postcolonial Encounters in International Relations Alina Sajed, 2013-07-18 Postcolonial Encounters in International Relations examines the social and cultural aspects of the political violence that underpinned the French colonial project in the Maghreb and the multi layered postcolonial realities that ensued This book explores the reality of the lives of North African migrants in postcolonial France with a particular focus on their access to political entitlements such as citizenship and rights This reality is complicated even further by complex practices of memory undertaken by Franco Maghrebian intellectuals who negotiate in their writings between the violent memory of the French colonial project in the Maghreb and the contemporary conundrums of postcolonial migration The book pursues thus the politics of post colonial memory by tracing its representations in literary political and visual narratives belonging to various Franco Maghrebian intellectuals who see themselves as living and writing between France and the Maghreb By adopting a postcolonial perspective a perspective quite marginal in International Relations the book investigates a different international relations which emerges via narratives of migration A postcolonial standpoint is instrumental in understanding the relations between class gender and race which interrogate and reflect more generally on the shared post colonial violence between North Africa and France and on the politics of mediating violence through complex practices of memory

The Namibian War of Independence, 1966-1989 Richard Dale, 2014-10-21 The decolonization of Namibia was delayed from 1966 to 1989 the period of the war of independence pitting the Namibian nationalists against the South African minority ruled regime This book describes the diplomatic economic and military campaigns of the Namibian and South African belligerents and draws a comparison with several other decolonization wars Using data from parliamentary debates the aftermath is examined of the Namibian war and the newly independent nation The book provides a basis for further investigation of the decolonization process

The Algerian War, The Algerian Revolution Natalya Vince, 2020-11-07 This book provides a new analysis of the contested history of one of the most violent wars of decolonisation of the twentieth century the Algerian War the Algerian Revolution between 1954 and 1962 It brings together an engaging account of its origins course and legacies with an incisive examination of how interpretations of the conflict have shifted and why it continues to provoke intense debate Locating the war in a century long timeframe stretching from 1914 to the present it multiplies the perspectives from which events can be seen The pronouncements of politicians are explored alongside the testimony of rural women who provided logistical support for guerrillas in the National Liberation Front The broader context of decolonisation and the Cold War is considered alongside the experiences of colonised men serving in the French army Unpacking the historiography of the end of a colonial empire the rise of anti colonial nationalism and their post colonial aftermaths it provides an accessible insight into how history is written

Fight Or Flight Martin Thomas, 2014-03 The story of the dramatic collapse of the British and French colonial empires in the aftermath of the Second World War now told for the first time as part of one global process

