□GUYANA-MY ELDORADO□ DR FRANK A HANIFF,MD,2014-06-30 I am seventy six years of age have had two heart attacks and am not really very well My memory though is fine except sometimes for names but I recall the events as vividly as if they are occurring now My Far passed away on June 10 2013 Today is Valentine s Day and I visited my Far twice Our home on 2665 La Veta Avenue is a mere two minutes away I have just returned from San Bernardino Community Hospital where I visited a patient in my capacity as a Muslim chaplain I am not sure who if anyone will ever read this book It is a chronicle of our wonderful life but there are many Cinderella stories This is not a masterpiece of the English language nor is it in any way unique Writing gave me a great deal of pleasure I knew I had angels beside me and at all times one seraph We have had much joy pleasure excitement much to wonder about and much to puzzle over We have laughed and cried nearly just as much sometimes out of pleasure and sometimes out of pain and grief always we have walked with God We have made many mistakes we are only human and have alienated far too many but never deliberately nor out of meanness Those who love us will perhaps forgive and those who do not may hopefully forget our transgressions real or imagined always remembering what Jesus said about casting stones We tried to make a difference and with the help of God we did In as much as this humble effort reflects the insuperable challenges of finding peace and harmony in a small family I believe it resonates with the pain and suffering inflicted by man on his fellow man in places like Syria Central Africa and the Ukraine and with more natural disasters such as hurricanes typhoons and tornadoes which create no less pain and suffering As I approach the end of my life I continue in the Ministry of Healing in the hope that the solace and comfort I attempt to deliver will not be entirely unselfish Dr Frank A Haniff MD San Bernardino CA 92404 February 14 2014 Coming Out Raewyn

The Zen of the Wild Francis Sanzaro,2025-10-21 From the author of The Zen of Climbing and The Craft of Bouldering a manifesto for a new approach to connecting meaningfully with the wildness around and within us In recent years we have woken up to the crucial role that nature plays in our well being As we live increasingly urbanized lives we seek out wilderness and green space in times of hardship and turmoil or simply during our leisure time In the process of exploring and understanding more about the benefits of being in nature many of us have taken up swimming forest bathing cycling hiking and running in the open air But when we spend this time in the wild are we really connected to it Francis Sanzaro argues that we often obscure opportunities for real connection through our attachment to screens our anxieties about our everyday lives or simply through our egos When we observe nature we rarely do so without subconsciously filtering out the parts that don't fit into the perfect snapshot we crave To foster a genuine connection with the natural world and to better protect it we must embrace its contradictions as well as the surface beauty Through deeper engagement with our environment we can discover the wild within ourselves too The Lord Knows the Way Through the Wilderness Elvera M. like hauling the entire corn crop to market each year beginning at the age of 13 along with some quite humorous mistakes that I was responsible for Of course all teenagers do a few things they never get around to telling their parents about and I did a few of those myself Since almost all of the adults from those bygone days are now long deceased I can cover them and enjoy making fun of myself Obviously I also cover my immediate family in detail and most of my extended family I believe another interesting use that can be made of this book is as reading material for the grandchildren of people that lived on farms in the 40 s and 50 s This is history that very few children will ever again experience In talking to people from that era I have found that very few parents told them many stories from their childhood Yet people that grew up on farms from across the nation have told me again and again that my stories were very similar to their experiences Once children of today read these stories they are much more likely to discuss their grandparents experiences with them while they are still alive to tell their tales I live in Houston Texas today and I am now giving a series of talks on Growing Up On the Farm and can be contacted at farmboy prodigy net if anyone would like more information or would like me to mail them a signed copy I would welcome individuals recommending this book to public and school libraries high school FFA programs retailers and their friends on my behalf
