Alien Chic Posthumanism And The Other Within:

Alien Chic Neil Badmington, 2004-08-13 From The War of the Worlds Mars Attacks Mission to Mars and Independence Day Neil Badmington explores our relationship with aliens and how thinkers such as Descartes Barthes Freud Lyotard and Derrida have conceptualised what it means to be human and post human What Is Posthumanism? Cary Wolfe, 2013-11-30 What does it mean to think beyond humanism Is it possible to craft a mode of philosophy ethics and interpretation that rejects the classic humanist divisions of self and other mind and body society and nature human and animal organic and technological Can a new kind of humanities posthumanities respond to the redefinition of humanity's place in the world by both the technological and the biological or green continuum in which the human is but one life form among many Exploring how both critical thought along with cultural practice have reacted to this radical repositioning Cary Wolfe one of the founding figures in the field of animal studies and posthumanist theory ranges across bioethics cognitive science animal ethics gender and disability to develop a theoretical and philosophical approach responsive to our changing understanding of ourselves and our world Then in performing posthumanist readings of such diverse works as Temple Grandin's writings Wallace Stevens's poetry Lars von Trier's Dancer in the Dark the architecture of Diller Scofidio and David Byrne and Brian Eno's My Life in the Bush of Ghosts he shows how this philosophical sensibility can transform art and culture For Wolfe a vibrant rigorous posthumanism is vital for addressing questions of ethics and justice language and trans species communication social systems and their inclusions and exclusions and the intellectual aspirations of interdisciplinarity In What Is Posthumanism he carefully distinguishes posthumanism from transhumanism the biotechnological enhancement of human beings and narrow definitions of the posthuman as the hoped for transcendence of materiality In doing so Wolfe reveals that it is humanism not the human in all its embodied and prosthetic complexity that is left behind in posthumanist thought Critical Posthumanism: Cloned, Toxic and Cyborg Bodies in Fiction Pelin Kümbet, 2020-12-25 Focusing on three representation of posthuman bodies as cloned bodies in Kazuo Ishiguro's Never Let Me Go 2005 toxic bodies in Indra Sinha's Animal's People 2007 and cyborg bodies in Justina Robson's Natural History 2004 from the theoretical perspectives of posthuman definition of what it means to be human this study discusses the changing concept of the body In this context the integral and dynamic connection between a human body and the world is of special significance which opens up new possibilities to reconfigure the human body that is no longer conceded separate from the nonhuman world but embodied in it Each of the novels significantly displays the in betweenness of humans by making them interact with chemical substances machines and other nonhuman entities and shows how clear cut distinctions between the human and the nonhuman bodies have collapsed Fantasies of Self-Mourning Ruben Borg, 2019-01-07 In Fantasies of Self Mourning Ruben Borg describes the formal features of a posthuman cyborgian imaginary at work in modernism The book's central claim is that modernism invents the posthuman as a way to think through the contradictions of its historical moment Borg develops a posthumanist critique of the concept of organic life based on comparative readings of Pirandello Woolf Beckett and Flann O'Brien alongside discussions of Alfred Hitchcock Chris Marker B la Tarr Ridley Scott and Mamoru Oshii The argument draws together a cluster of modernist narratives that contemplate the separation of a cybernetic eye from a human body or call for a tearing up of the body understood as a discrete organic unit capable of synthesizing desire and sense perception

