Bakhtin Between East and West Karine Zbinden, 2017-12-02 Mikhail Bakhtin 1895 1975 has had an enormous influence on literary studies and cultural theory Bakhtin between East and West Cross Cultural Transmission looks beyond the concepts of carnival and dialogue and traces for the first time the transformation of the Bakhtin Circle's thought from its introduction to the West in Julia Kristeva's seminal late 1960s theory of intertextuality through Tzvetan Todorov's landmark study and on to contemporary interpretations The notion of sociality in all its problematic complexity provides the red thread guiding us through this historical and thematic examination of Western and Russian Bakhtin studies As a critical evaluation of Bakhtin scholarship across various cultures and a celebration of the vigour of the Circle's legacy this is an invaluable resource for scholars and students with an interest in Bakhtin and critical theory The Bakhtin Circle and Ancient Narrative Robert Bracht Branham, 2005 Mikhail Mikhailovich Bakhtin 1895 1975 has become a name to conjure with We know this because he is now one of those thinkers everyone already knows without necessarily having to read much of him Doesn't everyone now know how polyphony functions what carnival means why language is dialogic but the novel more so how chronotopes make possible any concrete artistic cognition and that utterances give rise to genres that last thousands of years always the same but not the same Like Marx and Freud in the twentieth century or Plotinus and Plato in the fourth a familiarity with Bakhtin's thinking is so commonly assumed at least in the Humanities as to be taken for granted He is no longer an author but a field of study in his own right As Craig Brandist of the Bakhtin Centre at Sheffield University reports the works of the Bakhtin Circle are still appearing in Russian and English and are already large in number There are now several thousand works about the Bakhtin Circle The freedom given to contributors to address any text or topic under the general rubric of The Bakhtin Circle and Ancient Narrative has produced a remarkable variety of essays ranging widely over different periods genres and cultures While most of the contributors chose to explore Bakhtin's theory of genre or to take issue with his account of one genre Greek romance the remaining contributions defy such convenient categories What all the essays share with one another and those collected in Bakhtin and the Classics is the attempt to engage Bakhtin as a reader and thinker Towards a New Material Aesthetics Alastair Renfrew, 2017-12-02 Set in the context of the various materialist approaches to literary aesthetics that emerged in the twentieth century Renfrew's study presents a new synthesis of the work of Mikhail Bakhtin 1895 1975 and his circle Russian Formalism and elements of the official ideology of the early Soviet period The book's central aim in offering such a synthesis is to negotiate the poles of postmodernist subjectivism and traditional materialism around which much current literary and critical theory has stagnated and as the title suggests to point the way towards a newly conceived material basis for textual and literary analysis Inventing the Novel Robert Bracht Branham, 2019 Inventing the Novel uses the work of the Russian philosopher Mikhail Bakhtin to explore the ancient origins of the modern novel focusing on one of classical antiquity's most elusive works Petronius Satyricon and arguing in support of Bakhtin's sweeping claim that it plays an immense role in the history of the novel Bakhtin/"Bakhtin" Peter Hitchcock, 1998 Offering original research on Mikhail Bakhtin by leading scholars in the field this special issue of SAQ both celebrates the recent centennial of Bakhtin's birth and elaborates significant new strains in Bakhtinian thinking The distinction between Bakhtin and Bakhtin is a measure of the incommensurable space between the biographically verifiable figure and the one who emerges from contemporary critical applications of his work While the inevitability of this space must be acknowledged so too must its implications for a politics of culture where theory is concerned Can there be a real Bakhtin and can this one simply be the relevant Bakhtin Is the deified Bakhtin just a reified Bakhtin Exploring both the dynamism of Bakhtin versus Bakhtin and the dynamics of possible Bakhtins the contributors tackle this theorist's range of shifting shapes from the carnival messianistic and the chronotopic through the philosophic and the ideologic to the applied Bakhtin of the social sciences Bakhtin's texts are examined in the context of work by such disparate figures as Ernst Cassirer and Rudolph Rocker while various aspects of the academic Bakhtin industry are examined including the will to mythology by anthology and the inequities of a world market in ideas exemplified by the resource gap between Russian and Western scholarship The state of the archive is assessed by both UK Bakhtin Centre Director David Shepherd and Russian Bakhtin Archivist Nikolai Pan'kov Throughout the issue which is framed by Peter Hitchcock's introductory polemics and Michael Holquist's afterword author and archive are continually deconstructed and reconstructed Contributors Robert Barsky Rachel Falconer Maroussia Hadjukowski Ahmed Ken Hirschkop Peter Hitchcock Michael Holquist Vitaly Makhlin Nikolai Pan'kov Brian Poole David Shepherd Galin Tihanov Anthony Wall Bakhtin & His Intellectual Ambience Bogusław Żyłko, 2002 Wars of Position Timothy Brennan, 2006 Taking stock of contemporary social cultural and political currents Timothy Brennan explores key turning points in the recent history of American intellectual life He contends that a certain social democratic vision of politics has been banished from public discussion leading to an unlikely convergence of the political right and the academic left and a deadening of critical opposition Brennan challenges the conventional view that affiliations based on political belief claims upon the state or the public interest have been rendered obsolete by the march of events in the years before and after Reagan Instead he lays out a new path for a future infused with a sense of intellectual and political possibility In highlighting the shift in America's intellectual culture Brennan makes the case for seeing belief as an identity As much as race or ethnicity political belief Brennan argues is itself an identity one that remains unrecognized and without legal protections while possessing its own distinctive culture Brennan also champions the idea of cosmopolitanism and critiques those theorists who relegate the left to the status of postcolonial other Wars of Position documents how alternative views were chased from the public stage by strategic acts of censorship including within supposedly dissident wings of the humanities He explores how the humanities entered the cultural and political mainstream and settled into an awkward secular religion of the middle way In a series of interrelated chapters Brennan considers narratives of the fall of the Berlin Wall and the Clinton impeachment reexamines Salman Rushdie's pre-fatwa writing to illuminate its radical social leanings presents a startling new interpretation of Edward Said looks at the fatal reception of Antonio Gramsci within postcolonial history and criticism and offers a stinging critique of Hardt and Negri's Empire and the influence of Italian radicalism on contemporary cultural theory Throughout the work Brennan also draws on and critiques the ideas and influence of Heidegger Lyotard Kristeva and other influential theorists

