Berthold Lubetkin:

Berthold Lubetkin John Allan, 2023-09-15 This book presents a compact and compelling account of the life and work of Berthold Lubetkin 1901 1990 widely regarded as the outstanding architect of his generation to practise in England It explores the key themes achievements and setbacks of his career drawing from the author's twenty year personal friendship with Lubetkin himself from discussions with former colleagues and from his direct experience of working with many of Lubetkin's buildings as a conservation architect The study reveals the significance of Lubetkin's Russian origins and European travels re-assesses his prime work of the 1930s and charts the extensive output of his often overlooked post-war career It also considers Lubetkin's legacy in the later work of his key associates several of whom became significant architects in their own right Lubetkin is a legendary figure in architectural circles while still remaining slightly mysterious and misunderstood The author shines new light on the man and his ideas and assesses his unique place in modern architectural history Illustrations include original black and white images as well as high quality colour studies of the buildings as they are now A complete List of Works and published commentaries also provide a valuable source of reference Berthold Lubetkin

John Allan, 2012 This is a comprehensive study on the life and work of modernist architect Berthold Lubetkin This book reveals the man behind the architecture a survivor of the Russian Revolution European traveller and social commentator an intellectual in Europe and a well known social activist in Britain throughout the 20th century Berthold Lubetkin John Allan, 2012 Berthold Lubetkin's Highpoint II and the Jewish Contribution to Modern English Architecture

Deborah Lewittes, 2018-05-15 In 1935 the Russian born Jewish architect Berthold Lubetkin and his firm Tecton designed Highpoint a block of flats in London which Le Corbusier called revolutionary Three years later Lubetkin completed a companion design Yet Highpoint II felt very different and the sense that the ideals of modernism had been abandoned seemed hard to dispute Had modern architecture failed to take root in England This book challenges the belief that English architecture was on hiatus during the 1930s Using Highpoint II as a springboard Deborah Lewittes takes us on a journey through the defining moments of modern English architecture the high points of the period surrounding Highpoint II Drawing on Lubetkin's work and his writings the book argues that he advanced influential lasting theories which were rooted in his design for Highpoint II Lubetkin's work is explored within the context of wider Jewish emigration to London during the interwar years as well as the anti-Semitism that pervaded Britain during the 1930s As Lewittes demonstrates this decade was anything but quiet Providing a new perspective on twentieth century English architecture this book is of interest to students and scholars in architectural history urban studies Jewish studies and related fields A History of Interior Design John F. Pile, 2005 Delivers the inside story on 6 000 years of personal and public space John Pile acknowledges that interior design is a field with unclear boundaries in which construction architecture the arts and crafts technology and product design all overlap The Other Modern Movement Kenneth Frampton, 2022-01-25 A revealing new look at modernist architecture emphasizing its diversity complexity and broad inventiveness Usually associated with Mies and Le Corbusier the Modern Movement was instrumental in advancing new technologies of construction in architecture including the use of glass steel and reinforced concrete Renowned historian Kenneth Frampton offers a bold look at this crucial period focusing on architects less commonly associated with the movement in order to reveal the breadth and complexity of architectural modernism The Other Modern Movement profiles nineteen architects each of whom consciously contributed to the evolution of a new architectural typology through a key work realized between 1922 and 1962 Frampton s account offers new insights into iconic buildings like Eileen Gray s E 1027 House in France and Richard Neutra s Kaufmann House in Palm Springs California as well as lesser known works such as Antonin Raymond s Tokyo Golf Club and Alejandro de la Sota s Maravillas School Gymnasium in Madrid Foregrounding the ways that these diverse projects employed progressive models advanced new methods in construction techniques and displayed a new sociocultural awareness Frampton shines a light on the rich legacy of the Modern Movement and the enduring potential of the unfinished modernist project The Architecture of Paris Andrew Ayers,2004 The author here presents an architectural history of Paris stretching from the 3rd century BC up until the end of the 20th century Lubetkin and Tecton Peter Coe,Malcolm Reading,1981 Lubetkin & Tecton Malcolm Reading,Peter Coe,1992 *Correspondence Between Sasha Lubetkin and Others, Referring to Berthold Lubetkin; Tss. with Mss. as well as students of those disciplines around the globe Newcomers' Lives Peter Unwin, 2013-01-31 How the culture and life of the British people have been transformed by the contribution of immigrants in recent history Shaping the City to Come Deborah Lewittes, 2022-02-15 This study reassesses modern architecture and town planning in mid twentieth century England highlighting ideas and debates that were in circulation as modernist ideals gradually took root The book reveals an architectural culture that was serious active and visionary with impact that extended into the postwar years Through close studies of specific works and writings the author acknowledges the importance of the international context of modern architecture as it intersected with the variety of narratives that defined English modernism such as national identity the New Empiricism and the picturesque taking into account the large community of migr architects who settled in England with the approach of World War II as well as a more general dissemination of international style forms and theories from continental Europe The book places familiar figures such as Berthold Lubetkin and Ern Goldfinger as well as projects such as Tecton s Penguin Pool and the Festival of Britain s Live Architecture Exhibition in new light presenting a rich picture of the modern architectural climate in England The study draws attention to the debates proposals and processes that fed into the development of modernist urban minded and forward looking architectural ideals Post-War Homes Dominic Bradbury, 2025-10-01 Post war housing across Britain is an extraordinary story of optimism ambition and innovation During the 1950s and 1960s a combination of reconstruction consumer led demand and the rise of the Welfare State saw an unprecedented building boom in housing and new homes British architects embraced the challenge seeking to build on the lessons of interwar Modernism while introducing fresh and original ideas of their own They created mid century New Towns estates and houses as well as many mid and high rise modern landmarks Post War Homes provides a major survey of this golden age of tectonic creativity while focussing upon its most important influential and engaging typologies As homeowners and occupiers today continue to enjoy the design quality of their mid century homes this book celebrates the spirit of innovation and optimism in which such ambitious housing projects were designed and delivered Features 30 illustrated case studies including full colour photography and historic imagery from the RIBA archive A complete history considering exemplary standalone homes innovative mid and high rise projects as well as estates and mixed use communities Landmark projects including Ern Goldfinger s Trellick Tower Denys Lasdun s Keeling House Neave Brown s Alexandra Road and Chamberlin Powell Bon s Golden Lane Estate Cost C16, Improving the Quality of Existing Urban Building Envelopes Marie Therèse Andeweg, Silvia Brunoro, L. G. W. Verhoef, 2007 As a result of changes in the composition of the population society changes continuously with respect to various factors including age structure family composition and the availability of energy Changes lead to situations that are reflected in the commissioning of buildings which is gradually shifted from new construction to the reuse and renovation of existing buildings The adaptation of buildings often requires the modification of facades and the construction behind The scope of this action within the COST Transport and Urban Development Domain is to improve techniques and methods for envelopes of buildings constructed during the last half of the 20th century in the COST countries In other words it is directed on the building envelopes of the so called non traditional buildings This publication is based on a support by COST an intergovernmental European framework for international cooperation between nationally funded research activities COST creates scientific networks and enables scientists to collaborate in a wide spectrum of activities in research and technology

