Bernard Ashmole 1894-1988 An Autobiography:

Bernard Ashmole, 1894-1988 Bernard Ashmole, 1994 Bernard Ashmole 1894 1988 was one of the outstanding classical archaeologists of the 20th century and a world authority on ancient Greek sculpture His first post was as Director of the British School at Rome and he went on to hold the posts of Professor at University College London and keeper of Greek and Roman Antiquities at the British Museum After holding the Lincoln Professorship of Classical Art and Archaeology at Oxford Ashmole spent much of his retirement as adviser to John Paul Getty on the purchase of Greek and Roman antiquities for his museum in Malibu This autobiography was written at the behest of his grandchildren and recounts both his fascinating experiences as a scholar and his armed service in both World Wars Also included are a full bibliography of Ashmole's published writings an Appreciation by Martin Robertson and essays on Ashmole and the British Museum by I Jenkins and The Ashmole Archive at King's College London by G Waywell In Pursuit of Ancient Pasts Stephen L. Dyson, 2008-10-01 divThe stories behind the acquisition of ancient antiquities are often as important as those that tell of their creation This fascinating book provides a comprehensive account of the history and development of classical archaeology explaining how and why artifacts have moved from foreign soil to collections around the world As archaeologist Stephen Dyson shows Greek and Roman archaeological study was closely intertwined with ideas about class and social structure the rise of nationalism and later political ideologies such as fascism and the physical and cultural development of most of the important art museums in Europe and the United States whose prestige depended on their creation of collections of classical art Accompanied by a discussion of the history of each of the major national traditions and their significant figures this lively book shows how classical archaeology has influenced attitudes about areas as wide ranging as tourism nationalism the role of the museum and historicism in nineteenth and twentieth century art DIV A Supplementary Bibliography to the History of Classical Scholarship William Musgrave Calder, R. Scott Smith, 2000 Ancient Art and its Commerce in Early Twentieth-Century Europe Guido Petruccioli, 2022-12-29 John Marshall 1862 1928 was an antiquities expert hired by the Metropolitan Museum of New York An attentive observer of the antiquities trade Marshall's archive photographs and annotations on more than 1000 objects shines light on the secretive world of art dealing and how objects arrived at the largest museums of Europe and North America Plaster Casts Rune Frederiksen, Eckart Marchand, 2010-09-27 This volume originates from an international conference Oxford University 2007 Texts address plaster casts and related themes from antiquity to the present day and from Egypt to America Mexico and New Zealand They are of interest to classical archaeologists art historians the history of collecting curators conservators collectors and artists Articles explore the functions status and reception of plaster casts in artists workshops and in private and public collections as well as hands on issues such as the making trading display and conservation of plaster casts Case studies on artists use of material and technique include ancient Roman copyists Renaissance sculptors and painters Dutch 17th century workshops Canova Boccioni and others A second theme is the role of plaster casts in the history of collecting from the Renaissance to the present day Several papers address the dissemination of visual ideas models and ideals through the medium Papers on modern and contemporary art illuminate the changing uses and semantic values of plaster casts in this period Amongst the types of casts discussed are artists models and final works as well as casts after antiquities including sculpture architecture and gems dactyliothecae The volume demonstrates the richness of the field both in terms of the material itself and modern scholarship concerned with it Conceived as a handbook for students academics curators and collectors the text will form a standard work on the role of plaster casts in the history of Western sculpture Archaeology and Women Sue Hamilton, Ruth D Whitehouse, Katherine I Wright, 2016-09-16

Archaeology and Women draws together from a variety of angles work currently being done within a contemporary framework on women in archaeology One section of this collection of original articles addresses the historical and contemporary roles of women in the discipline Another attempts to link contemporary archaeological theory and practice to work on women and gender in other fields Finally this volume presents a wide diversity of theoretical approaches and methods of study of women in the ancient world representing a cross section of work being carried out today under the broad banner of gender archaeology The geographical and chronological range of the contributions is also wide from Southeast Asia and South America to Western Asia Egypt and Europe from Great Britain to Greece and from 10 000 years ago to the recent past An ideal sampler for courses dealing with women and archaeology A Research Guide to the Ancient World John M. Weeks, Jason de Medeiros, 2014-11-25 The archaeological study of the ancient world has become increasingly popular in recent years A Research Guide to the Ancient World Print and Electronic Sources is a partially annotated bibliography The study of the ancient world is usually although not exclusively considered a branch of the humanities including archaeology art history languages literature philosophy and related cultural disciplines which consider the ancient cultures of the Mediterranean world and adjacent Egypt and southwestern Asia Chronologically the ancient world would extend from the beginning of the Bronze Age of ancient Greece ca 1000 BCE to the fall of the Western Roman Empire ca 500 CE This book will close the traditional subject gap between the humanities Classical World Egyptology and the social sciences anthropological archaeology Near East in the study of the ancient world This book is uniquely the only bibliographic resource available for such holistic coverage The volume consists of 17 chapters and seven appendixes arranged according to the traditional types of library research materials bibliographies dictionaries atlases etc The appendixes are mostly subject specific including graduate programs in ancient studies reports from significant archaeological sites numismatics and paleography and writing systems These extensive author and subject indexes help facilitate ease of use Contemporary Authors New Revision Daniel Jones, 1999-05 In response to the escalating need for up to date information on writers Contemporary Authors New Revision Series brings researchers the most recent data on the world's most popular authors These exciting and unique author profiles are essential to your holdings because sketches are entirely revised and up to date
