Commercial Homes in Tourism Paul Lynch, Alison J. McIntosh, Hazel Tucker, 2009-06-02 This volume is the first to examine the commercial home from an international perspective paying attention to the frequently occurring but often neglected forms of commercial accommodation including farmstays historic houses and self catering accommodation Conceptually it helps to explain a range of behaviours and practices for example the importance of setting and the nature of the host guest exchange The idea of home provides a conceptual bridge to related themes for example identity gender emotional management and cultural mobilities whose investigation in a commercial home context offers fascinating insights into hospitality tourism and society This book is structured around three themes The first is dimensions of the commercial home and includes discussion of issues pertaining to forms and characteristics and female entrepreneurship The second theme considers the commercial home as an investigative lens to examine wider issues of society hospitality and tourism such as the commercial home as a tool for rural economic development The third theme extending the commercial home paradigm looks at new areas of development including the Malaysian Muslim home as a site for economic and political action and the use of the home in marketing regional localities Commercial Homes in Tourism is the first book to give recognition to this distinct economically important and expanding form of tourism business by bringing together recent international research on this common form of commercial tourism accommodation Given the global nature of the commercial home phenomenon and owing to the originality of its theoretical contributions and practical insights this book will be of interest across a broad range of subjects and disciplines interested in the examination of the home phenomenon including students academics and business practitioners

The Best Bed and Breakfast in England, Scotland and Wales 2005-2006 Sigourney Welles, Jill Darbey, Joanna Mortimer, 2005 Chicago, 2005 Queer Horror Sean Abley, Tyler Doupé, 2024-08-20 From the beginning horror has been part of the cinema landscape Despite some of the earliest genre films with gay directors such as F W Murnau Nosferatu and James Whale Frankenstein The Invisible Man Bride of Frankenstein LGBTQIA characters have rarely been portrayed in full view For decades filmmakers have included coded content in their films with the homosexual experience translated into censor friendly subtext for consumption by general audiences Gradually LGBTQIA characters and themes have moved from the background to the foreground as the horror genre has grown along with its audience s tastes and attitudes Likewise more and more LGBTQIA writers and directors have begun to offer their queer centric takes on scary movies and today queer horror is a thriving film genre With more than 900 entries this critical filmography is a comprehensive critical yet playful examination of the history of LGBTQIA content in horror films Eight journalistic contributors dig into every era of scary movies including the early silents pre and post Hays Code content grindhouse sleaze LGBTQIA indies and megaplex studio releases From Whale s The Old Dark House 1932 to Don Mancini s Chucky films and everything in between this collection explores what can be found at the intersection of LGBTQIA and horror in the film industry
