BANYON,2007-07 The title Layers suggests that a complexity exists in human nature Therapists often refer to the therapy process as peeling the onion Although we may establish a sense of someone or form a first impression of them the truth is that people are complicated and it requires time numerous observations and a variety of interactions to begin to grasp the who of who they are Deep level understanding must unfold like a rose You can not rush that natural process either Having said this do not be shocked when someone you think you know fully someone who you consider to be quite predictable shows you some aspect of them selves that changes everything It happens So why risk entering and maintaining relationships at all The answer is basic really We were not each given our own little island We connect bond and care for one another because it as important as breathing We forgive much in love yet some things are intolerable unacceptable and yes unforgivable such as Abuse Jen s story is a classic tale of the process of peeling that onion leading to the core and the discovery of a sickness so great that the only response possible was to escape An intelligent woman a professional therapist herself was still conned as she could only see the outer layers for far too long The how and the why are explored in depth the recognition and awareness revealed and the strategies and skills to survive are explained in a common sense manner Self care techniques the Boundary setting process and Assertive communication skills are offered to the reader both in Jen s story and in the educational component of the text Let the honesty humor and compassion guide you through the process toward understanding

Remember Who you are Talking Back Alejandra Dubcovsky, 2023-01-01 A pathbreaking look at Native women of the early South who defined power and defied authority An artful powerful book A substantial contribution to our knowledge of women in the so called forgotten centuries of European colonialism in the southeast Malinda Maynor Lowery author of The Lumbee Indians A remarkable book Alejandra Dubcovsky pursued relentless research to uncover the histories of women previously unseen even unnamed As Dubcovsky shows they had names they had families they had lives that mattered The historical landscape is transformed by their presence Lisa Brooks author of Our Beloved Kin Historian Alejandra Dubcovsky tells a story of war slavery loss remembrance and the women whose resilience and resistance transformed the colonial South In exploring their lives she rewrites early American history challenging the established male centered narrative Dubcovsky reconstructs the lives of Native women Timucua Apalachee Chacato and Guale to show how they made claims to protect their livelihoods bodies and families Through the stories of the Native cacica who demanded her authority be recognized the elite Spanish woman who turned her dowry and household into a source of independent power the Floridiana who slapped a leading Native man in the town square and the Black woman who ran a successful business at the heart of a Spanish town Dubcovsky reveals the formidable women who claimed and used their power shaping the history of the early South The Feisty Woman's Breast Cancer Book Elaine Ratner, 1999 Addresses the emotional and psychological challenges of fighting breastcancer refutes popular assumptions about treatment and post treatmentptions and offers guidance for making health decisions Parallel Realities in Russian and Ukrainian Contemporary Cinema Tetyana Shlikhar, 2025-09-30 This book examines Russian and Ukrainian feature films to trace the roots and consequences of the Russian invasion of Ukraine It argues that the cultural war stems from a colonial past where Russia viewed Ukraine as an inferior little brother By examining cinematic representations of the countries shared history this book reveals how Russia has used cinema to promote a strong unified state and patriotic narratives while Ukrainian cinema seeks to overcome colonial trauma and build a distinct national identity It also investigates how cultural memories of Kyivan Rus the Cossacks World War II the Soviet past and the Russian war in Ukraine are depicted differently in Russian and Ukrainian cinema Rape-Revenge Films Alexandra Heller-Nicholas, 2021-04-12 Often considered the lowest depth to which cinema can plummet the rape revenge film is broadly dismissed as fundamentally exploitative and sensational catering only to a demented regressive demographic This second edition ten years after the first continues the assessment of these films and the discourse they provoke Included is a new chapter about women directed rape revenge films a phenomenon that revitalized since MeToo exploded in late 2017 is a filmmaking tradition with a history that transcends a contemporary context Featuring both famous and unknown movies controversial and widely celebrated filmmakers as well as rape revenge cinema from around the world this revised edition demonstrates that diverse and often contradictory treatments of sexual violence exist simultaneously Understanding Ingeborg Bachmann Karen Achberger, 1995 Bachmann her critique of postwar Europe Learning from Other Worlds

Patrick Parrinder,2000-12-01 A collection of new essays on science fiction and utopian literature honouring the work of Darko Suvin the scholar and literary theorist who co founded the journal Science Fiction Studies in 1973 The title of this volume attempts to convey the essence of cognitive estrangement in relation to SF and utopia that by imagining strange worlds we learn to see our own world in a new perspective The contributors have all been influenced by Darko Suvin's belief that the double movement of estrangement and cognition reflects deep structures of human storytelling Learning from otherness is as natural and inevitable a process as the instinct for imitation and representation that Aristotle described in his Poetics Though written from varying perspectives the essays in Learning from Other Worlds pay tribute to the intellectual and personal inspiration of Darko Suvin to whom the essays are dedicated Godey's Lady's Book Louis Antoine Godey,Sarah Josepha Buell Hale,1851 Includes music Surviving in the Wilderness Kristin Marciniak,2014-01-01 Would you eat a giant spider Would you eat cooked spider eggs What if you were starving to death People stranded for long periods of time in the wilderness face questions like these But sometimes no food to eat is the least of people's worries How long could you survive in a barren landscape with no shelter and a fractured skull See how these survivors did it Living without an Amygdala David G. Amaral,Ralph Adolphs,2016-04-22 Bringing together leading researchers this book comprehensively covers what is known about the amygdala with a unique focus on what happens when this key brain region is damaged or missing Offering a truly comparative approach the volume presents research on rats monkeys and humans It reports on compelling cases of people living without an amygdala whether due to genetic conditions disease or other causes The consequences for an individual's ability to detect danger and regulate emotions and for broader cognitive and social functions are explored as are lessons learned about brain pathways and plasticity The volume delves into the role of the amygdala in psychiatric disorders and identifies important directions for future research Illustrations include six color plates Lord, Could You Hurry a Little? Ruth H. Calkin,1983-05 Living and Dying with Cancer Angela Armstrong-Coster,2004-06-24 Explores the impact of cancer on those with the disease and the people around them THE DAUGHTER OF A PEDOPHILE Melissa L. Serigne, This book is a mere reflection of the years spent fighting for justice and the turmoil that came with them Writing was a safe way for me to share an account of my nightmarish childhood which consisted of sexual abuse at the hands of my biological father the lasting impacts the abuse had well into my adult life and how I triumphed over each obstacle I faced along the way These pages carry a burden that no child should ever have to bear leaving readers with a profound message to reflect on in the end May this book heal you in all the places you have never shown to the world And most importantly may it remind you that you my dear are not alone Short Stories and Novellas Ismael Casiano, Jr.,2012-04-03 This is the rhythm of our lives creating poetry This is my Art and my gift to you that you may see this
