Alice Lakwena And The Holy Spirits War In Northern Uganda 1986 97:

Alice Lakwena and the Holy Spirits Heike Behrend, 2000-03-31 In August 1986 Alice Auma a young Acholi woman in northern Uganda proclaiming herself under the orders of a Christian spirit named Lakwena raised an army called the Holy Spirit Mobile Forces With it she waged a war against perceived evil not only an external enemy represented by the National Resistance Army of the government but internal enemies in the form of impure soldiers witches and sorcerers She came very close to her goal of overthrowing the government but was defeated and fled to Kenya This book provides a unique view of Alice's movement based on interviews with its members and including their own writings examining their perceptions of the threat of external and internal evil It concludes with an account of the successor movements into which Alice's forces fragmented and which still are active in the civil wars of the Sudan and Uganda Alice Lakwena and the Holy Spirits

Heike. Translated by Cohen Behrend, 1999 The Lord's Resistance Army Tim Allen, Koen Vlassenroot, 2010-07-08 The Lord's Resistance Army is Africa's most persistent and notorious terrorist group Led by the mysterious Joseph Kony it has committed a series of horrific human rights abuses including massacres and mutilations Since the mid 1980s it has abducted tens of thousands of people including large numbers of children forced to train as fighters The IC in 2005 issued warrants for Kony and his top commanders and the United States is backing a military campaign against the group But the LRA survives continuing to inspire both fascination and fear Authoritative but provocative The Lord's Resistance Army provides the most comprehensive analysis of the group available From the roots of the violence to the oppressive responses of the Ugandan government and the failures of the international community this collection looks at this most brutal of conflicts in fascinating depth and includes a remarkable first hand interview with Kony himself Empires of the Weak J. C. Sharman, 2020-11-10

What accounts for the rise of the state the creation of the first global system and the dominance of the West The conventional answer asserts that superior technology tactics and institutions forged by Darwinian military competition gave Europeans a decisive advantage in war over other civilizations from 1500 onward In contrast Empires of the Weak argues that Europeans actually had no general military superiority in the early modern era J C Sharman shows instead that European expansion from the late fifteenth to the late eighteenth centuries is better explained by deference to strong Asian and African polities disease in the Americas and maritime supremacy earned by default because local land oriented polities were largely indifferent to war and trade at sea Europeans were overawed by the mighty Eastern empires of the day which pioneered key military innovations and were the greatest early modern conquerors Against the view that the Europeans won for all time Sharman contends that the imperialism of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries was a relatively transient and anomalous development in world politics that concluded with Western losses in various insurgencies If the twenty first century is to be dominated by non Western powers like China this represents a return to the norm for the modern era Bringing a revisionist perspective to the idea that Europe ruled the world due to military dominance Empires of the Weak demonstrates that the rise of the West was an exception in the prevailing world order Weapon of Peace Nilay Saiya, 2018-08-01 Religious terrorism poses a significant challenge for many countries around the world Extremists who justify violence in God's name can be found in every religious tradition and attacks perpetrated by faith based militants have increased dramatically over the past three decades Given the reality of religious terrorism today it would seem counterintuitive that the best weapon against violent religious extremism would be for countries and societies to allow for the free practice of religion yet this is precisely what this book argues Weapon of Peace investigates the link between terrorism and the repression of religion both from a historical perspective and against contemporary developments in the Middle East and elsewhere Drawing upon a range of different case studies and quantitative data Saiya makes the case that the suppression and not the expression of religion leads to violence and extremism and that safeguarding religious freedom is both a moral and strategic imperative Biographies in the Global South Gabriele Rosenthal, Artur Bogner, 2017-08-17 Lange hat sich die soziologische Biografieforschung ganz berwiegend auf Menschen konzentriert die im globalen Norden leben Dieser Band ist ein Beitrag zu den j ngeren Bem hungen diese viel zu enge Perspektive aufzuheben Er zielt auf die Lebensgeschichten und Lebensverl ufe von Menschen aus Afrika und dem Nahen Osten Dabei stehen die biografischen und sozio geschichtlichen Verflechtungen mit anderen Menschen und anderen gesellschaftlichen Gruppierungen im Mittelpunkt

