Alice Springs Its History The People Who Made It:

The Cambridge Legal History of Australia Peter Cane, Lisa Ford, Mark McMillan, 2022-08-18 Featuring contributions from leading lawyers historians and social scientists this path breaking volume explores encounters of laws people and places in Australia since 1788 Its chapters address three major themes the development of Australian settler law in the shadow of the British Empire the interaction between settler law and First Nations people and the possibility of meaningful encounter between First laws and settler legal regimes in Australia Several chapters explore the limited space provided by Australian settler law for respectful encounters particularly in light of the High Court s particular concerns about the fragility of Australian sovereignty Tracing the development of a uniquely Australian law and the various contexts that shaped it this volume is concerned with the complexity plurality and ambiguity of Australia s legal history Australia's Muslim Cameleers Philip Jones, Anna Kenny, 2010 Between 1870 and 1920 as many as 2000 cameleers and 20 000 camels arrived in Australia from Afghanistan and northern India Australia s Muslim Cameleers is a rich pictorial history of these men their way of life and the vital role they played in pioneering transport and communication routes across outback Australia s vast expanses Many of the images and artefacts in this fascinating account are published here for the first time and this new edition contains additions to the biographical listing of more than 1200 cameleers The Cambridge Encyclopedia of Hunters and Gatherers Richard B. Lee, Richard Heywood Daly, Richard Daly, 1999-12-16 Hunting and gathering is humanity s first and most successful adaptation Until 12 000 years ago all humanity lived this way Surprisingly in an increasingly urbanized and technological world dozens of hunting and gathering societies have persisted and thrive worldwide resilient in the face of change their ancient ways now combined with the trappings of modernity The Encyclopedia is divided into three parts The first contains case studies by leading experts of over fifty hunting and gathering peoples in seven major world regions There is a general introduction and an archaeological overview for each region Part II contains thematic essays on prehistory social life gender music and art health religion and indigenous knowledge The final part surveys the complex histories of hunter gatherers encounters with colonialism and the state and their ongoing struggles for dignity and human rights as part of the worldwide movement of indigenous peoples Ageing and Social Policy in Australia Allan Borowski, Sol Encel, Elizabeth Ozanne, 1997-11-17 Industrialised countries worldwide have for years been confronting the prospect of a steadily ageing population This book first published in 1997 reflects the breadth of research into gerontology and analyses the major themes and issues in the area of ageing and social policy in both an Australian context and from an international comparative perspective Topics discussed include unemployment education and housing for the aged Added to this is the contemporary influence of multiculturalism and the challenge it poses to policies and programs that must cater for a growing diversity in the ageing population A special focus is given to the situation of women and Aboriginal Australians and the specific structural disadvantages they face This book is essential reading for students and policy makers in sociology social and public policy gerontology and public health Reconciliation and Colonial Power Damien Short,2016-04-08 In 1991 Australia instigated a national reconciliation project between indigenous and non indigenous people Despite being the longest running reconciliation process there has been no authoritative study of Australian reconciliation to date Reconciliation and Colonial Power is the first book to analyze Australian reconciliation as a process filling a significant gap in theoretical and empirical understanding Damien Short offers a sociological interpretation of this process which suggests that rather than being a genuine attempt at atonement Australian reconciliation is perhaps better understood as the latest stage in the colonial project He considers the relevance of acknowledgement and apology restitution and rights nation building and state legitimacy to the reconciliation project This work compliments the burgeoning literature on reconciliation theory and practice and provides fertile material for comparisons with reconciliation processes in other countries such as Chile and South Africa White Flour, White Power Tim Rowse,2002-07-11 This cultural study of rationing in Central Australia develops a new narrative of colonisation The Bombing of Darwin Alan Tucker,2011-03-01 More bombs exploded and within seconds several ships were on fire Japanese planes flew so close to me that I could not only see the red circles painted under their wings but I could see the pilots faces It only took a moment It was a moment that Tom would always remember that morning of 19 February 1942 when everything changed changed from peace to war The Handbook of Contemporary Indigenous Architecture Elizabeth Grant,Kelly Greenop,Albert L. Refiti,Daniel J. Glenn,2018-06-26 This Handbook provides the first comprehensive international overview of significant contemporary Indigenous architecture practice and discourse showcasing established and emerging Indigenous authors and practitioners from Australia Aotearoa New Zealand the Pacific Islands Canada USA and other countries It captures the breadth and depth of contemporary work in the field establishes the historical and present context of the work and highlights important future directions for research and practice The topics covered include Indigenous placemaking identity cultural regeneration and Indigenous knowledges The book brings together eminent and emerging scholars