Bertrand Tavernier The Filmmaker Of Lyon:

Bertrand Tavernier Stephen Hay,2000-10-27 From film maker Bertrand Tavernier s first feature Watchmaker of Saint Paul to his acclaimed It All Starts Today released in Britain in 1999 his work for all its unique variety has maintained a consistent quality and political vision and it has remained accessible to audiences inside and outside his native France Offering an in depth view of Tavernier s films Hay examines the director actor camera relationships in them as well as the influences of music voice overs and editing This book is based on the film maker s conversations with the author and on first hand observation of the director at work and it gives valuable insight into the man himself Bertrand Tavernier Lynn A. Higgins,T. Jefferson Kline,2016-09-23 Bertrand Tavernier 1941 2021 was widely considered to be the leading light in a generation of French filmmakers who launched their careers in the 1970s in the wake of the New Wave In just over forty years he directed twenty two feature films in an eclectic range of genres from intimate family portrait to historical drama and neo Western Beginning with his debut feature L Horloger de Saint Paul 1974 which won the prestigious Louis Delluc Prize Tavernier showed himself to be a public intellectual Like his films he was deeply engaged with the pressing issues facing France and the world the consequences of war colonialism and its continuing aftermath the price of heroism and the power of art A voracious cinephile he was immensely knowledgeable about world cinema and American film in particular Tavernier s roots were in Lyon the birthplace of the cinema He founded and presided over the Institut Lumi re which hosts retrospectives and an annual film festival in the factory where the Lumi re brothers made the first films In this collection containing numerous interviews translated from French and available in English for the first time he discusses the arc of his career following in the lineage of the Lumi re brothers in that his goal like theirs is to show the world to the world It is no surprise then that an interview with Tavernier is a treat Beginning with discussions of his own films the interviews in this volume cover a vast range of topics At the core are his thoughts about the ways cinema can inspire the imagination and contribute to the broadest possible public conversation Bertrand Tavernier Lynn Anthony Higgins,2019-02-08 Bertrand Tavernier is widely recognized as the leading French filmmaker of his generation Both a consummate artist and a controversial public figure he is a passionate advocate for social causes and also a tireless defender of world cinema in general and the French cinematic heritage in particular Lynn Higgins book offers a guided tour through Tavernier s oeuvre taking into account both its prodigious diversity and its unifying themes It explores his use of genre and adaptation his work with actors and his affection for characters his treatment of France s colonial history his explorations of the powers of art and the complexities of intergenerational relations both among fictional characters and within French cinema history This is the most comprehensive and up to date scholarly book about Tavernier Original and lively sophisticated and engaging the book will appeal to anyone interested in film studies gender studies and French cultural studies including academics students cinema enthusiasts and Tavernier fans Riccardo Freda Roberto Curti,2017-03-21 In an eclectic career spanning four decades Italian director Riccardo Freda 1909-1999 produced films of remarkable technical skill and powerful visual style including the swashbuckler Black Eagle 1946 an adaptation of Les Misérables 1947 the peplum Theodora Slave Empress 1954 and a number of cult favorite Gothic and horror films such as I Vampiri 1957 The Horrible Dr. Hichcock 1962 and The Ghost 1963 Freda was first championed in the 1960s by French critics who labeled him the European Raoul Walsh and enjoyed growing critical esteem over the years This book covers his life and career for the first time in English with detailed analyses of his films and exclusive interviews with his collaborators and family

The Lumiere Autochrome Bertrand Lavédrine,Jean-Paul Gandolfo,2013-12-15 Louis Lumi re is perhaps best known in the U S for his seminal role in the invention of cinema but his most important contribution to the history of photography was the autochrome Engagingly written and marvelously illustrated with over 300 images The Lumi re Autochrome History Technology and Preservation tells the fascinating story of the first industrially produced form of color photography Initial chapters present the Lumi re family enterprise set out the challenges posed by early color photography and recount the invention rise and eventual decline of the autochrome which for the first four decades of the twentieth century was the most widely used form of commercial color photography The book then treats the technology of the autochrome including the technical challenges of plate fabrication described in step by step detail and a thorough account of autochrome manufacture A long final chapter provides in depth recommendations concerning the preservation of these vulnerable objects including proper storage and display guidelines There are also engaging portfolios throughout the book showcasing autochrome photographs from around the world as part of an initiative founded by the French banker Albert Kahn as well as engrossing testimonials by children of men who worked in the Lumi re factories in the early twentieth century The appendix includes transcriptions and facsimile reproductions from the Lumi re notebooks as well as original patent documents

The International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers Christopher Lyon,Susan Doll,1984

A Philosophical History of Documentary, 1895-1959 Dan Geva,2021-09-15 This book presents a chronology of thirty definitions attributed to the word term phrase and concept of documentary between the years 1895 and 1959 The book dedicates one chapter to each of the thirty definitions scrutinizing their idiosyncratic language games from close range while focusing on their historical roots and concealed philosophical sources of inspiration Dan Geva s principal argument is twofold first that each definition is an original ethical premise of documentary and second that only the structured assemblage of the entire set of definitions successfully depicts the true ethical nature of documentary insofar as we agree to consider its philosophical history as a reflective object of thought in a perpetual state of being self defined an ethics sui generis

Talking Movies Jason Wood,2006 Talking Movies is a collection of interviews with some of the most audacious and respected contemporary filmmakers of the present generation

Bertrand Tavernier Emily Zants,1999 Martin Scorsese has called Bertrand Tavernier FranceOs leading director The New Republic referred to him as Oone of the best directors alive O Despite his skill and some critical acclaim Tavernier is often misunderstood The first work on Tavernier written in English this book examines ten feature films that characterize Tavernier as an auteur This book is essential reading for all of those interested in French film independent filmmakers students or teachers of film history and of course fans of Tavernier 501 Movie Directors Steven Jay Schneider,2007 A comprehensive guide to all the movie directors you should know before it is too late Cinema and the Republic Jonathan Irvine,2013-05-15 This book analyses contemporary French films by focussing closely on cinematic representations of immigrants and residents of suburban housing estates known as banlieues It begins by examining how these groups are conceived of within France's Republican political model before analysing films that focus on four key issues Firstly it will assess representations of undocumented migrants known as sans papiers before then analysing depictions of deportations made possible by the controversial double peine law Next it will examine films about relations between young people and the police in suburban France before exploring films that challenge clichés about these areas The conclusion assesses what these films show about contemporary French political cinema Introduction Chapter One Cinema and the Republic Chapter Two The Sans papiers on Screen Contextualising Immigrant Experiences in Film Chapter Three Double peine The Challenges of Mobilising Support for Foreign Criminals via Cinema Chapter Four Challenging or Perpetuating Clichés Young People and the Police in France's Banlieues Chapter Five Challenging Stereotypes about France's Banlieues by Shifting the Focus Conclusion Notes Filmography and Bibliography Index Transatlantic Exchanges Richard Gray, Waldemar

Zacharasiewicz, 2007 The volume is based on an international colloquium held in Vienna under the auspices of the Austrian Academy of Sciences and the British Academy It contains contributions by prominent experts on the culture literature popular music and history of the American South and its role as an arena for cultural interaction The more than 30 essays provide analyses of the long standing cultural exchange between this region and the Old World from the 18th century to the present with the resulting cross fertilization in literature and in the cinema It also includes essays on the European experiences of prominent Southern authors and their reception in Europe and illustrates the fact that this region of the United States has been open to influences from elsewhere prone to hybridization but especially to the impact of the transatlantic exchange a field of research particularly appropriate in an era of an increasing internationalization of interdisciplinary Southern studies
