Cuba and the Fall Eduardo González, 2010-08-05 The literature of Cuba argues Eduardo González in this new book takes on quite different features depending on whether one is looking at it from the inside or from the outside a view that in turn is shaped by official political culture and the authors it sanctions or by those authors and artists who exist outside state policies and cultural politics González approaches this issue by way of two twentieth century writers who are central to the canon of gay homoerotic expression and sensibility in Cuban culture José Lezama Lima 1910-1976 and Reinaldo Arenas 1943-1990 Drawing on the plots and characters in their works González develops both a story line and a moral tale revolving around the Christian belief in the fall from grace and the possibility of redemption that bring the writers into a unique and revealing interaction with one another The work of Lezama Lima and Arenas is compared with that of fellow Cuban author Virgilio Piñera 1912-1979 and in a wider context with the non-Cuban writers John Milton Nathaniel Hawthorne William Faulkner John Ruskin and James Joyce to show how their themes get replicated in González's selected Cuban fiction Also woven into this interaction are two contemporary films The Devil's Backbone 2004 and Pan's Labyrinth 2007 whose moral and political themes enhance the ethical values and conflicts of the literary texts Referring to this eclectic gathering of texts Gonz lez charts a cultural course in which Cuba moves beyond the Caribbean and into a latitude uncharted by common words beyond the tyranny of place Tantric Revisionings Geoffrey Samuel,2017-09-08 Tantric Revisionings presents stimulating new perspectives on Hindu and Buddhist religion particularly their Tantric versions in India Tibet or in modern Western societies Geoffrey Samuel adopts an historically and textually informed anthropological approach seeking to locate and understand religion in its social and cultural context The question of the relation between popular folk domestic village shamanic religion and elite literary textual monastic religion forms a recurring theme through these studies Six chapters have not been previously published the previously published studies included are in publications which are difficult to locate outside major specialist libraries

A History of Early Modern Women's Literature Patricia Phillippy,2018-01-18 This book contains expansive multifaceted narrative of British women s literary and textual production from the Reformation to the Restoration Callisto Myth from Ovid to Atwood Kathleen Wall,1988-07-01 Kathleen Wall traces the myth through fifteen works of English American and Canadian literature providing a fresh feminist reading of these narratives Among the works analysed are selections by Margaret Atwood Charlotte Bronte Thomas Hardy and George Elliot The resulting text reveals many facets of the realities of women s experience from the Middle Ages to the twentieth century And ultimately Wall shows rape to be an expression of dominance rather than lust giving increased support to the definition suggested by feminists Wall demonstrates that the Callisto myth is a powerful archetype which illustrates both the victimization of women and their search for independence and autonomy an archetype that should not be ignored by modern women

Music and Orientalism in the British Empire, 1780s-1940s Bennett Zon,2017-07-05 Filling a significant gap in current scholarship the fourteen original essays that make up this volume individually and collectively reflect on the relationship between music and Orientalism in the British Empire over the course of the long nineteenth century The book is in four themed sections Portrayal of the East traces the routes from encounter to representation and restores the Orient to its rightful place in histories of Orientalism Interpreting Concert Music looks at one of the principal forms in which Orientalism could be brought to an eager and largely receptive yet sometimes resistant mass market Words and Music investigates the confluence of musical and Orientalist themes in different genres of writing including criticism fiction and travel writing Finally The Orientalist Stage discusses crucial sites of Orientalist representation music theatre and opera as well as tracing similar phenomena in twentieth century Hindi cinema These final chapters examine the rendering of the East as unachievable and unrecognizable for the consuming gaze of the western spectator

The Matter of Song in Early Modern England Katherine Rebecca Larson,2019 This volume treats early modern song as a musical and embodied practice and considers the implications of reading song not just as lyric text but as a musical phenomenon that is the product of the singing body It draws on a variety of genres from theatre to psalm translations sonnets and lyrics and household drama to courtly masques Performing Site-Specific Theatre A. Birch,J.

Tompkins,2012-10-10 This book investigates the expanding parameters for site specific performance to account for the form s increasing popularity in the twenty first century Leading practitioners and theorists interrogate issues of performance and site to broaden our understanding of the role that place plays in performance and the ways that performance influences it