Man-Made Future Iain Boyd Whyte,2006-12-19 This anthology of essays by a group of distinguished scholars investigates post 1945 city planning in Britain not from a technical viewpoint but as a polemical visual and educational phenomenon shifting the focus of scholarly interest towards the often neglected emotional and aesthetic aspects of post war planning Each essay is grounded in original archival research and sheds new light on this critical era in the development of modern town planning This collection is a valuable resource for architectural social and urban historians as well as students and researchers offering new insights into the development of the mid twentieth century city

Electoral Pledges in Britain Since 1918 David Thackeray,Richard Toye,2020-08-04 Nobody doubts that politicians ought to fulfil their promises what people cannot agree about is what this means in practice The purpose of this book is to explore this issue through a series of case studies It shows how the British model of politics has changed since the early twentieth century when electioneering was based on the articulation of principles which it was expected might well be adapted once the party or politician that promoted them took office Thereafter manifestos became increasingly central to electoral politics and to the practice of governing and this has been especially the case since 1945 Parties were now expected to outline in detail what they would do in office and explain how the policies would be paid for Brexit has complicated this process with the will of the people as supposedly expressed in the 2016 referendum result clashing with the conventional role of the election manifesto as offering a mandate for action

Here Comes the Sun Ken Worpole,2000-12 Here Comes the Sun looks at how social reformers planners and architects in the early twentieth century tried to remake the city in the image of a sunlit ordered utopia While much has been written about architectural modernism Worpole concentrates less on buildings and more on the planning of the spaces in between the parks public squares open air museums promenades public pools and other public leisure facilities Life in the open was of particular concern to early urban planners and reformers with their dreams of release from the confines of overcrowded unsanitary slums Picturing youthful working class bodies made healthy by exercise and tanned by the sun they imagined an escape route from cities Worpole demonstrates how open air public spaces became sought after commissions for many early modernist architects in the early 1900s resulting in the transformation of the European cityscape a fascinating account of the political idealism that informed urban planning for the first two thirds of the twentieth century full of insights into how public space influences a sense of belonging and ownership The Guardian This is one of those books you stroke lovingly Open it and there is page after page of beautiful photographs this book combines history society politics environment and place in a well written and emotive text

The strength of the book is the way it crosses these traditional boundaries and disciplines Town and Country Planning Drawing on architectural theories philosophy literature and even film making Worpole s book is wide ranging and erudite and should be of interest to the layperson as well as to the urban planner It is also elegantly written and complemented by a mixture of black and white and colour photographs to provide a visual emphasis to the points he raises N16 Magazine

Reconstructing Modernism Ashley Maher,2020 Drawing upon a wealth of previously unexplored architectural criticism by British authors this book reveals how arguments about architecture led to innovations in literature as well as to redesigns in the concept of modernism itself Modern London Lukas Novotny,2018-10-02 From the art deco factories of the 1920s to the skyscrapers of today this illustrated architectural tour whisks us through decades of London design Londonist Shaped variously by war economics population growth and design trends the city of London has been molded by some of the greatest modern architects and to this day remains a center of building design and experimentation Through intricate graphic illustrations and accessible entertaining text London s streets structures and transport systems of the last century are brought to life Discover long lost treasures such as the Firestone Factory and marvel at modern day masterpieces like the London Aquatics Centre delight in previously vilified social housing projects such as the Balfron Tower and discover the drama behind bold eccentric designs like the Cheesegrater The city s skyline can change in an instant Modern London invites you to sit back and survey the scene so far
