Balanced Christianity:

Balanced Christianity John Stott, 2014-01-17 Christians tend to polarize Some have intellectual faith while others are more emotional Some focus on structure while others focus on freedom And some champion evangelism while others advocate social action John Stott's clear headed and classic statement of balanced Christianity shows how we can hold these tensions together in ways which are biblical and faithful This edition includes an interview entitled Life in the Spirit of Truth between Roy McCloughry and the author Balanced Christianity John Stott, 2014-01 Balanced Christianity, 2014

Examining Billy Graham's Theology of Evangelism Thomas P. Johnston, 2003-03-12 Examining Billy Graham's Theology of Evangelism was written to advance an unbiased understanding of Billy Graham's theology and practice Theological examination of Graham's sermons revealed four distinct eras in his theology and practice The Early Graham pre 1949 The Early Graham 1949 1955 The Middle Graham 1955 1965 The Later Graham 1965 present In each of these eras Graham portrayed a discernible and distinct approach to defining evangelism theological nomenclature and cooperative strategy No literature on Billy Graham discusses in combination this evolution in Graham's theology and practice You are invited to take a fresh look at the teaching and practice of this man who has touched millions of lives through the proclamation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ Positively Powerless L.L. Martin, 2015-12-30 Thou shalt not be negative A vast movement of positive thinking took the twentieth century by storm and engulfed every area of our lives including our churches Put simply positive thinking became a part of what it means to be an American But should it be part of what it means to be a Christian L.L. Martin exposes the eye opening history of this movement documenting its roots in occult mystical and Eastern religious ideas Though Christianity came under its power the two philosophies stand in stark conflict As a result Christ was dethroned and the self was made sovereign rewiring our minds and weakening our faith This practical book immersed in Scripture seeks to reestablish you in a God centered life Deepen your spiritual walk by embracing honesty Discover the neglected paradoxes of Christian living Learn to live in the grace by which you were saved Positively Powerless will help you detect the false gospel of positivity and reconnect to your true source of power the gospel of Jesus Christ Includes questions for personal reflection or group discussion Infected Christianity Alan T. Davies, 1988-06-01 Focusing on five modern Christs Alan Davies examines how the Christian church has succumbed to the infection of racist ideas Using an analysis of the writings of representative philosophic and religious figures Davies shows that the myths of race and nation innocent in themselves have evolved into sacred myths and histories which not only infected Christianity but in the case of Germany and South Africa served to legitimize ruling racist elites He traces the course of racism to its roots in the religious cultural and intellectual history of western civilization and to its culmination in the formation of the Aryan myth the great race myth of white Europeans in the nineteenth century As Germany played a pivotal role in recent developments of racism Davies discusses the Germanic Christ first and most extensively He analyzes French Roman Catholic racism particularly its role in the Third

Republic through discussion of the Latin Christ His study of the Anglo Saxon Christ covers both English and American expressions of racism and their links to imperialism This is followed by a discussion of Afrikaner racism and an exploration of black nationalism in the United States and its advocacy of a black Christ Davies concludes with a discussion of the theological problems arising from the five racial Christs surveyed and the dilemmas posed by the attempt to cast a universal religion in a particular cultural mould

Redemption That Liberates Wonho Jung,2018-02-08 This book is for both evangelicals and ecumenicals interested in a holistic approach to the Christian vision of social transformation The author compares Richard Mouw s Reformed political theology and Nam dong Suh s Minjung theology to suggest a vision of transformation that is theologically more cogent and politically more engaged In general Minjung theology understands transformation in terms of political liberation and Reformed theology in terms of spiritual redemption and theologians of the two theologies have criticized the other s approach as theologically inadequate However Suh s formulation of Minjung theology and Mouw s Reformed political theology based on the neo Calvinist worldview show significant affinities with each other in their understanding of transformation in Christ Both Suh and Mouw show a broad understanding of liberation and redemption They develop their theologies in an inclusive both and way of thinking and their holistic approach is contrasted with the exclusive either or way of thinking in the Minjung theology of Byung mu Ahn and the Reformed theology of David VanDrunen The book concludes that redemption in Christ aims at an all encompassing transformation that includes not only spiritual renewal but also liberation from social alienation economic inequality and political oppression