Intelligence and International Security Len Scott, R. Gerald Hughes, Martin Alexander, 2013-10-31 The events of 9 11 and subsequent acts of jihadist terrorism together with the failures of intelligence agencies over Iraq s Weapons of Mass Destruction have arguably heralded a new age of intelligence For some this takes the form of a crisis of legitimacy For others the threat of cataclysmic terrorism involving chemical biological radiological or nuclear attack gives added poignancy to the academic contention that intelligence failure is inevitable Many of the challenges facing intelligence appear to be both new and deeply worrying In response intelligence has clearly taken on new forms and new agendas How these various developments are viewed depends upon the historical normative and political frameworks in which they are analysed This book addresses fundamental questions arising in this new age The central aim of the collection is to identify key issues and questions and subject them to interrogation from different methodological perspectives using internationally acclaimed experts in the field A key focus in the collection is on British and North American perspectives Recent trends and debates about the organisation and conduct of intelligence provide key themes for exploration Underpinning several contributions is the recognition that intelligence faces a conflict of ideas as much as practices and threats This book was published as a special issue of Intelligence and National Security Romanian Counterinsurgency and its Global Context, 1944-1962 Andrei Miroiu, 2016-07-15 This book analyses the nationalist rebellion which emerged in Romania following the Second World War The first two decades after the end of the war were times of rebellion in imperial peripheries Armed movements sometimes communist but nearly always nationalist in orientation rose in opposition to retreating or advancing imperial powers One such armed revolt took place in Romania pitting nationalist partisans against a communist government This book is an analysis of how the authorities crushed this rebellion set in the context of parallel campaigns fought in Europe and the Third World It focuses on population control through censorship propaganda and deportations It analyses military operations particularly patrols checkpoints ambushes and informed strikes Intelligence operations are also discussed with an emphasis on recruiting informants on interrogation torture and infiltration Bullets brains and barbed wire not hearts and minds approaches crushed internal rebels in post 1945 campaigns A History of Modern Urban Operations Gregory Fremont-Barnes, 2019-11-21 This book investigates the complexities of modern urban operations a particularly difficult and costly method of fighting and one that is on the rise Contributors examine the lessons that emerge from a range of historical case studies from nineteenth century precedents to the Battle of Shanghai Stalingrad German town clearance Mandalay and Berlin during World War II and from the Battle of Algiers to the Battle for Fallujah in 2004 Each case study illuminates the features that differentiate urban operations from fighting in open areas and the factors that contribute to success and failure The volume concludes with reflections on the key challenges of urban warfare in the twenty first century and beyond The Battle for Algeria Jennifer Johnson, 2016 The Battle for Algeria offers a new interpretation of the Algerian War 1954-1962 that highlights the social dimensions of the National Liberation Front's winning strategy specifically its health care and humanitarianism programs which targeted the local and international arenas and directly contributed to Algerian sovereignty France and the French Harry Roderick Kedward, 2006-02-02 In this exhaustively researched narrative history Rod Kedward brings to life the great and often terrible dramas of modern France the two cataclysmic wars the Algerian disaster the student and worker revolt of 1968 but also explores the special worlds of the workplace immigration minorities the role of women and the relationship of politics to place everyday life and collective memory BOOK JACKET Black Soldiers in the Rhodesian Army M. T. Howard, 2024-02-08 Draws from original interviews to provide insight into why thousands of black soldiers fought loyally and effectively for the Rhodesian Army An Oral History of the Portuguese Colonial War Ângela Campos, 2017-02-23 This oral history of ex combatants of the Portuguese colonial war places the reader face to face with the men who were conscripted to fight the last and bloodiest of the West's colonial wars in Africa namely in Angola Mozambique and Guinea Bissau then Portuguese Guinea between 1961 and 1974 At the forefront of this work are the lived experiences of a wide range of Portuguese veterans framed by broader insights about the post war public memory of this event in Portugal Moving away from stereotypical and polarized images of these ex combatants An Oral History of the Portuguese Colonial War Conscripted Generation explores the memories and consequences of this war for these veterans and their society Seeking to understand why Portuguese ex combatants often feel neglected and historically unrecognised this book presents a thorough portrait of a continually shifting and at times paradoxical individual and collective remembrance process The Franco-Algerian War through a Twenty-First Century Lens Nicole Beth Wallenbrock,2020-02-20 The Franco Algerian War 1954 62 remains a powerful international symbol of Third Worldism and the finality of Empire Through its nuanced analysis of the war s depiction in film The Franco Algerian War through a Twenty First Century Lens locates an international reckoning with history that both condemns and exonerates past generations Algerian and French production partnerships such as Hors la loi Outside the Law Rachid Bouchareb 2010 and Loubia Hamra Bloody Beans Narimane Mari 2013 are one of several ways citizens collaborate to unearth a shared history and its legacy Nicole Beth Wallenbrock probes cinematic discourse to shed new light on topics including the media revelation of torture and atomic bomb tests immigration s role in the evolution of the war s meaning and the complex relationship of the intertwined film cultures The first chapter summarizes the Franco Algerian War in 20th century film thus grounding subsequent queries with Algeria s moudjahid or freedom fighter films and the French new wave s perceived disinterest in the conflict This book is an invaluable resource for scholars seeking to understand cinema s role in re evaluating war and reconstructing international memory