and practitioners to discuss and compare major projects and design approaches to reflect on the main issues and debates while enhancing theoretical understandings of contemporary Indigenous architecture The book is an indispensable resource for scholars students policy makers and other professionals seeking to understand the ways in which Indigenous people have a built tradition or aspire to translate their cultures into the built environment It is also an essential reference for academics and practitioners working in the field of the built environment who need up to date knowledge of current practices and discourse on Indigenous peoples and their architecture Broken Circles Anna Haebich,2000-11-01 This major work reveals the dark heart of the history of the Stolen Generations in Australia It shows that from the earliest times of European colonization Aboriginal Australians experienced the trauma of loss and separation as their children were abducted enslaved institutionalized and culturally remodeled Providing a moving and comprehensive account of this tragic history this study covers all Australian colonies states and territories The analysis spans 200 years of white occupation and intervention from the earliest seizure of Aboriginal children through their systematic state removal and incarceration and on to the harsh treatment of families under the assimilation policies of the 1950s and 1960s The resistance struggle and achievements of Aboriginal people in defending their communities regaining their rights and mending the broken circles of family life provides a compelling parallel story of determination and courage The Aranda's Pepa Anna Kenny,2013-12-19 The German missionary Carl Strehlow 1871 1922 had a deep ethnographic interest in Aboriginal Australian cosmology and social life which he documented in his 7 volume work Die Aranda und Loritja St mme in Zentral Australien that remains unpublished in English In 1913 Marcel Mauss called his collection of sacred songs and myths an Australian Rig Veda This immensely rich corpus based on a lifetime on the central Australian frontier is barely known in the English speaking world and is the last great body of early Australian ethnography that has not yet been built into the world of Australian anthropology and its intellectual history The German psychological and hermeneutic traditions of anthropology that developed outside of a British Australian intellectual world were alternatives to 19th century British scientism The intellectual roots of early German anthropology reached back to Johann Gottfried Herder 1744 1803 the founder of German historical particularism who rejected the concept of race as well as the French dogma of the uniform development of civilisation Instead he recognised unique sets of values transmitted through history and maintained that cultures had to be viewed in terms of their own development and purpose Thus humanity was made up of a great diversity of ways of life language being one of its main manifestations It is this tradition that led to a concept of cultures in the plural History and the Landscape in Central Australia David Carment,1991 Aspects of the historical geography of Central Australia brief historical context and description of Aboriginal regional occupation Aboriginal sites of significance mentioned contact history sites description physical layout and history of Hermannsburg and Phillip Creek Manga Manga chapters on pastoral homesteads wells on north south stock route mining at Arltunga and Tennant Creek urbanisation of Alice Springs cultural resource managment in Central Australia Great Walks of the World D. jurisdictions Keenan argues that these spaces consist of networks of relations that revolve around belonging not just belonging between subject and object as property is traditionally understood but also the less explored relation of belonging between the part and the whole This book therefore offers a conceptually useful way of analysing a wide range of socio legal issues It will be of relevance to those working in the area of property and legal geography but also to those with more general interests in socio legal studies social and political theory postcolonial studies critical race studies and gender and sexuality studies

Critical Systemic Praxis for Social and Environmental Justice Janet McIntyre-Mills, 2012-12-06 The book develops a practical approach to public policy issues that have continued to be intractable because of a lack of emphasis on transcultural understanding Sustained examples help to increase the readability and the accessibility of theory and methodology The key themes address the issue that Management needs to be more systemic Critical Systemic Praxis is the process whereby we find ways to work across discipline areas and sectoral areas in order to address complex social political economic and environmental problems The way we define and address problems depends on an ability to work with rather than within knowledge areas By introducing the notion of governance we can extend traditional management from an organisational context to an inter organisational context and locate governance as the goal for sustainable social and environmental justice The core aspects of praxis are Respectful listening and dialogue to set up appropriate contexts for participatory design Participatory designs based on participatory action research to map tacit and explicit knowledge of participants professional and ordinary citizens Strategic decision making across discipline areas cultural contexts and knowledge areas Action learning to transfer the policy and practice learnings Mainstreaming the approach to governance in the social political economic and environmental sectors The book develops a systemic approach to public policy issues Examples are used throughout to exemplify theory The integrated approach to policy and practice is ideally suited to addressing the socio economic and environmental issues
