Berlin Between Two Worlds Ronald A. Francisco, 2019-08-27 Berlin has been a central issue in the postwar dispute between East and West and was often the spark that brought the Soviet bloc and the West to the brink of confrontation Although the city's role in international politics has been muted in the nearly quarter century since the erection of the Berlin Wall its political status remains unsettled and its potential to precipitate a crisis and even a military conflict has lessened only by degree The contributors to this volume discuss Berlin's future from the perspective of all the major national actors involved Just as the Quadripartite Agreement of 1971 was a necessary prerequisite for East West detente any future change in the division of Germany or in East West relations will require fundamental shifts in long held positions on the status of Berlin The authors show how the perceptions stakes and even risks of the Berlin issue vary by nation and explore the reasons why Berlin is likely to continue to be an obstacle to East West cooperation Foreign Affairs ,1986 The World Today Asian Yearbook of International Law, Volume 8 (1998-1999) B.S. Chimni, Sik Ko Swan, Masahiro Miyoshi, M.C.W. Pinto, Surva Subedi, 2020-01-29 The Asian Yearbook of International Law is a major refereed publication dedicated to international law issues as seen primarily from an Asian perspective This is the first publication of its kind edited by a team of leading international law scholars from across Asia The Asian Yearbook of International Law provides a forum for the publication of articles in the field of international law and other Asian international law topics written by experts from the region and elsewhere Its aim is twofold to promote international law in Asia and to provide an intellectual platform for the discussion and dissemination of Asian views and practices on contemporary international legal issues As a rule each volume of the Asian Yearbook normally contains articles notes a section on State practice an overview of the participation of Asian countries in multilateral treaties a chronicle of events and incidents surveys of the activities of international organizations which have special relevance to Asia such as a survey of the activities of the Asian African Legal Consultative Committee and book review bibliography and documents sections A London Bibliography of the Social Sciences .1931 Vols 1 4 include material to June 1 1929 International Relations Theories Timothy Dunne, Milja Kurki, Steve Smith, 2021 Unrivalled coverage of international relations theories from leading experts whose case studies show you how theory can be applied to address concrete political problems In this best selling text contributors to Dunne Kurki and Smith explore the full spectrum of theoretical perspectives and debates ranging from the historically dominant traditions of realism liberalism and Marxism to prominent critical approaches from feminism and postcolonialism to green theory Each chapter is dedicated to a particular theory and features a case study that shows how theory can be used to explain real world political dilemmas New To This Edition A new chapter sixteen on global international relations encourages you to explore the context in which IR developed and appreciate the importance of viewing international relations theories from diverse representative perspectives Chapters have been fully revised to reflect recent events including the Trump Presidency developments in climate change politics and the Covid 19 pandemic The case studies help you to apply theories to real world issues Revised introduction to each part provides an overarching narrative to the text helping you to understand and interpret different approaches Updated online resources include quidance on answering case study questions encouraging you to reflect upon and critically evaluate what you have learnt Book jacket Beyond Transnationalism Sonja Levsen, Kiran Klaus Patel, 2023-05-22 This book is a collection of case studies that provides fresh insights into the history of political activism in Europe's long 1970s It covers the full spectrum of such groups from the far left to the neofascist right and from the various parts of Europe including East and West The chapters in this book push the boundaries of our knowledge with regard to transnational spaces For many political activists at the time identifying with a transnational or global protest movement provided both legitimacy for their claims and stood for the promise of sweeping change Existing research has often reproduced such perceptions This book goes beyond such an approach by distinguishing between different forms of transnational spaces More specifically it recognizes important differences between imagined spaces of solidarity and belonging spaces of knowledge circulation and spaces of social experience and political action Each chapter uses this new framework and analyses the interrelationship and significance of each of these three spaces Beyond Transnationalism will be of particular interest to historians political scientists and educators The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of European Review of History Crises in World Politics Michael Brecher, 2013-10-22 Crises in World Politics Theory Reality presents the study of international conflict This book discusses the danger of crises to global and regional stability Organized into eight chapters this book begins with an overview of the key concepts of the inquiry conflict crisis and war This text then explores the four phases of an interstate crisis namely onset escalation de escalation and impact Other chapters consider the unified model of crisis which is applied to the Gulf Crisis War of 1990 91 This book discusses as well the most intense military security crisis in the 20th century the dynamics of the process and how the actors coped with their crisis The final chapter summarizes the primary findings about models and concepts and about each phase and its corresponding period at the actor level namely pre crisis crisis end crisis and post crisis This book is a valuable resource for historians policy makers and social scientists The Russian Armed Forces at the Dawn of the Millennium, 2000 This anthology is an outgrowth of a conference titled The Russian Armed Forces at the Dawn of the Millennium held at the Collins Center of the Army War College's Center for Strategic Leadership from 7 through 9 February 2000 The genesis for the conference was the realization by several members of the staff of the Collins Center and Army War College faculty that the U S led NATO operation in Kosovo resulted in a significant shift of Russian views on the United States and NATO The conference also complemented our general objective of examining the changing environment in which the United States including its armed forces finds itself The conference brought together over 50 individuals from academia and the policy and intelligence communities to examine the current state of the Russian military Focusing primarily on the socio political dimension of the military but not ignoring the military technical dimension the presentations delivered during the conference looked at Russia's domestic environment the state of the military perceived threats and Russia's capacity to A Spectre is Haunting Arabia Miriam M.
