Alain Essai:

A History of French Passions 1848-1945 Theodore Zeldin, 1993 No QB copy      Simone Weil and the Politics of Self-denial Athanasios Moulakis, 1998 Because it is impossible to distinguish Weil's life from her thought her writings cannot be understood properly without linking them to her life and character By situating Weil's political thought within the context of the intellectual climate of her time Moulakis connects it also to her epistemology her cosmology and her personal experience

La poésie congolaise ♦ L'aube d'un jour nouveau (Essai). Complément au cours de littérature nigro-africaine pour les classes du secondaire ♦ L'usage de l'enseignant, de l'élève et de tout lecteur curieux NORBERT MBU-MPUTU,      Tax Polymath - A life in International Taxation, 2010 This book comprises a selection of papers presented at a conference in honour of John Avery Jones which was held on 22 and 23 April 2010 in London

Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies      Roland Barthes at the Collège de France Lucy O'Meara, 2012-01-01 Roland Barthes at the Collège de France studies the four lecture courses given by Roland Barthes in Paris between 1977 and 1980 placing Barthes's teaching within institutional intellectual and personal contexts Theoretically wide ranging Lucy O'Meara's account focuses on Barthes's pedagogical style and the insights they provide into his written works including his focus on essayism and fragmentation and the negotiation between singularity and universality Linking Barthes's strategies to broad intellectual influences from Kant and Adorno to Zen and Taoist philosophies O'Meara reassesses Barthes's critical and ethical priorities in the decade before his death highlighting the vitality of his late thought

Playing the Market Anne Fuchs, 2021-11-22 The relationship between Johannesburg's Market Theatre and the economic and political forces of South Africa's apartheid regime was both complex and somewhat ambiguous The theatre's two founders Mannie Manim and Barney Simon however from idealistic beginnings managed to steer their experimental enterprise around pitfalls ranging from censorship boycotts and recuperation by big business to the difficulties encountered in finding black authors let alone black audiences If the place occupied by the Market institution in apartheid society is emphasized throughout the present study its contribution to the aesthetic of resistance is also underlined through detailed criticism of the plays and authors dominating the theatre Pieter Dirk Uys Barney Simon's workshop plays and among others Black Consciousness plays are subjected to various methods of theatre performance analysis The reckoning that had to come in the early 1990s revealed itself as globally positive the reasons for this may be found in the updated concluding part of

Playing the Market which is composed of more general essays including one on the vibrant Junction Avenue Theatre Company on how the theatre scene in contemporary South Africa started to change A postscript reveals more specific aspects of the Market situation in the late 1990s when its hegemony in the New South Africa was already being questioned

The Art of Instruction, 2008-01-01 The Art of Instruction Essays on Pedagogy and Literature in 17th Century France aims to add a new dimension to the scholarly discussion on how culture is inculcated by focusing on the interplay between aesthetic forms and pedagogical agendas The nine essays in the collection take into account the full range of meanings associated with the term art science method learning beautiful expression artistic creation In exploring the role art plays in shaping an instructional system the volume s contributors examine literary genres that are both established comedies tragedies sonnets and nascent novels manuals gazettes as well as the works of a diverse group of seventeenth century writers Chassignet Subligny Scarron Lafayette La Bruy re Maintenon de Vis Boursault Moli re and Racine What emerges from this diversity is an invaluable exploration of how educational imperatives no matter their focus rely as much on manipulating artistic forms as they do on articulating didactic principles Broad in its scope while remaining thematically coherent The Art of Instruction will be of interest to students and scholars of early modern French literature history culture and pedagogy

Primitive Communism Is Not What It Used to Be Christophe Darmangeat, 2024-07-01 When was male domination established in human societies and why did it take hold How does humanity s most remote past inform today s feminist struggle This new updated edition of Primitive Communism Is Not What It Used to Be available for the first time in English translation represents a timely contribution to the debate drawing on the accumulated knowledge of ethnology and archaeology While noting the many outdated aspects of Morgan and Engels seminal work this vast synthesis guided by a rigorous materialist approach renews Marxist analysis on a theme that is at once remote and pressingly topical

