children's literature This comprehensive anthology features Burnett's timeless classics including The Secret Garden, A Little Princess, and Little Lord Fauntleroy, celebrated for their lyrical prose and rich detailed illustrations. Each story is imbued with themes of resilience, transformation, and the redemptive power of nature, inviting young readers and adults alike to explore the profound emotional landscapes of her characters amidst the socio-cultural backdrop of Victorian England.

Frances Hodgson Burnett was a pioneering figure in children's literature, drawing on her own experiences of hardship and her keen observations of society. Born in Manchester, England, in 1849, Burnett immigrated to America where she faced various challenges that informed her storytelling. Her works often reflect a deep empathy for the struggles of children, particularly those experiencing loss or loneliness. Through intricate character development and magical realism, Burnett crafted narratives that resonate with audiences while addressing broader issues of class and gender. This Ultimate Collection is a must-read for anyone seeking to understand the heartwarming yet poignant narratives that have shaped children's literature. Ideal for both new and seasoned readers, it illuminates Burnett's ability to blend imagination with social commentary, making her stories as relevant today as they were over a century ago.

Farmer Brown is a western farmer who endures the hardships of farming with the help of his family. This totally self-sufficient family relies on each other, working from dawn to dusk to get all their work done. In Fishing, Farmer Brown's boy must finish weeding the garden before he is rewarded by being allowed to fish in the creek. The catch is he must catch enough fish to feed the family. Farmer Brown's boy learns that with every reward comes a responsibility. Haytime depicts the difficult work farmers endure during the cutting and baling of hay. Once again, in the quiet demeanor we've become accustomed to, Farmer Brown delivers a message of family togetherness and cooperation to attain a common goal. Horse is the story of Farmer Brown's boy who wishes for a horse. After being exposed to the excitement of the National Western Stock Show and Rodeo, Farmer Brown's boy can hardly wait to own his own horse. In this story, Farmer Brown teaches his son that to realize one's dreams, one must do more than wish.
