How to Lead Academic Departments Successfully Lindgreen, Adam, Irwin, Alan, Poulfelt, Flemming, Thomsen, Thyra U., 2021-12-07 It is an old cliché that leading and managing academics is like herding cats This book challenges this myth and presents a way to deal with the many challenges of academic leadership from managing departments research groups and teams to managing tensions between research and teaching The book is a practical and stimulating guide to different pathways to successful academic leadership both in personal and organizational terms Archaeological Fantasies Garrett G. Fagan, 2006 Including case studies this collection of engaging and stimulating essays written by a diverse group of scholars scientists and writers examines the phenomenon of pseudoarchaeology from a variety of perspectives Communicating Popular Science S. Perrault, 2013-07-12 Technoscientific developments often have far reaching consequences both negative and positive for the public Yet because science has the authority to decide which judgments about scientific issues are sound public concerns are often dismissed because they are not part of the technoscientific paradigm they question This book addresses the role of science popularization in that paradox it explains how science writing works and argues that it can do better at promoting public discussions about science related issues To support these arguments it situates science popularization in its historical and cultural context provides a conceptual framework for analyzing popular science texts and examines the rhetorical effects of common strategies used in popular science writing Twenty six years after Dorothy Nelkin s groundbreaking book Selling Science How the Press Covers Science and Technology popular science writing is still not meeting its potential as a public interest genre Communicating Popular Science explores how it can move closer to doing so Am I Making Myself Clear? Cornelia Dean, 2012-10-22 What we don t know can hurt us and does so every day Climate change health care policy weapons of mass destruction an aging infrastructure stem cell research endangered species space exploration all affect our lives as citizens and human beings in practical and profound ways But unless we understand the science behind these issues we cannot make reasonable decisions and worse we are susceptible to propaganda cloaked in scientific rhetoric To convey the facts this book suggests scientists must take a more active role in making their work accessible to the media and thus to the public In Am I Making Myself Clear Cornelia Dean a distinguished science editor and reporter urges scientists to overcome their institutional reticence and let their voices be heard beyond the forum of scholarly publication By offering useful hints for improving their interactions with policymakers the public and her fellow journalists Dean aims to change the attitude of scientists who scorn the mass media as an arena where important work is too often misrepresented or hyped Even more important she seeks to convince them of the value and urgency of communicating to the public Am I Making Myself Clear shows scientists how to speak to the public handle the media and describe their work to a lay audience on paper online and over the airwaves It is a book that will improve the tone and content of debate over critical issues and will serve the interests of science and society