Believe and Destroy Christian Ingrao, 2018-03-09 There were eighty of them They were young clever and cultivated they were barely in their thirties when Adolf Hitler came to power Their university studies in law economics linguistics philosophy and history marked them out for brilliant careers They chose to join the repressive bodies of the Third Reich especially the Security Service SD and the Nazi Party s elite protection unit the SS They theorized and planned the extermination of twenty million individuals of allegedly inferior races Most of them became members of the paramilitary death squads known as Einsatzgruppen and participated in the slaughter of over a million people Based on extensive archival research Christian Ingrao tells the gripping story of these children of the Great War focusing on the networks of fellow activists academics and friends in which they moved studying the way in which they envisaged war and the world of enemies which in their view threatened them The mechanisms of their political commitment are revealed and their roles in Nazism and mass murder Thanks to this pioneering study we can now understand how these men came to believe what they did and how these beliefs became so destructive The history of Nazism shows Ingrao is also a history of beliefs in which a powerful military machine was interwoven with personal experiences fervour anguish utopia and cruelty      Simone Weil Thomas R. Nevin,1991

Biography of Simone Weil one of the twentieth century s most searching religious inquirers and political thinkers

Memory and Community in Sixteenth-Century France David P. LaGuardia,Cathy Yandell,2016-03-03 Memory and Community in Sixteenth Century France engages the question of remembering from a number of different perspectives It examines the formation of communities within diverse cultural religious and geographical contexts especially in relation to the material conditions for producing texts and discourses that were the foundations for collective practices of memory The Wars of Religion in France gave rise to numerous narrative and graphic representations of bodies remembered as icons and signifiers of the religious troubles The multiple sites of these clashes were filled with sound language and diverse kinds of signs mediated by print writing and discourses that recalled past battles and opposed different factions The volume demonstrates that memory and community interacted constantly in sixteenth century France producing conceptual frames that defined the conflicting groups to which individuals belonged and from which they derived their identities The ongoing conflicts of the Wars hence made it necessary for people both to remember certain events and to forget others As such memory was one of the key ideas in a period defined by its continuous reformulations of the present as a forum in which contradictory accounts of the recent past competed with one another for hegemony One of the aims of Memory and Community in Sixteenth Century France is to remedy the lack of scholarship on this important memorial function which was one of the intellectual foundations of the late French Renaissance and its fractured communities      The Socio-Economics of Roman Storage Astrid Van Oyen,2020-05-14 This is the first archaeological study to approach the central problem of storage in the Roman world holistically across contexts and datasets of interest to students and scholars of Roman archaeology and history and to anthropologists keen to link the scales of farmer and state      The Kecak and Cultural Tourism on Bali Kendra Stepputat,2021 The Kecak is one of the most well known dramatic dance performance practices on Bali It is based on stories from the Old Indian epic Ramayana performed by an ensemble of male and female solo dancers and accompanied by a group consisting of approximately 100 men who function both as musical accompaniment and living scenery that can be flexibly choreographed Since its genesis in the 1930s the Kecak has been almost solely performed in a tourist context This book gives a thorough analysis and description of the Kecak in its present form and explores how the Kecak became and stayed a tourist genre for more than 80 years The book is divided into two parts The first part focuses on the Kecak in its present form including musical choreographic and dramatic elements The connection between cultural tourism on Bali and Kecak performance practice is analyzed in detail including the dependency between tourism professionals and artists and ways of promoting the kecak Tourists perspectives on the Kecak are addressed separately The second part deals with the genesis and development of the Kecak from the 1930s onward      Administrative Structures and Civil Service in the Sahel Countries Margaret G. Shaw,1979      Extreme Pursuits Graham Huggan,2009-10-29 A provocative look at travel both voluntary and otherwise in an uncertain world      Bulletin Östasiatiska museet, 2001      Human Rights in Crisis Geneviève Souillac, 2005-01-01 Human Rights in Crisis uniquely documents recent ideas on democracy and human rights in the current French intellectual social and political context arguing that the French emphasis on the interdependence between democracy and human rights as a tool for the critique and renewal of democracy is a valid contribution to the global debate on the political philosophy and the ethics of human rights Centering on the work of four prominent contemporary French political philosophers Blandine Kriegel Marcel Gauchet Luc Ferry and Etienne Balibar Geneviève Souillac expertly examines the themes of contestation and reform that are the driving force in the French approach to democracy and human rights
