Alabama Portrait Of America:

U.S.I.S. Video Library Catalog United States Information Agency, Statewide Audiovisual Service ... Catalog Florida. Statewide Audiovisual Service,1997 Portraits of American Women G. J. Barker-Benfield,Catherine Clinton,1998 Until recently a womanless American history was the norm But without a history of women we neglect gender dynamics sex roles and family relations the very fundamentals of human interaction Here 24 short essays locate the histories of women from Pocahontas to Betty Friedan and men together by period and provide a sense of their continuities through the whole gallery of the American past 26 photos American Portrait Gallery John Livingston,1854 A Southern Collection ,1993-02-01 A Southern Collection presents select masterworks from the permanent collection of the Morris Museum of Art on the occasion of the institution s inaugural exhibition Drawn from a comprehensive survey collection of painting in the South from the late eighteenth century to the present day the museum s opening exhibit explores an artistic terrain as rich and diverse as the South itself arranged in categories that reflect critical chronological developments in the art world A survey of painting activity in the South begins with the travels of itinerant portrait artists working prior to the Civil War At the same time landscape painting encompasses a sensitive response to the swamps bayous and fertile fields of the South Late in the nineteenth century strong and vivid genre painting competes with the nostalgic effects realized by Southern impressionists whose shimmering liquid images are invested with an elusive spirit of place In this century those strains of realism and naturalism that characterize the classic body of Southern writing appear in the representational art of painters who defied the modern abstract dictum And finally the exciting compelling works of a current generation of both self taught artists and sophisticated contemporary painters complete this fascinating though sometimes neglected chapter in American art history The American Portrait Gallery Abner Dumont Jones,1855 Shot in Alabama Frances Osborn Robb,2016 A sumptuously illustrated history of photography as practiced in the state from 1839 to 1941 offering a unique account of the birth and development of a significant documentary and artistic medium The American Cotton Planter and the Soil of the South ,1857 Down South, Or, An Englishman's Experience at the Seat of the American War Samuel Phillips Day,1862 Portraits of Eminent Americans Now Living; with Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Their Lives and Actions John LIVINGSTON (Notary Public),1853 The Magazine of American History with Notes and Queries John Austin Stevens,Benjamin Franklin DeCosta,Henry Phelps Johnston,Martha Joanna Lamb,Nathan Gillett Pond,1886 Annual Report of the American Historical Association American Historical Association,1898 A Bibliography of Alabama Thomas McAdory Owen,1898 Portraits of Eminent Americans Now Living John Livingston,1854 Annual Report of the American Historical Association ,1890 Through a Woman's Eye Marian Perdue Furman,2015-05-08 Through a Woman s Eye presents an evocative collection of a hundred black and white photographs made by Edith Morgan of Camden a small town in Wilcox County Alabama just after the turn of the twentieth century Morgan was educated locally before attending the

School of the Chicago Art Institute Subsequently she returned to Camden where she spent the remainder of her life teaching art She also taught illiterate blacks and whites to read Thirty years ago Marian Furman also of Camden and herself a professional photographer discovered an album made by Morgan of photographs of her friends students and local African Americans The latter although somewhat stereotypical of photographs of blacks at the time are sympathetic they reveal the humanity of Morgan s subjects This volume collects Morgan s photographs along with essays that put them in the context of time and place Professor Hardy Jackson s essay presents a personal memory Furman describes socioeconomic and political conditions in Wilcox County and offers biographical information on the Morgan family Dr Matthew Mason of Yale s Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library presents additional biographical information and offers a critical assessment of Morgan s photographs comparing her work to that of contemporary photographers especially her female peers Why Public Schools? Whose Public Schools? David Mathews,2012-01-01 One of the most compelling issues in public education involves what it means for schools to be public Are they public in funding or public in oversight and control Are they public in the values they convey or in the standards they set Are they public in deciding curriculum or only in access to space David Matthews probes these issues in 19th century Alabama in ways that no one else has attempted And he provides lessons from the past that can inform the present and future Documenting America, 1935-1943 Lawrence W. Levine,Alan

Trachtenberg,1988-10-27 Between 1935 and 1943 a group of photographers under the direction of Roy Emerson Stryker set out to photograph the United States for the Farm Security Administration and the Office of War Information Photographs taken by this celebrated group whose ranks included Dorothea Lange Ben Shahn Gordon Parks Russell Lee and Walker Evans have since become icons of the 1930s and 1940s In recent years however their work has been reproduced with little discussion of the particular circumstances surrounding its creation Documenting America takes a fresh look at these remarkable photographs The book opens with two incisive essays by Lawrence Levine and Alan Trachtenberg that examine issues central to photography and American culture While Levine explains how the pictures portray the complexity of life in the period balancing scenes of Depression hard times with images of the pleasures of life Trachtenberg analyzes the way in which viewers read photographs and the role of the government picture file that stands between the creation of the photographs and their use Both essayists raise important questions about Stryker s grand ambition of a photographic record of America about the ways of seeing that have grown up around the most famous of these photographs and about the whole enterprise of documentary photography and the conventions of realism The images themselves are presented in series selected from groups of pictures created by single photographers A documentary photographer often makes dozens of exposures to portray different elements of the subject experiment with camera angles and cover the stages of an event or steps of a process By studying these pictures in series we come closer to the photographer working in the field We see a tenant farming community in Gee s Bend Georgia the activities of the Salvation Army in San Francisco and the hubbub and commotion that filled Chicago's Union Railway Station in 1943. Texts accompanying each of the book's fifteen series describe the circumstances that gave rise to the creation of the pictures and discuss the relation between government policy and the subjects of the photographs. The nearly three hundred images included vividly portray America in the last bitter years of the Great Depression and the first years of the Second World War. First Editions of American Authors Frank Maier, 1820

American Abolitionism, from 1787 to 1861 Felix Gregory De Fontaine, 1861. A critique of American abolitionism after 1787 with emphasis upon the negative impact of the movement on the South and slavery. De Fontaine blames fanatic abolitionists for causing dissolution of the Union and for spoiling chances for gradual emancipation in the South. He also gives basic facts and figures on the initial six states of the southern confederacy including biographies of Jefferson Davis and Alexander Stevens and the slave and free populations of these states.
