Landmarks in Modern Latin American Fiction (Routledge Revivals) Philip Swanson,2015-08-11 In the 1960s there occurred amongst Latin American writers a sudden explosion of literary activity known as the Boom It marked an increase in the production and availability of innovative and experimental novels But the Boom of the 1960s should not be taken as the only flowering of Latin American fiction for such novels dubbed new novels were being written in the 1940s and 1950s as well as in the 1970s and 1980s In this edited collection first published in 1990 Philip Swanson charts the development of Latin American fiction throughout the twentieth century He assesses the impact of the new novel on Latin American literature and follows its growth Nine key texts are analysed by contributors including works by the big four of the Boom Fuentes Cort zar Garcia M rquez and Vargas Llosa This book will be of interest to critics and teachers of Latin American literature and will be useful too as supplementary reading for students of Spanish and Hispanic Studies It will also serve as a helpful introduction to those new to Latin American fiction París 1924-1933 Miguel Ángel Asturias, Amos Segala, 1988 Pocas veces la relación entre un escritor y su patria alcanza un grado de contradicción tan profundo y desgarrador como el que tuvo la que se estableció entre Guatemala y Miguel Ángel Asturias Para conocer la verdadera dimensión del conflicto es indispensable la lectura de los artículos y crónicas periodísticas de su juventud que operan como un brevesamo de la desgarradura original que se manifestó ya claramente desde el exilio del escritor en 1954 Este libro reúne esos escritos

Cultural Antagonism and the Crisis of Reality in Latin America Horacio Legrás, 2022-10-06 For most of the 20th century Latin American literature and art have contested political and cultural projects of homogenization of a manifestly diverse continent Cultural Antagonism and the Crisis of Reality in Twentieth Century Latin America explores literary and humanist experimentations and questions of gender race and ethnicity as well as the contradictions of capitalist development that belie such homogenization by reconfiguring the sense of the real in Latin America Covering four key geographical areas Mexico the Caribbean Central America and the Andes every chapter delves into a question that has been central to the humanities in the last 20 years Indigenous world views gender race neo liberalism and visual culture Legrás illuminates these issues with a thorough consideration of the theoretical questions inherent to how new identities disrupt the imaginary stability of social formations

The Emergence of the Latin American Novel Gordon Brotherston, 1977-09-29 This survey concentrates on the modern novel of Spanish speaking America Dr Brotherston starts with a long and suggestive introduction on the general topic settings and people showing the growth of a sense of Latin American identity in the fiction produced in the continent as a whole There follow detailed studies of individual modern novels taken as representative of their time their author their country and the continent A conclusion surveys and sums up these themes The analytical studies of important and representative novels related to each other in theme and preoccupation the substantial quotations in English the notes and the useful bibliography make this a book which gives students and other readers a well considered introduction to the Spanish American fiction of this century Spanish American Literature in the Age of Machines and Other Essays Ángel Rama, 2023-09-01

Ángel Rama was among the most prominent Latin American literary and cultural critics of the twentieth century This volume brings together and makes available in English for the first time some of his most influential writings from the 1960s up until his death in 1983 Meticulously curated and translated by Jos Eduardo González and Timothy R Robbins Spanish American Literature in the Age of Machines and Other Essays will give readers a new deeper appreciation of how Rama's views on Latin American literary history reflect the dynamic between the region and the rest of the world His rich meditations on the relation between narrative technique social class and group behavior from the point of view of the periphery of capitalism make this volume an important contribution to the study of world literature La

Bodies, Hybrid Tongues Julian Vigo, 2010 This book reconsiders the body in literature and makes a case for visual representation as a physical and gesticulative domain for rethinking the constructions of gender nationalism and sexuality. Examining literary production from the eleventh century until the present, the author argues that the body in contemporary North Africa and Latin America serves as a physical and symbolic terrain upon which sexual, textual, national, racial, and linguistic identities are vectored and through which postcolonial and hegemonic antagonisms of power and identity are resolved. Rather than embracing third world identity as a residual repository of western thought, colonization, and linguistic infusion, the author suggests that the paradigm of cultural identity in the Maghreb and Latin America is best understood through an examination of the emergent corporeal articulations of subjectivity prevalent in these literatures and visual cultures. The text examines the body as a critical landscape through which the various discourses of nationhood, gender, and sexuality converge in order to construct a reading of the social that neither amasses subjectivity as singular under the rubric of the third world nor couches the other within static notions of gendered, sexual, or racial identities. Une domestique dissipée Christoph Singler, 2001