Posthumanism Stefan Herbrechter, 2013-08-01 What does it mean to be human today The answer to this question which is as old as the human species itself is becoming less and less certain Current technological developments increasingly erode our traditional humanist reflexes consciousness emotion language intelligence morality humour mortality all these no longer demonstrate the unique character and value of human existence Instead the spectre of the posthuman is now being widely invoked as the inevitable next evolutionary stage that humans are facing Who comes after the human This is the question that posthumanists are taking as their starting point This critical introduction understands posthumanism as a discourse which in principle includes everything that has been and is being said about the figure of the posthuman It outlines the genealogy of the various posthuman scenarios in circulation and engages with their theoretical and philosophical assumptions and social and political implications It does so by connecting the philosophical debate about the future of humanity with a range of texts including examples from new media popular culture science and the media Posthumanism and Deconstructing Arguments Kieran O'Halloran, 2017-04-21 Posthumanism and Deconstructing Arguments Corpora and Digitally driven Critical Analysis presents a new and practical approach in Critical Discourse Studies Providing a data driven and ethically based method for the examination of arguments in the public sphere this ground breaking book Highlights how the reader can evaluate arguments from points of view other than their own Demonstrates how digital tools can be used to generate ethical subjectivities from large numbers of dissenting voices on the world wide web Draws on ideas from posthumanist philosophy as well as from Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari for theorising these subjectivities Showcases a critical deconstructive approach using different corpus linguistic programs such as AntConc WMatrix and Sketchengine Posthumanism and Deconstructing Arguments is essential reading for lecturers and researchers with an interest in critical discourse studies critical thinking corpus linguistics and digital humanities Posthuman Becoming Narratives in Contemporary Anglophone Science Fiction Zhang Na, 2022-09-02 This book explores the integration of narratology with posthumanism by examining a large scope of narratives in science fiction over nearly half a century in a range of major Anglophone countries Based on the rhizome of posthumanism analysis of the posthuman narrative embodiments in selected contemporary Anglophone science fiction it investigates Ursula K Le Guin's The Left Hand of Darkness 1969 Ian Watson's The Jonah Kit 1975 Iain Banks The Bridge 1986 and Richard Powers Galatea 2.2 1995 as exemplifying various aspects of posthuman becoming other The book shows that in the reactive logic of nihilism the becoming other posthuman rather than posing a threat proves to be the companion and savior of human beings whose apocalyptic sacrifice brings back the all too human humanity to the chaotic world of presence Screening the Posthuman Missy Molloy, Pansy Duncan, Claire Henry, 2023 From AI to climate change recent technological ecological and cultural transformations have unsettled established assumptions about the relationship between the human and the more than human world Screening the Posthuman addresses a heterogeneous body of twenty first century films that turn to the figure of the posthuman as a means of exploring this development Through close analyses of films as diverse as Kikyo dir Hirokazu Koreeda 2009 Testro s l lekrol On Body and Soul dir Ildiko Enyedi 2017 and Nomadland dir Chlo Zhao 2020 this wide ranging volume shows that while often identified as the remit of science fiction the posthuman on screen crosses filmic genres national contexts and industrial settings In the process posthuman cinema emphasizes humanity s entanglement in broader biological technological and social worlds and exposes new models of subjectivity community and desire In advancing these arguments Screening the Posthuman draws on scholarship associated with critical posthumanist theory an ongoing project unified by a decentering of the human As the first systematic full length application of this body of scholarship to cinema Screening the Posthuman advocates for a rigorous posthumanist critique that avoids both humanist nostalgia and transhumanist fantasy in its attention to the excitements and anxieties of posthuman experience

Posthumanism and the Massive Open Online Course Jeremy Knox, 2016-01-29 Posthumanism and the Massive Open Online Course critiques the problematic reliance on humanism that pervades online education and the MOOC and explores theoretical frameworks that look beyond these limitations While MOOCs massive open online courses have attracted significant academic and media attention critical analyses of their development have been rare Following an overview of MOOCs and their corporate means of promotion this book unravels the tendencies in research and theory that continue to adopt normative views of user access participation and educational space in order to offer alternatives to the dominant understandings of community and authenticity in education Tech Anxiety Christopher A. Sims, 2013-06-04 This project examines the representation of anxiety about technology that humans feel when encountering artificial intelligences in four science fiction novels Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep Neuromancer 2001 A Space Odyssey and Cloud Atlas By exploring this anxiety something profound can be revealed about what it means to be a person living in a technologically saturated society While many critical investigations of these novels focus on the dangerous and negative implications of artificial intelligence this work uses Martin Heidegger s later writings on technology to argue that AIs might be more usefully read as catalysts for a reawakening of human thought The Shakespearean International Yearbook Professor Alexa Huang, Professor Stuart John Sillars, Professor Tom Bishop, 2013-11-28 As the guest editor of the special section in this issue points out Macbeth is one of the most frequently performed edited adapted translated and appropriated plays across distances temporal and topographical In both the global range of their writers and in the performances that are their concerns the essays comprising the special section of The Shakespearean International Yearbook Volume 13 demonstrate the play's continuing appeal throughout the world and over time. This issue reveals with great subtlety and force the power of the play in the eyes of scholars and creative artists beyond the boundaries of the Anglo-American critical frame focusing on the play as it is mediated through cultural and belief systems very different from those in which it is most often seen, read or studied. The volume also includes essays on Shakespeare and The King's Speech and on recent books and digital databases in the field. The Shakespearean International Yearbook continues to provide an annual survey of important developments and topics of concern in contemporary Shakespeare studies across the world. Among the contributors to this volume are Shakespearean scholars from Hungary, India, Italy, Malta, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, the UK and the US.

An Introduction to Literature, Criticism and Theory Andrew Bennett, Nicholas Royle, 2023-03-23. Lively, original and highly readable. An Introduction to Literature, Criticism and Theory is the essential guide to literary studies. Starting at The Beginning and concluding with The End, chapters range from the familiar such as Character, Narrative and The Author to the more unusual such as Secrets, Pleasure and Ghosts. Now in its sixth edition, Bennett and Royle's classic textbook successfully illuminates complex ideas by engaging directly with literary works so that a reading of Jane Eyre opens up ways of thinking about racial difference, for example, while Chaucer, Monty Python and Hilary Mantel are all invoked in a discussion of literature and laughter. The sixth edition has been revised and updated throughout. In addition, four new chapters, Literature, Loss, Human and Migrant, engage with exciting recent developments in literary studies. As well as fully up-to-date further reading sections at the end of each chapter, the book contains a comprehensive bibliography and an invaluable glossary of key literary terms. A breath of fresh air in a field that can often seem dry and dauntingly theoretical, this book will open the reader's eyes to the exhilarating possibilities of reading and studying literature.

