Hugo Häring Peter Blundell Jones, 1999 Peter Blundell Jones Professor of Architecture at the University of Sheffield has long been concerned with the organic movement in architecture and has written extensively about it including a substantial work on Hans Scharoun. The present book is not just a biography of Häring but an unusually detailed analysis of his architectural work including many unbuilt projects which have never before been published. It also includes an account of Häring's theory with translated extracts from his many writings. Through setting Häring within his historical context and differentiating his position from figures such as Mies Le Corbusier and Hannes Meyer Peter Blundell Jones suggests a radical reframing of the early Modern Movement. He was aided in the development of the book by Häring's personal assistant in the late years Margot Aschenbrenner who was trained as a philosopher. Jaquette The Library Catalogue Royal Institute of British Architects. Library, 1899 Great City Parks Alan Tate, 2013-05-13 Great City Parks is a celebration of some of the finest achievements of landscape architecture in the public realm. It is a comparative study of twenty significant public parks in fourteen major cities across Western Europe and North America. Collectively they give a clear picture of why parks have been created how they have been designed how they are managed and what plans are being made for them at the beginning of the twenty first century. Based on unique research including extensive site visits and interviews with the managing organisations this book is illustrated throughout with clear plans and professional photographs for each park. This book reflects a belief that well planned well designed and well managed parks remain invaluable components of liveable and hospitable cities. Soldiers, 1976