Moments of Moment, 2021-11-22 a sudden spiritual manifestation whether in the vulgarity of speech or of gesture or in a memorable phase in the mind itself Thus Stephen Dedalus in James Joyce's Stephen Hero defines the phenomenon that has ever since been known as the literary epiphany The essays gathered in this volume comprise a wide survey of this phenomenon With recurrent reference to its most famous creators notably William Wordsworth who was the first to consciously explore and delineate those momentous spots in time in his Prelude Walter Pater James Joyce and Virginia Woolf this book intends to provide a broad and unbiased exploration into the various types and categories of the moment of moment that can be distinguished ranging from William Blake Ann Radcliffe and Charles Maturin through the nineteenth century sonnet tradition and the naturalistic novel to modernist and postmodernist exponents such as Ezra Pound and Elizabeth Bowen Philip Larkin and Seamus Heaney and include contributions by acclaimed experts in the field such as Martin Bidney Robert Langbaum Jay Losey and Ashton Nichols

Playing Host to Deity Paul Younger, 2002 The annual festivals that are central to the south Indian religious tradition are among the largest religious gatherings in the world This text offers a fieldwork based study of 14 different religious festivals

Bakhtin Reframed Deborah J. Haynes, 2013-03-18 Legendary philosopher and literary critic Mikhail Bakhtin 1895-1975 developed concepts which are bywords within poststructuralist and new historicist literary criticism and philosophy yet have been underutilised by artists art historians and art critics Deborah Haynes aims to adapt Bakhtin's concepts particularly those developed in his later works to an analysis of visual culture and art practices addressing the integral relationship of art with life the artist as creator reception and the audience and context intertextuality This provides both a new conceptual vocabulary for those engaged in visual culture ideas such as answerability unfinalizability heteroglossia chronotope and the carnivalesque defined in the glossary and a new practical approach to historical analysis of generic breakdown and narrative re-emergence in contemporary art Haynes uses Bakhtinian concepts to interpret a range of art from religious icons to post-Impressionist painters and Russian modernists to demonstrate how the application of his thought to visual culture can generate significant new insights Rehabilitating some of Bakhtin's neglected ideas and reframing him as a philosopher of aesthetics Bakhtin Reframed will be essential reading for the huge community of Bakhtin scholars as well as students and practitioners of visual culture

Bakhtin and the Classics Robert Bracht Branham, 2002 The authors eminent classicists and distinguished critics of Bakhtin put Bakhtin into dialogue with the classics and classicists into dialogue with Bakhtin Each essay offers a critical account of an important aspect of Bakhtin's thought and then examines the value of his approach in the context of a significant area of literary or cultural history Beginning with an overview of Bakhtin's notion of carnival laughter perhaps his central critical concept the volume explores Bakhtin's thought and writing in relation to Homer's epic verse and Catullus's lyric poetry ancient Roman novels and Greek philosophy from Aristotle's theory of narrative to the work of Antiphon the Sophist Mikhail Bakhtin and Walter Benjamin T. Beasley-Murray, 2007-11-30 This first comparative study of the philosophers and literary critics Walter Benjamin and Mikhail Bakhtin focuses on the two thinkers' conceptions of experience and form investigating parallels between Bakhtin's theories of responsibility dialogue and the novel and Benjamin's theories of translation montage allegory and the aura Wingless Desire in Modernist Russia Yelena Zotova, 2020-12-10 In Wingless Desire in Modernist Russia Yelena Zotova argues that the concept of envy underwent a peculiar transformation in the Russian Modernist prose of the 1920s due to a series of radical shifts in societal values with each subsequent change thwarting Russia's volatile axiological hierarchy Industriousness and austerity inferior to playful genius in Pushkin's Mozart and Salieri became virtues while the intrinsic value of nonutilitarian art was officially nullified by the Bolshevik state Consequently a new literary type emerged and envy described as wingless desire by Russia's chief poet Alexander Pushkin obtained new ownership as the envied became the envier Superimposing twentieth century theories of envy onto Mikhail Bakhtin's Author and Hero in the Aesthetic Activity 1923 Zotova proposes that Salieri's envy could be the wingless embryo of the Bakhtinian authorship

