Alive to Art, Portraying People and Places Jose Llobera, 1976-01-01 Introduces pen and ink water colors pastels and other art techniques used for architectural landscape or animal drawings People, Places, and Practices in the Arctic Cunera Buijs, Kim van Dam, Frédéric Laugrand, 2022-11-30 This collection follows anthropological perspectives on peoples Canadian Inuit Norwegian Sami Yupiit from Alaska and Inuit from Greenland places and practices in the Circumpolar North from colonial times to our post modern era This volume brings together fresh perspectives on theoretical concepts colonial imperial descriptions collaborative work of non Indigenous and Indigenous researchers as well as articles written by representatives of Indigenous cultures from an inside perspective The scope of the book ranges from contributions based on unpublished primary sources missionary journals and fairly unknown early Indigenous sources and publications to those based on more recent Indigenous testimonies and anthropological fieldwork museum exhibitions and self representations in the fields of fashion marketing and the arts The aim of this volume is to explore the making of representations for and or by Circumpolar North peoples The authors follow what representations have been created in the past and in some cases continue to be created in the present and the Indigenous employment of representations that has continuity with the past and also goes beyond traditional utilization By studying these representations we gain a better understanding of the dynamics of a society and its interaction with other cultures notably in the context of the dominant culture s efforts to assimilate Indigenous people and erase their story People s ideas about themselves and of the Other are never static not even if they share the same cultural background This is even more the case in the contact zone of the intercultural arena Images of the Other vary according to time and place and perceptions of others are continuously readjusted from both sides in intercultural encounters This volume has been prepared by the Research Group Circumpolar Cultures RGCC which is based in the Netherlands Its members conduct research on social and cultural change focusing on topics that are of interest to the Indigenous peoples of the Arctic The RGCC builds on a long tradition in Arctic studies in the Netherlands Nico Tinbergen Geert van den Steenhoven Gerti Nooter and Jarich Oosten and can rely on rich Arctic collections of artefacts and photographs in anthropological museums and extensive library collections The expertise of the RGCC in Arctic studies is internationally acknowledged by academics as well as circumpolar peoples The Living Church, 1954 Children's Book Review, 1972 Issues for Apr 1971 include separately paged section Children s book review occasional list no 1

Representing Place Edward S. Casey, 2002-01-01 You are here a map declares but of course you are not any more than you truly occupy the vantage point into which a landscape painting puts you How maps and paintings figure and reconfigure space as well as our place in it is the subject of Edward S Casey s study an exploration of how we portray the world and its many places Casey s discussion ranges widely from Northern Sung landscape painting to nineteenth century American and British landscape painting and photography from prehistoric petroglyphs and medieval portolan charts to seventeenth century Dutch cartography and land survey maps of the American frontier From these culturally and historically diverse forays a theory of representation emerges Casey proposes that the representation of place in visual works be judged in terms not of resemblance but of reconnecting with an earth and world that are not the mere content of mind or language a reconnection that calls for the embodiment and implacement of the human subject Book jacket Lives of the Most Excellent Painters, Sculptors and Architects Giorgio Vasari, 2023-12-01 Giorgio Vasari's Lives of the Most Excellent Painters, Sculptors and Architects serves as a foundational cornerstone in the understanding of Renaissance art and artists Written in a compelling and biographical style the book presents a series of vivid portraits of prominent artists offering insights into their lives techniques and the sociocultural context in which they worked Through his detailed narratives Vasari not only chronicles the triumphs and tribulations of these creative figures but also imbues the text with his critical assessment of their contributions bridging the evolution of artistic endeavors from the Medieval period through the Renaissance Vasari himself a painter and architect was deeply embedded in the artistic milieu of 16th century Italy His firsthand experiences and relationships with the artists he profiles inform the text as he offers a privileged insider's viewpoint of the artistic process and the challenges associated with it Driven by a desire to elevate the status of artists and to document their legacies Vasari's work reflects both his reverence for art and his ambition to create a comprehensive historical record Lives of the Most Excellent Painters, Sculptors and Architects is essential reading for anyone interested in the vibrant tapestry of Renaissance art Its combination of biography critique and art history makes it valuable for both scholars and those new to the subject Readers will find themselves captivated not only by the stories of the artists but also by the profound impact their work has had on culture and creativity Children's Book Review Index, 1985 Art Historical Perspectives on the Portrayal of Animal Death Roni Grén, 2024-04-22 This study concentrates on the discourses around animal death in arts and the ways they changed over time Chapter topics span from religious symbolism to natural history cabinets from hunting laws to animal rights from economic history to formalist views on art In other words the book asks why artists have represented animal death in visual culture maintaining that the practice has through the whole era been a crucial part of the understanding of our relation to the world and our identity as humans This is the first truly integrative book length examination of the depiction of dead animals in Western art The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history animal studies and cultural history Living Art Elly Kent, Virginia Hooker, Caroline Turner, 2022-11-08 Living Art Indonesian Artists Engage Politics Society and History is inspired by the conviction of so many of Indonesia's Independence era artists that there is continuing interaction between art and everyday life In the 1970s Sanento Yuliman Indonesia's foremost art historian of the late twentieth century further developed that concept stating New Indonesian Art cannot wholly be understood without locating it in the context of the larger framework of Indonesian society and culture and the whole force of history The essays in this book accept Yuliman's challenge to analyse the intellectual sociopolitical and historical landscape that Indonesia's artists inhabited from the 1930s into the first decades of the new millennium including their responses to the COVID 19 pandemic The inclusion of one of Yuliman s most influential essays translated into English for the first time offers those outside Indonesia an insight into a formative period in the generation of new art knowledge in Indonesia The volume also features essays by T K Sabapathy Jim Supangkat Alia Swastika Wulan Dirgantoro and FX Harsono as well as the three editors Elly Kent Virginia Hooker and Caroline Turner The book s contributors present recent research on issues rarely addressed in English language texts on Indonesian art including the inspirations and achievements of women artists despite social and political barriers Islam inspired art artistic ideologies the intergenerational effects of trauma and the impacts of geopolitical change and global art worlds that emerged in the 1990s The Epilogue introduces speculations from contemporary practitioners on what the future might hold for artists in Indonesia Extensively illustrated Living Art contributes to the acknowledgement and analysis of the diversity of Indonesia s contemporary art and offers new insights into Indonesian art history as well as the contemporary art histories of Southeast Asia and Asia more generally LITERATURE AND THE FINE ARTS - Volume I Herbert Arlt,Donald G. Martial Musings: A Portrayal of Martial Arts in the 20th Century Robert W. Smith,1999 In every century there are unique individuals whose fate makes them standing symbols of unique merit and accomplishment Robert W Smith s Martial Musings stands out as the sole literary work which offers readers a special perspective of martial arts as they evolved during the 20th century Smith personally escorts the reader on a martial arts tour He starts with his own initial involvement in the arts then launches outward across the nation over to Asia and eventually home again Some of the topics covered in the book include martial arts theory and practice portrayals of leading Asian instructors profiles of Westerners who studied the arts and brought them back to their respective countries and an historical record of the evolution of fighting arts in the West

