meditations for Catholic grandmothers to help you deepen your faith and support your family as only a grandmother can Brew a cup of your favorite tea and spend a few minutes savoring God's loving will for you through stories quotes prayers and takeaways to put your reflections into action I am praying that the reflections will uplift weary hearts while offering a great big dose of hope to grandmothers Bernadette Speaks John Moloney, 1994-01-01 Christina the Astonishing Marianne Leone, 2025-09-02 A coming of age novel told from the perspective of the irrepressible Christina whose encounters with Catholic school nuns Italian mothers and small town Massachusetts will have readers laughing out loud even when Christina isn t CHRISTINA FALCONE IS A THIRTEEN YEAR OLD EIGHTH GRADER at Precious Blood Junior High She is growing up pazza according to her Italian immigrant mother Rita who curses a country that poisons children with chocolate milk and singing mice on television The nuns at Precious Blood are giving Christina nightmares and facial tics with their daily descriptions of torture and martyrdom All she wanted as a fourth grader was to become a saint so she could be God s best friend and go straight to heaven and avoid burning in hell for all eternity At thirteen though Christina's nightmares about eyeless martyrs have become dreams of escaping this place where she can see the entire trajectory of her life looming before her in a never ending hamster loop that goes from Precious Blood Elementary School to La Sposa Bridal Shoppe and eventually across the street to Carmello s Funeral Home without ever leaving her neighborhood only seven miles from Boston But Harvard Square beckons and Christina's window to the world cracks open along with the entire American culture of the 1960s as she grows from girl to woman Christina the Astonishing is an endearing look at an irrepressible character that will ring true to all readers regardless of the time or place they happened to take the roller coaster ride to adulthood Witness of the Saints Milton Walsh, 2012-10-16 The writings of the Fathers of the Church have never been more widely available yet obtaining an exhaustive and user friendly volume of patristics can still be a daunting task Without realizing it many priests seminarians members of religious communities and even laity already own a patristic library their Liturgy of the Hours In the four volumes of the Liturgy of the Hours the official daily prayer of the Catholic Church there are nearly 600 selections from the writings of Fathers and saints Seeing the potential of this vast collection as a theological resource Milton Walsh has organized these selections by topics according to the four pillars of the Catechism of the Catholic Church This topical concordance allows the reader to compare what the various authors have written on the same themes while a chronological timeline of the readings shows their relationship to each other in time Walsh has also provided background on the liturgical celebrations of the Church as well as historical information on each author In addition there is a chapter on how patristic readings can assist in understanding the Bible This fresh and original presentation of material that is literally at the fingertips of anyone praying the Liturgy of the Hours can be a tremendous aid to both religious devotion and theological study Bertrand Meets the Fox and the Owl Marcel Canoy, 1993 Catholic mission schools in South Africa have resisted the clamping influence of the Apartheid state for many years especially after the introduction in 1953 of the Bantu Education