Preaching Prevention Lydia Boyd, 2015-10-29 Preaching Prevention examines the controversial U S President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief PEPFAR initiative to abstain and be faithful as a primary prevention strategy in Africa This ethnography of the born again Christians who led the new anti AIDS push in Uganda provides insight into both what it means for foreign governments to export approaches to care and treatment and the ways communities respond to and repurpose such projects By examining born again Christians support of Uganda's controversial 2009 Anti Homosexuality Bill the book's final chapter explores the enduring tensions surrounding the message of personal accountability heralded by U S policy makers Preaching Prevention is the first to examine the cultural reception of PEPFAR in Africa Lydia Boyd asks What are the consequences when individual responsibility and autonomy are valorized in public health initiatives and those values are at odds with the existing cultural context Her book investigates the cultures of the U S and Ugandan evangelical communities and how the flow of U S directed monies influenced Ugandan discourses about sexuality and personal agency It is a pioneering examination of a global health policy whose legacies are still unfolding Women and Islamic Revival in a West African Town Adeline Masquelier, 2009-10-02 In the small town of Dogondoutchi Niger Malam Awal a charismatic Sufi preacher was recruited by local Muslim leaders to denounce the practices of reformist Muslims Malam Awal's message has been viewed as a mixed blessing by Muslim women who have seen new definitions of Islam and Muslim practice impact their place and role in society This study follows the career of Malam Awal and documents the engagement of women in the religious debates that are refashioning their everyday lives Adeline Masquelier reveals how these women have had to define

Islam on their own terms especially as a practice that governs education participation in prayer domestic activities wedding customs and who wears the veil and how Masquelier's richly detailed narrative presents new understandings of what it means to be a Muslim woman in Africa today How God Became African Gerrie ter Haar, 2009-08-20 While African Christianity has wholeheartedly appropriated the symbols scriptures and traditions of historic Christianity elsewhere it has also built on the rich history of the continent's indigenous spiritual beliefs (Re)membering Kenya Vol 1 Mbũgwa wa Mũngai, G. M. Gona, 2010 One of the critical questions that Kenyans have continuously asked is what went wrong in January and February 2008 with the peace they had hitherto enjoyed There have not been readily available answers to this fundamental question The collection of papers presented in this book attempt to provide as a starting point possible explanations for the events of early 2008 including key background issues in Kenyan history since pre independence times Based on a series of public lectures titled Re membering Kenya organized by the volume editors together with Twaweza Communications and sponsored by the Goethe Institut Kenya the Institute for International Education and The Ford Foundation the lecture series became a way of trying to get scholars to engage meaningfully with the Kenyan public on critical matters pertaining to their nationhood even if this entailed first calling to question the lie about the very ideas and practices upon which that nationhood is assumed to stand A key lesson drawn from the unfolding discussions at the Goethe Institut Kenya was that the 2007 elections debacle was merely the cusp of momentous crises to do with among other issues governance law and order Parliament's abdication of its role in ensuring accountability from the Executive dilemmas of identity and socio economic marginality The book is the first of three volumes under the Re membering Kenya series whose overall objective is to cast some new light on the various trajectories that informed the happenings of January 2008 The present volume brings together some of the best interpretative writing and suggestions on pertinent questions past and present ranging from the architecture of Kenya's ethnicity Kenyanness generational competition socialization and violence iconic representations of identity to the ongoing debate on the efficacy of the Truth Justice and Reconciliation Commission TJRC It is hoped that the issues debated during the public lectures and documented herein will spur further discussions in other spaces within civil society organizations among activists and in newspapers where the public might continue to expand their thinking on the complex task of Re membering Kenya The Anthropology of Religious Charisma C. Lindholm, 2013-12-18 According to Max Weber charisma is opposed to bureaucratic order This collection reveals the limits of that formula The contributors show how charisma is a part of cultural frameworks while retaining its ecstatic character among American and Italian Catholics Syrian Sufis Taiwanese Buddhists Hassidic Jews and Amazonian shamans among others The Revolutionary City Mark R. What Kind of Friendship? Tom Wilson, 2015-09-23 We sometimes say that Muslims and Christians are part of Abraham's family but while you can choose your friends you cannot choose your family In a world filled with conflict can Christians be friends with Muslims When it comes to medical ethics the economy the environment media the arts the place of women in society political engagement do Christians and Muslims have any views in common Utilizing the writings of respected Muslim reformer Tariq Ramadan Tom Wilson asks questions about what kind of friendship Christians and Muslims might have While we disagree as to who Jesus is or how we can be saved can we agree in our concern for a fairer more just society Can we work together for the common good as friends who disagree but remain respectful