Disability and the Posthuman Stuart Murray, 2020. Disability and the Posthuman analyses cultural representations and deployments of disability as they interact with posthumanist theories of embodied technologies. Working across texts from contemporary writing and film, it argues that there are exciting, productive possibilities and subversive potentials in the dialogue between disability and posthumanism when read as generating sustainable yet radical critical spaces.

Out-of-Body Experiences Samantha Treasure, 2025-05-01. This illuminating guide investigates the incredible phenomena of out-of-body experiences, including why they happen, how to make sense of them, as well as how to pursue or avoid these experiences. Breaking free from the usual template of astral projection manual or personal account, this book takes an eclectic approach, weaving together anthropology, science, spirituality and fascinating accounts. It takes a neutral and holistic approach while refusing to shy away from the stranger aspects of this phenomena. This includes fieldwork with Eckankar, a new religious movement; interviews with Korean and Siberian shamans; participation in neuroscience experiments; a year interviewing alien contactees; and attendance at various workshops, retreats and lectures that are increasingly marketed within the growing spiritual marketplace. Based on interviews the author has conducted since 2015, the book will also explore how astral projection changes over the course of an episode or lifetime taking into consideration generational cultural and biological differences For example utilising her background in medical anthropology Samantha Treasure explores the links between OBEs and sleep paralysis epilepsy and Charles Bonnet Syndrome interviewing both experiencers and specialists This book will also aim to reclaim OBEs from their growing commodification within social media and the wellness industry and will challenge definitions that privilege certain types of experience or narratives While including evidence for their potential as a healing or spiritual tool the author will also include the voices of experiencers and researchers who think otherwise exploring their rationale while avoiding either sugar coating or fear mongering This is the definitive guide to this fascinating phenomenon

The Cambridge Companion to Literature and the Posthuman Bruce Clarke,Manuela Rossini,2017 This book gathers diverse critical treatments from fifteen scholars of the posthuman and posthumanism together in a single volume

Science-fiction Studies ,2005

War on the Human Konstantinos Blatanis,Theodora Tsimpouki,2017-05-11 The essays in this collection explore the question of the human both as a contested concept and as it relates to and functions within the wider global conjuncture The authors explore the theoretical underpinnings of the term human inviting the reader to reflect upon the contemporary human condition to identify opportunities and threats in the changes ahead and to determine what aspects of our species we should abandon or strive to maintain The volume approaches these ideas from a myriad of perspectives but the authors are united in their abstention from rejecting humanism outright or indeed fully endorsing posthumanism s teleological narrative of accelerated progress and perfectability Instead the authors argue that the term human itself is better understood as a concept perpetually undergoing revision and is necessarily subject to scrutiny The contributors here are thus concerned with investigating the following questions What does it mean to be human or to have a self What is the current place or status of the human in the contemporary world As technology is increasingly used to modify our bodies and minds to what extent should we alter and how can we improve our very understanding of human nature The authors contend that literature is the art form best placed to answer these questions In its dynamism and discursiveness literature has the capacity to both reflect dominant discourses and ideologies as well as to generate and even anticipate social change to critique and refine conventional ideas and existing cultural modes and to envision new possibilities for the future The human and its literary representation in other words are inherently intertwined

Cy-Borges Stefan Herbrechter,Ivan Callus,2009 Cy Borges provides radically new posthumanist readings of such established Borgesian fictions as The Aleph The Library of Babel Funes the Memorious The Garden of Forking Paths and The Circular Ruins They will be equally illuminating to readers of Hispanic and world literature as to students of critical and cultural theory and anybody who is fascinated with the idea of the posthuman and posthumanism

BOOK JACKET

Terror and the Cinematic Sublime Todd A. Comer,Lloyd Isaac Vayo,2013-01-30 This collection considers film in the aftermath of September 11 2001 Eleven essayists address Hollywood movies indie film and post cinematic media including theatrical films by directors such as Steven Spielberg Darren Aronofsky

Quentin Tarantino and Spike Lee and post cinematic works by Wafaa Bilal Douglas Gordon and Peter Tscherkassky among others All of the essays are written with an eye to what may be the central concept of our time the sublime The sublime that which can be thought but not represented the unrepresentable provides a ready tool for analyses of trauma horror catastrophe and apocalypse the military industrial complex the end of humanism and the limits of freedom Such essays take the pulse of our cultural moment while also providing the reader with a sense of the nature of the sublime in critical work and how it continues to evolve conceptually in the 21st century Demonic Bodies and the Dark Ecologies of Early Christian Culture

Travis W. Proctor, 2022 Demonic Bodies and the Dark Ecologies of Early Christian Culture analyzes how ancient Christians constructed the Christian body through its relations to demonic adversaries through case studies of New Testament texts Gnostic treatises and early Christian church fathers e g Ignatius of Antioch Clement of Alexandria and Tertullian of Carthage This study demonstrates that the formation of early Christian cultures was part of the shaping of broader Christian ecosystems where nonhuman entities like demons played important roles in configuring Christians experience of their bodies and surrounding environments
