even in moments of greatest terror when things seemed very near for then They would know she was afraid and dose round her Gossamer stretched across the way from nut bush to bracken frond and clung to her cold cheeks Spilt acorns and beech mast lay thick on the ground green and brown patterns in the upside down red leaves which made a carpet Heavy rains had swept the soil to the lower levels of the path and laid bare the rock in many places On a sandy patch she saw her own footprint a little square toe and a horse shoe where the iron heel had sunk That was in the morning when all was fresh and fair It cheered her to see the homely mark and she stayed a moment to look at it and replace her foot in it as Robinson Crusoe might have done A squirrel rippling along a leafy bough peered at her and then finding her so still ran down the tree trunk and along the ground Her step was strangely silent and a close observer would have seen that she walked only on the soil between the stones of the footpath stones of the earth itself which had worn their way through the thin layer of grass Her eyes and ears were as alert as those of a small wild animal as she slid through the shades in the depths of the wood