The Force of Tradition Donald G. Marshall, 2005-08-25 The essays in this volume offer analyses of religious literary and cultural traditions and both responses and resistance to them including works by Hans Georg Gadamer Josiah Royce Alasdair MacIntyre Jacques Derrida Charlotte Brontë Søren Kierkegaard Ludwig Wittgenstein Edith Wharton Chinua Achebe Samuel Taylor Coleridge Thomas Kuhn Donald Davidson antebellum African American women preachers and Christian and Jewish thinkers in the wake of the Holocaust among others BOOK JACKET The Birth of Intertextuality Scarlett Baron, 2019-11-01 Why was the term intertextuality coined Why did its first theorists feel the need to replace or complement those terms of quotation allusion echo reference influence imitation parody pastiche among others which had previously seemed adequate and sufficient to the description of literary relations Why especially in view of the fact that it is still met with resistance did the new concept achieve such popularity so fast Why has it retained its currency in spite of its inherent paradoxes Since 1966 when Kristeva defined every text as a mosaic of quotations intertextuality has become an all pervasive catchword in literature and other humanities departments yet the notion as commonly used remains nebulous to the point of meaninglessness This book seeks to shed light on this thought provoking but treacherously polyvalent concept by tracing the theory's core ideas and emblematic images to paradigm shifts in the fields of science philosophy psychoanalysis and linguistics focusing on the shaping roles of Darwin Nietzsche Freud Saussure and Bakhtin In so doing it elucidates the meaning of one of the most frequently used terms in contemporary criticism thereby providing a much needed foundation for clearer discussions of literary relations across the discipline and beyond Bakhtin and cultural theory Ken

Hirschkop, David Shepherd, 2024-06-04 An important collection of essays which treats Bakhtin as a provocative theorist whose work must be tested explored and compared with the work of others Contributors assess Bakhtin's contribution to difficult issues of colonialism feminism reception theory and theories of the body amongst others New articles explore the origins previously unacknowledged of Bakhtin's theory of language and provide a vivid account of the dramatic scandal surrounding Bakhtin's thesis on Rabelais Contains dramatic new material drawn from post perestroika sources which demythologizes the image of this important writer A new bibliographical essay and introduction bring the English language reader up to date with the progress of Bakhtin studies in Russia Der Andere Blick, oder, Das Vermächtnis des Menippos Werner von Koppenfels, 2007 Translation in a Global Market, 2001 What is the impact of globalization on texts and media To what extent do artists and writers consciously or unconsciously build translatability into their work Translation in a Global Market addresses these questions as well as the problems that may arise from a global market in cultural and aesthetic forms For instance what does a global market that increasingly rewards translation friendly works that cross linguistic and cultural boundaries mean for publishing in non Western languages What are the politics of an emergent internationalized aesthetic that privileges metropolitan over vernacular genres And why do specific cultural objects arrive and circulate in various public spheres The essays in this volume critically investigate these questions without assuming that these objects were destined to arrive in those public spheres Translation in a Global Market assembles contributors from several academic disciplines as well as visual artists for a closer look at the formation of an international canon and at the kinds of texts that gain international visibility The essays urge a shift in emphasis from global literacy which implies the use of a standard language and a preference for translatability in texts to transnational literacy which places minority and diaspora literatures in direct conversation with each other rather than with Paris London or New York Contributors Dina Al Kassim Emily Apter Timothy Brennan Elena Climent Maryse Condé Michael Eng Renée Green Rainer Ganahl Sarah M Hudgins Michael North Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Locating World Cinema M K Raghavendra, 2020-03-18 Locating World Cinema argues for the importance of understanding the local context of a film's creation and the nuances that it conveys to the spectator It examines the sociocultural contexts intrinsic to cinema from milieus like the USSR Russia China Japan France the US Iran and India The book analyses the works of some of the more celebrated but at times less than fully understood auteurs such as Kenji Mizoguchi from Japan Robert Bresson Jacques Rivette and Eric Rohmer from France Abbas Kiarostami from Iran Martin Scorsese from the US Zhang Yimou from China and Aleksei German from Russia Further it examines how the conditions of exhibition for art house cinema has transformed into the global art film that attempts to bypass the local by addressing international audiences The book deals with complex ideas but is lucidly written making it accessible to film students and lay persons alike English and Nordic Modernisms Bjørn J. Tysdahl, 2002 This collection of essays by distinguished scholars from six countries traces the criss crossing of influence between the English speaking and

Nordic world during the Modernist period It demonstrates how authors like Ibsen and Hamsun contribute to t