Martial Musings represents the fourteenth book Smith has written on the subject and is a broader somewhat historical semi autobiographical commentary on martial arts in the 20th century But what makes this book such a joy to devour is the literary relish Smith stir fries in with the books basic ingredients He astutely couples combatives with literary panache and a ready wit In short Martial Musings introduces the reader to the individuals who shaped martial arts in the 20th century The hardbound book has 398 pages and over 300 illustrations with a full color cover and two color text pages

Last Sunday Drive, The: Vanishing Traditions in Georgia and the Carolinas Tom Poland, 2019 The Sunday drive Mom dad and the kids would head out to see the countryside An ice cream treat usually waited at day s end Back in the Burma Shave days mom and pop drive ins and gas station biscuits fed folks Cheap gas filled cars and people made Sunday drives through a land where See Rock City barns sawdust piles and trains and junkyards gave them plenty to see Men in seersucker suits ran old stores with oscillating fans and if the kids ate too much penny candy grandma had a home remedy for them It was a time for dinner on church grounds yard art and old fashioned petunias Join author Tom Poland as he revisits disappearing traditions

Walking and Mapping Karen O'Rourke, 2016-02-12 An exploration of walking and mapping as both form and content in art projects using old and new technologies shoe leather and GPS From Guy Debord in the early 1950s to Richard Long Janet Cardiff and Esther Polak more recently contemporary artists have returned again and again to the walking motif Today the convergence of global networks online databases and new tools for mobile mapping coincides with a resurgence of interest in walking as an art form In Walking and Mapping Karen O Rourke explores a series of walking mapping projects by contemporary artists She offers close readings of these projects many of which she was able to experience firsthand and situates them in relation to landmark works from the past half century Together they form a new entity a dynamic whole greater than the sum of its parts By alternating close study of selected projects with a broader view of their place in a bigger picture Walking and Mapping itself maps a complex phenomenon

Forty Years of the Landless Workers Movement Alex Ungprateeb Flynn, 2024-11-29 Forty Years of the Landless Workers Movement Landless Perspectives presents ethnographic insights into Latin America's largest social movement as it celebrates its 40th anniversary The Landless Workers Movement Movimento dos Trabalhadores Rurais Sem Terra MST with over 1.5 million members has been fighting for agrarian reform since 1984 In its 40 year struggle the movement has secured land for over 350,000 families and become a worldwide beacon for progressive politics Its enduring presence is a remarkable feat while other movements have come and gone the MST continues to be a steadfast force in the pursuit of social justice and environmental sustainability How has the MST managed to endure in a country dominated by agribusiness and characterized by hostile politics The rationale of this collection is to answer such questions from an ethnographic standpoint connecting personal stories to theorizations of land and struggle The detailed accounts of this book's contributions sit in dialogue with the longitudinal commitment of the contributors many of whom have been working with the movement over a period of decades Such a commitment allows this book to speak to a 40 year timeframe creating an approach that points to broader conclusions and possible futures With contributors from Brazil Europe and North America this book connects lived experiences with wider political questions pertaining to global mass mobilization Offering a fresh perspective on one of the world's most iconic social movements this volume celebrates the durability of the MST and speaks to the productive tensions that characterize its lived vital and daily struggle for agrarian reform The material will be of interest to scholars of anthropology sociology political science Latin American studies and beyond
