Kaplan, 2006-12-20 Good Bread Is Back is a beautifully illustrated book for foodies and Francophiles alike Widely recognized as a leading expert on French bread the historian Steven

Laurence Kaplan takes readers into aromatic Parisian bakeries as he explains how good bread began to reappear in France in the 1990s following almost a century of decline in quality Kaplan sets the stage for the comeback of good bread by describing how while bread comprised the bulk of the French diet during the eighteenth century by the twentieth per capita consumption had dropped off precipitously This was largely due to social and economic modernization and the availability of a wider choice of foods But part of the problem was that the bread did not taste good Centuries old artisanal breadmaking techniques were giving way to conveyor belts that churned out flavorless fluff In a culture in which bread is sacrosanct bad bread was more than a gastronomical disappointment it was a threat to France's sense of itself With a nudge from the millers who make the flour and assistance from the government bakers rallied reclaiming their reputations as artisans by marketing their traditionally made loaves as the authentic French bread By the mid 1990s bread officially designated as bread of the French tradition bread made without additives or freezing was in demand throughout Paris What makes this artisanal bread good Kaplan explains meticulously describing the ideal crust and crumb interior mouth feel aroma and taste He discusses the breadmaking process in extraordinary detail from the ingredients to the kneading shaping and baking and even to the sound bread should make when it comes out of the oven He offers a system for assessing bread's quality and a language for discussing its attributes A historian and a connoisseur Kaplan does more than tell the story of the revival of good bread in France He makes the reader see smell taste feel and even hear why it is so very wonderful that good bread is back

August Zang and the French Croissant Jim Chevallier, 2009 Yes an Austrian brought the croissant to France But it wasn't Marie Antoinette Half a century after her time an Austrian officer opened a bakery in Paris which became the place to go The Boulangerie Viennoise introduced Viennese techniques which would one day lead to the baguette and was known for its Viennese loaves and its kipfel small rolls in the shape of a crescent Or as the French say croissant August Zang didn't stay long having brought viennoiserie to France he went back to Vienna to found the newspaper Die Presse and with it the modern Austrian daily press This work discusses the history of the kipfel why two common tales about the croissant are myths how the Boulangerie was started and its influence on French baking and August Zang's subsequent career This second edition includes a closer look at the rue de Richelieu in the nineteenth century and at Viennese baked goods in general an expanded analysis of Zang's innovations and influence a glance at the changes in bakery decor and revised overviews of the baguette and the changes in the croissant as well as additional mentions of Zang in the American press Make the Bread, Buy the Butter Jennifer Reese, 2012-10-16 Reese's Make the Bread Buy the Butter is a lively frugal chic answer to the question Make or buy It includes about 120 different food staples Indianapolis Monthly, 1996-11 Indianapolis Monthly is the Circle City's essential chronicle and guide an indispensable authority on what's new and what's news Through coverage of politics crime dining style business sports and arts and entertainment each issue offers compelling narrative stories and lively urbane coverage of Indy's cultural landscape How to Start a Home-based Catering Business Denise Vivaldo, 2014-07-01 Catering continues to be an expanding industry The author is an experienced chef with extensive knowledge of the hospitality industry She has updated information and expanded on the role of social media Indianapolis Monthly, 1998-03 Indianapolis Monthly is the Circle City's essential chronicle and guide an indispensable authority on what's new and what's news Through coverage of politics crime dining style business sports and arts and entertainment each issue offers compelling narrative stories and lively urbane coverage of Indy's cultural landscape Vegetarian Times, 1996-07

Meadowood Anthology 1905-2011 Barbara Restle, 2012-06-18 The short memoirs in the MEADOWOOD ANTHOLOGY gives us insight into the commonplace happenings and also the remarkable events that occurred in the lives of possibly the greatest generation in our American history Living in Meadowood Retirement Community we have residents from a variety of professional and military backgrounds who have fascinating stories to write from the Great Depression forward to WW II the Korean and Vietnam Wars including one on the early days of Arab Spring We have memoirs from authors who experienced the grimness of wars and somehow were able to write with a subtle humor and at times also with a sense of the ridiculous as we read about one day in the life of a young woman an Italian Resistant Fighter We have one memoir by a resident that begins with a Jewish Russian ancestor of her husband being conscripted into the Czars Army He eventually escaped to Israel

One half century later the descendents of this man find safety in America These are only a few of many stories of victims persecuted for political or religious belief systems and who eventually find sanctuary in our country and later in Meadowood Retirement Community Aging in Place a charming expression we have coined does not mean we exist in an invisible cozy cocoon We have monthly lectures programmed by one of our retired professors who invites world famous academically acclaimed lecturers who guide us through new international policies of countries in Europe the Middle East and Asia We also have residents who prefer to do their own thing One resident moved in and announced that he had never in 20 years had time to read a book He had been one of the driving forces at NASA as in sending a man to the moon He now volunteers with Meals On Wheels He still has not read his first book Our miniature memoirs our life stories are the treasures we leave to our children perhaps to give to their own