Politics of Religious Change on the Upper Guinea Coast Ramon Sarro, 2008-12-18 Winner of the 2009 Amaury Talbot Prize for African Anthropology The Politics of Religious Change on the Upper Guinea Coast offers an in depth analysis of an iconoclastic religious movement initiated by a Muslim preacher among coastal Baga farmers in the French colonial period With an ethnographic approach that listens as carefully to those who suffered iconoclastic violence as to those who wanted to get rid of custom this work discusses the extent to which iconoclasm produces a rupture of religious knowledge and identity and analyses its relevance in the making of modern nations and citizens The book will appeal to a wide range of readers particularly those with an interest in the anthropology of religion iconoclasm the history and anthropology of West Africa or the politics of heritage This book examines the historical complexity of the interface between Islam tradition religions and Christianity in west Africa and how this interface links with dramatic political changes It gives a detailed ethnographic approach through which such complex history is unveiled and analysed It presents a dialogue between the field findings a long tradition of anthropology and the most recent anthropological debates

Worlds of Power Stephen Ellis, Gerrie ter Haar, 2004 One cannot understand the politics of the present without taking religious thought seriously In Africa religious belief has a huge impact on politics from the top of society to the bottom Religious ideas show what people actually think about the world and how to deal with it Ellis and ter Haar maintain that the specific content of religious thought has to be mastered if we are to grasp the political significance of religion in Africa today but their book also informs our understanding of the relationship between religion and political practice in general Practicing Anthropology in Development Processes Floriana Ciccodicola, Paolo Palmeri, 2012

Justice in Conflict Mark Kersten, 2016 What happens when the international community simultaneously pursues peace and justice in response to ongoing conflicts What are the effects of interventions by the International Criminal Court ICC on the wars in which the institution intervenes Is holding perpetrators of mass atrocities accountable a help or hindrance to conflict resolution This book offers an in depth examination of the effects of interventions by the ICC on peace justice and conflict processes The peace versus justice debate wherein it is argued that the ICC has either positive or negative effects on peace has spawned in response to the Court's propensity to intervene in conflicts as they still rage This book is a response to and a critical engagement with this debate Building on theoretical and analytical insights from the fields of conflict and peace studies conflict resolution and negotiation theory the book develops a novel analytical framework to study the Court's effects on peace justice and conflict processes This framework is applied to two cases Libya and northern Uganda Drawing on extensive fieldwork the core of the book examines the empirical effects of the ICC on each case The book also examines why the ICC has the effects that it does delineating the relationship between the interests of states that refer situations to the Court and the ICC's institutional interests arguing that the negotiation of these interests determines which side of a conflict the ICC targets and thus its effects on peace justice and conflict processes While the effects of the ICC's interventions are ultimately and inevitably mixed the book makes a unique contribution to the empirical record on ICC interventions and presents a novel and sophisticated means of studying analyzing and understanding the effects of the Court's interventions in Libya northern Uganda and beyond
